BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

President KELLY THOMPSON

Western Kentucky University’s third president, Dr. Kelly Thompson, has ushered the campus into its most progressive era. He has guided the expansion from 1,894 to 8,710 students, witnessed numerous building projects, and developed the campus’ master plan of growth.

Dr. Thompson joined the administrative staff at Western in 1929 as Field Representative. He became Director of Public Relations in 1935 and assistant to the president in 1946. Dr. Thompson was named president of the University in 1955. He holds the B.A. and M.A. degrees from Western and was awarded the Doctor of Laws degree by Morris Harvey College in 1956.

He is active in civic and religious affairs and is extremely interested in the administration of intercollegiate athletics.

Athletic Director TED HORNBACK

Ted Hornback is a veteran of 28 years on Western’s athletic staff. He graduated from Western in 1929 and returned to assist basketball coach E. A. Diddle in 1939, a position held until the end of the 1963-64 season. He was also head of Western’s physical education department from 1947 until 1965, when he was named Western’s first full-time athletic director in 1965.

Hornback also coaches the Hilltopper tennis team, which has had phenomenal success under his leadership, winning 11 OVC championships.

Head Basketball Coach JOHN OLDHAM

In two seasons as head coach at Western, John Oldham has posted an impressive 43-12 record and has guided the Hilltoppers to a post-season tournament berth each season. Oldham, who coached nine seasons at Tennessee Tech, has an enviable 11-year coaching record of 161-95. Now in his 12th season as a collegiate coach, Oldham is recognized as one of the nation’s top basketball strategist.

Oldham graduated from Western in 1949 after a spectacular athletic career, before playing professional basketball, and coaching on the high school level before reaching the collegiate level. Oldham succeeded E. A. Diddle following the 1963-64 season.

Asst. Basketball Coach GENE RHODES

Coach Rhodes returned to Western, where he graduated in 1952, as a member of the Hilltopper’s new coaching staff for the 1964-65 season. Rhodes does a large part of the scouting work for the staff and also appraises high school basketball talent. His Louisville St. Xavier high school basketball team won the Kentucky title in 1958. Rhodes was named Kentucky “High School Coach-of-the-Year” in 1963-64.

Asst. Basketball Coach BUCK SYDNOR

Wallace B. (Buck) Sydnor was a veteran of 15 years of high school coaching before returning to Western in the fall of 1964. Sydnor’s main responsibility is to develop the potential of the Hilltopper freshmen in addition to his usual coaching, scouting, and recruiting duties. He was an outstanding guard on the first two Western teams to play in the NIT in 1943 and 1944. He is a well-versed instructor in the fundamentals of basketball.

Official Basketball Program
Taking time out from their activities in the Hilltopper Hundred Club are secretary-treasurer Jim Feix, newly installed board member O. H. Wallace, president Ted Hornback, and newly installed board member Jo T. Orendorf. Other members of the board of directors are Charles Campbell, Herschel Webb, Norman Kahn, Dr. W. R. McCormack, and Dr. Chalmer Embry.

YOUR HOST FROM COAST TO COAST®
Western Kentucky University is fielding its 48th basketball team this season. Since its inauguration in 1914, the Hilltopper style of basketball has remained in the national spotlight and has greatly added to the national popularity of the game.

Western is recognized nationally and internationally for its basketball All-Americans, its championships, its victories, and its coaches.

It all started in 1914 when Western defeated Bethel (Ky.) College 38-21, under head coach J. L. Arthur. Basketball was discontinued from 1917 to 1922 when coach L. T. Smith guided the Toppers against 13 opponents.

The real history of Western basketball began with the appointment of E. A. Diddle as head basketball coach. For 43 seasons, Diddle’s name became synonymous with winning basketball. Coaching his first collegiate basketball game, Diddle witnessed a startling 103-7 victory which set the pattern for future fame and recognition.

After Western played 149 games in the original “Little Red Barn”, the Hilltoppers moved into the Physical Education Building (now the Margie Helm Library) where Western was to win 336 of 374 home games in 32 seasons.

During the 1933-34 season, Diddle’s Topper posted the first of 18 seasons with 20-or-more victories—it was the first of ten straight seasons with 20 wins or more. Western won 30 of 33 games in 1937-38, which also was Ted Hornback’s first season to assist Diddle.

In Diddle’s first 21 years of coaching, Western captured 11 Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships and seven Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association titles in addition to placing over 20 players on All-KIAC and All-SIAA squads.

By the fourth decade of the 20th century, the center jump had been eliminated and the jump shot became popular. Basketball was moving into a promising era—only to be thwarted briefly by World War II.

Following the war, Western added two more KIAC crowns in 1947 and 1948 in addition to winning the SIAC title in 1947. In 1948, Western became a charter member of the newly-formed Ohio Valley Conference. Under coach Diddle, the Hilltoppers won ten OVC season championships and four conference tourneys.

