2009

UA19 Championship Effort

WKU Athletics

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Recommended Citation

http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/1891

This Report is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.
Dear Friends of WKU Athletics,

There are no words to adequately express how much we appreciate the incredible support we receive from our legion of fans, corporate sponsors and donors. It is a special time to be a part of WKU, and the tremendous strides we have made as an athletic department and university would not be possible without your commitment to our mission and support of our programs.

The primary goal each day for WKU Athletics is to produce a CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT in everything we do, and this approach has resulted in many successes for us. Our achievements over the last two years have been truly unique, as our 19 total championships are more than any school in all of the 11 BCS Conferences during this period! Our nine regular season or tournament championships in 2008-09 were as many as anyone in the nation for the second consecutive year and trailed only our 10 championships in 2007-08 for the highest total in Sun Belt Conference history. WKU has a storied and tradition rich program, but the last two years have truly elevated athletic accomplishments on the Hill to a new level.

These championships are especially meaningful because of the manner in which we have operated. WKU is one of only three Sun Belt Conference schools to exceed the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR) in every men's and women's sport. Ten of our athletic teams have a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better, and 46 percent of all student-athletes have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

None of this would be possible without the collective efforts of so many:

- A supportive President and Board that are committed to excellence
- Dedicated coaches who develop our young men and women while also preparing them for the future
- Talented and motivated student-athletes who perform on the field and in the classroom
- An administrative staff with passion and vision
- University faculty and staff who understand the importance of WKU Athletics
- A loyal community that enthusiastically supports the Hilltoppers
- Alumni, friends and corporate sponsors that provide valuable financial support

This decade alone we have also completed almost $100 million toward athletic facility improvements and capital projects, have graduated 85% of our student athletes who have exhausted their eligibility, and have won 65 total conference championships. I know you have a sense of pride in these tremendous accomplishments, and I hope you enjoy the attached WKU Athletics annual report which reviews our incredible successes and accomplishments.

However, our work is not finished. We must and will continue to consistently produce a CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT! We will never rest on our laurels, but instead remain focused on the future to ensure our continued academic and athletic success without compromising our tradition and values. Thank you again for your tremendous support of the Hilltoppers. Your “CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT” is truly appreciated!

Sincerely,

Dr. Camden Wood Selig
Director of Athletics
Western Kentucky University
Third Baseman Wade Gaynor, whose 25 home runs in 2009 ranked second in WKU history, was selected by the Detroit Tigers in the third round of the 2009 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. Gaynor’s selection is the highest in the program’s history and was one of a school record six Hilltoppers drafted.

"WKU’s 19 total team championships over the last two years (2007-08, 2008-09) are more than any school from one of the 11 BCS Conferences (I-A) during this period."
CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT

The Hilltopper’s nine team championships in 2008-09 was as many as any NCAA Division I-A (Football Bowl Subdivision) member and trailed only WKU’s 10 championships from 2007-08 for the most in the Sun Belt Conference’s 33-year history.

MOST SBC CHAMPIONSHIPS IN ONE YEAR

WKU wins nine conference championships

WKU claimed regular season championships in men’s basketball (regular season and tournament), women’s swimming, women’s indoor and outdoor track, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s outdoor track and baseball while also winning the women’s volleyball tournament championship.

BACK TO BACK NATIONAL SUPERIORITY

WKU’s nine Sun Belt regular season or tournament championships in 2008-09 were as many as any school from one of the 11 BCS conferences for the second consecutive year. The Hilltoppers tied Notre Dame and Brigham Young for top national honors. Louisville (7, Big East) and Kent State (7, MAC) were the only other schools with seven or more team championships.

Janet Jesang was a three-time All-American in 2008-09, earning that distinction in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track. WKU’s women’s track program has won 11 consecutive titles, winning every SBC cross country, indoor and outdoor conference title dating back to 2006.
WKU Director of Athletics Dr. Camden Wood Selig (left) receives the 2008 Bubas Cup Trophy from Sun Belt Conference Commissioner Wright Waters (center) and former Commissioner Vic Bubas (right).

WKU has won 19 of the last 36 Sun Belt Conference team titles dating back to the start of the 2007-08 year. The 53% conference title success streak is the highest percentage in the nation during this period.

WKU has won the Bubas Cup four of the past eight years and is one of only four schools to win the Bubas Cup five or more times. The Bubas Cup, named for the Sun Belt’s first commissioner, is awarded annually to the school that accumulates the most points based on their final standings in each of the conference’s 19 sponsored sports.