Coach Diddle retired from the hardwood battles following the 1963-64 season played in the Diddle Arena. In 43 seasons, Diddle won 759 games and lost only 302 for a lifetime basketball coaching percentage of 71.5.

Head coach John Oldham and assistants Gene Rhodes and Buck Sydnor took the helm in 1964-65 and guided the Toppers to their ninth appearance in the National Invitational Tournament. And last season, the Hilltoppers posted The Hill’s best basketball record since 1954 en route to competing in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time.

And so it is that Western, which has played 148 colleges and universities in addition to teams from Havana, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, has constantly retained its national prestige.

HILLTOPPER BASKETBALL PLAYER SKETCHES

WAYNE CHAPMAN
(OWENSBORO, KY.)

10

This 6-6 junior is in his second season with the Toppers after transferring from the University of Kentucky. Chapman was named to the NCAA All-Mid-East Regional team and also to the All-OVC Tournament team last season. His top two season games of 22 points came against Tennessee Tech and NCAA Tournament loss to Michigan. Chapman was an All-Stater at Daviess Co. where he was coached by Buck Sydnor, current assistant coach at Western.

RICH HENDRICK
(BRISTOW, KY.)

15

Hendrick comes to the Hilltopper varsity after a fine freshman season of 26.1 ppg, which led all frosh last year. The 6-1 sophomore guard will be trying to break into the starting lineup. He has good hands, quick reflexes, deadly jump shot, and improved defensive ability. Hendrick led all Kentucky prep scorers in his last two seasons at Bristow. In addition to his basketball talent, Rich has won a reputation as a capable auctioneer.

JOHN RUSSELL
(HARDYVILLE, KY.)

20

One of only three who “made it” from the frosh team to varsity level, Russell had a difficult time adjusting to collegiate guard play—but he developed scoring touch late in the season. The 6-2 sophomore is improving steadily in his ball control and passing game. He is a defensive performer and has good shooting touch from the outside.

BUTCH KAUFMAN
(LOUISVILLE, KY.)

21

The scrappy 5-10 junior floor general improved steadily during last season to reach his peak in the NCAA Tournament with championship performances in every game—especially against Loyola (Ill.). His hustle is highly contagious. Kaufman earned grant-in-aid “on his own” with his fine frosh season. This clever playmaker also has a deadly jump shot from around three-throw circle. Kaufman will be in the season-long fight for a starting berth in the backcourt.

Clem Haskins
(CAMPBELLSVILLE, KY.)

22

“The Gem” is in his final season as a Hilltopper. The 6-3 All-American has twice been voted “Player of the Year” in the OVC and twice “Most Valuable Player” in the OVC Holiday Tournament. His laurels, prior to this season were: honorable mention by AP and UPI, member of Converse’s Chuck Taylor All-America, two-time All-District USBWA team, named one of nation’s top ten sophomores by Basketball News, and tri-MVP of the Vandy Tournament with Clyde Lee and Mike Stilliman. Haskins is long overdue for total recognition of all his abilities as an All-American. In two seasons, Haskins has a 21.9 scoring average and a 10.4 rebounding average. He led the OVC in scoring in 1964-65 with a 23.4 average. His passing game is devastating and he is a sound and steady performer on defense. Clem holds the school and conference record of 55 points in a game.

NORMAN WEAVER
(SCOTTVILLE, KY.)

24

The 6-5 junior did solid service as a front-line reserve last season. His overall strength and jumping ability made him a valuable asset around the basket. Weaver can play either forward or center and his determined play could put him into contention for a regular berth. Weaver played his high school ball at Allen County.

Mike Fawcett
(KOKOMO, IND.)

25

The 6-5 junior made himself a valuable member of Toppers with his excellent reserve play in the latter part of the season. A tremendous hustler and sound defensive performer, Fawcett gives his best whether it be in practice or in games.

Pearl Hicks
(FALL ROCK, KY.)

33

A starter as a sophomore, Hicks played a valuable reserve roll last season. The 6-7 senior can play the pivot as well as the corner spots. Hicks, despite his slender build, is a remarkable rebounder, who shared the season single-game high his soph year of 17 rebounds. Graduated from Clay County High School in Manchester.

Hilltopper Basketball Player Sketches

Greg Smith
(Princeton, Ky.)
Western's leading rebounder Greg Smith has all the credentials for an even better season in 1966-67 than in his sophomore year. Greg's overall strength, speed, and stamina make him a constant rebinding threat as well as an offensive and defensive threat. Greg grabbed his game-high of 20 rebounds and 20 points. His quickness and ability are assets to Western's essential rebounding and fast-breaking game.

Hal Bozarth
(Audubon, N. J.)
"Bozo" is a rugged competitor who was the second best rebounder on the frosh squad last year. The 6-4 soph began moving superbly from the corner spot during the tail-end of his frosh year. His physical strength makes him valuable inside. With the development of an outside shot, Bozarth could become an outstanding forward. He was honorable mention as a high school all-stater in New Jersey.