Since Wood Selig was named Director of Athletics in 1999, WKU has won 65 conference regular season and tournament championships, 27 more than the next closest school. His leadership has helped grow the annual athletics department budget from $5.6 million in 1999-2000 to over $18.5 million in 2009-10.

WKU’s athletic teams have won 65 Sun Belt Conference championships (regular season and tournament) this decade.
WKU is one of only three Sun Belt Conference schools to exceed the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR) in every men’s and women’s sport.

WKU Academics

“85% of all student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility this decade have graduated.”

The overall cumulative average GPA for all 438 WKU student-athletes is 3.0.

Ten of the university’s athletic teams have a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or higher.

WKU student-athletes in the university’s 19 sports are majoring in 76 different programs. The Gordon Ford College of Business has 58 student-athletes, the most of any division. Thirty student-athletes are majoring in Biology and additional majors for student-athletes include diverse programs such as Anthropology, Chemistry, French and Spanish.

WKU has had more individuals honored by the league academically than any other institution in each of the last five years. The men’s tennis program—with a 3.35 cumulative GPA—was named WKU’s men’s scholar team of the year, while the soccer program earned the female scholar team of the year with a 3.27 GPA.

Women’s golfer Victoria Sansom was named WKU’s female scholar-athlete of the year, while men’s golfer Matt Sherertz picked up male scholar-athlete of the year honors.

WKU’s women’s volleyball team was honored by the NCAA for posting a multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) in the top 10 percent of all NCAA women’s Division I volleyball teams. The WKU volleyball team was one of only five teams from all sports in the state of Kentucky to receive the top 10% honor and was also one of only four Sun Belt Conference teams honored.
WKU’s Student-Athlete Success Center opened in January of 2009. The 10,000 square foot complex features numerous computer labs along with break out rooms for WKU student-athletes to study, work on school projects, and receive tutorial assistance and academic advising.

Sophomore baseball catcher Matt Rice, who had a team-high .399 batting average and hit safely in 55 of 61 games, was named third-team Academic All-America by CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine. Eleven additional student-athletes were named Academic All-District in 2008-09.
A $33 million renovation of E.A. Diddle Arena in 2003 featured the addition of state of the art video replay scoreboards and 16 luxury suites, refurbished men’s and women’s basketball locker rooms and team rooms, two practice courts and a new academic advising center.

WKU has invested $100 million in new construction or renovations of athletic facilities this decade.

WKU has put $3 million into baseball stadium renovations since 2002 with groundbreaking on a $1 million clubhouse scheduled to begin in the summer of 2009 featuring a spacious locker room, player lounge and coaches’ offices along with additional laundry and storage areas.

$2.5 million toward Phase I of a new track and field complex was completed in the spring of 2008.

FROM THE COMMISSIONER

“The leadership, vision, and creativity that Dr. Selig and Dr. Ransdell have demonstrated with the commitment to building at WKU is a clear indication of how dedicated the entire university is to competing at the highest level of amateur athletics. Western Kentucky University continually pushes forward with an eye on the future and is an innovator when it comes to building marketable assets to recruit student-athletes, engage donors, cultivate business partners and support the Bowling Green community.”

Wright Waters
Commissioner
Sun Belt Conference
By defeating Big 10 conference runner up Illinois in the 2009 NCAA Tournament and reaching the “Sweet 16” in 2008, WKU men’s basketball is responsible for generating over $6 million in total revenue for the Sun Belt Conference and its members including approximately $750,000 directly to WKU athletics.

WKU’s Courtney Lee, who earned All-American honors and graduated with a degree in Sociology, was selected by Orlando with the 22nd pick in the first round of the 2008 NBA Draft and helped the Magic reach the NBA Finals for the first time since 1995.

“The two main reasons I’m here are the leadership of Dr. Ransdell and Dr. Selig, and our desire to continue to grow the program. I truly believe this is a job with no ceiling.”

– Ken McDonald

One Of Only 7 NCAA Tournament Teams in 2009 With A 100% Graduation Rate

$6 MILLION

Head Men’s Basketball Coach Ken McDonald, WKU Director of Athletics Dr. Camden Wood Selig, and Sun Belt Conference Executive Committee President Frank Brogan (picted L-R) – WKU athletics received $463,545 as a result of reaching the NCAA Tournament’s “Sweet 16” in 2008.
Under the leadership of President