Dwight Smith
(Princeton, Ky.)
"Big Brother" Dwight is one of the outstanding guards in the nation—if not the best. During his soph season, he led the nation's guards in rebounding with an 11.3 average and finished last season with a 16.1 scoring average. This tremendous driver and jump-shooter is virtually impossible to stop on a one-on-one situation. Dwight gave clutch performances by scoring 34 and 30 points against Eastern and Murray, and scored 29 against Loyola (Ill.), where he caught the eye of the nation's top sportswriters. He has been named twice to the All-OVC season and tourney teams.

Bill Newman
(Hillard, Ohio)
The 6-6 junior from the Buckeye State returns to the squad after a layoff from collegiate ball. Newman has the height and the bulk (225 pounds) to become a valuable center reserve. A fine high jumper, Newman is also a good rebounder who needs more experience to become a steady performer.

Joe Mac Hill
(Beaver Dam, Ky.)
The 6-2 junior forward-guard adds depth up front and in the backcourt. Hill is not flashy, but he moves the ball well and is scrappy and persistent on defense. Hill has a good shot from out front, and he does a remarkable job underneath for his size. Hill also lettered in baseball and golf in high school.

Western Kentucky University
SCOUTING HOME OPPONENTS

VANDERBILT Commodores

For the first time in three years, Vanderbilt is without 6-9 Clyde Lee which causes a major problem for head coach Roy Skinner (6 yrs., 107-43). But Vandy returns with a nucleus around forward Bo Wyendant and Jerry Southwood for holdovers Ken Gibbs, Ron Knox, Gene Lockeyear, and sophomores Tom Hagan, 6-9 Bob Bundy, and Hal Bartsch. With a few games under their belts, the Commodores will be ready to cause confusion in the SEC race.

LOUISIANA COLLEGE Wildcats

The Wildcats broke even last season with a 13-13 record under head coach and athletic director Billy Allgood. Only two seniors dot the Wildcat roster with a total of seven returning lettermen: 6-0 Larry Perkins, 6-6 Royce McCain, centers Ronnie Kaiser and Dickie Sylvest, 6-5 Dave Mitchell, and guards Dave DeRousse and Don Bates. Offense averaged 71.4 points per game last season. Louisiana College is located at Pineville, La., and has an enrollment of 1,135 students. This contest renews the Hilltopper-Wildcat series which terminated in 1956.

TAMPA Spartans

First-year coach Dana Kirk and the Spartans have only four lettermen back from last year's 7-18 season. Five freshmen and three junior college grads have joined the Spartans to give Tampa a "new look" this year. The only sure starters appear to be senior forward Jack Anderson and junior guard Vic Thixton. Top fresh appear to be guards Jerry Clark, Les Henley, 6-6 Brian Ritchie, and Doug Smith. The junior college grads are 6-3 John Sileno, 6-3 Rudy Bradley, and 5-11 Ken Stigall. The Spartans already have played Miami (Fla.) and LSU on a slate that includes Xavier, Louisville, Dayton, North Carolina, and Florida State. Western leads the series 11-0, having defeated the Spartans 126-79 in E. A. Diddle's last season as head coach.

PAN-AMERICAN Broncos

The Broncos return with their three top scorers and rebounders from last season as Pan-American seeks to regain its share of national recognition. The returnees are 6-7 center Otto Moore (20 pts. per game and 20.1 rebounds), 6-7 forward Tony Eaton (18.5 ppg). and Alex Gilum (10.2 ppg). Coach Sam Williams' (9 yrs., 138-74) Broncos have added height in 6-7 soph Drew Chernar and junior college grads Dick Miasyk and Roger Serio. Williams faces a problem in the backcourt with four sophs and one Jr. college player to choose his starters. Six-foot Howard Fuller averaged 23.5 ppg for the frosh and 5-11 Lonnie Reynolds posted a 16.3 norm. With all that height up front, the Broncos need team leadership and defense rather than scoring from the backcourt. The Broncos' strength lies in their rebounding and scoring balance.

EASTERN KENTUCKY Maroons

Head coach Jim Baechtold (5 yrs., 65-59) has plenty of potential and enthusiasm—but only two seniors on the Maroon squad. Guard Doug Clemmons (6-1) and forward Dick Clark (6-3) are the seniors. Baechtold admits that the key to the season is the play of 5-11 soph Bobby Washington in addition to 6-7 Garfield Smith and 6-7 Jerry Jones. The Maroons lost four starters from last season—including Eddie Bodkin—when Eastern went 9-5 in the OVC and 16-9 overall to finish second in loop play. Now in the OVC tourney. The Toppers clipped Eastern three times last season—83-67, 107-89, and 72-67. Additional sophs are 6-4 Glenn Howard and 5-11 Tom Bettersworth.—It's a rebuilding year for the Maroons, who should be able to contend for the loop title.
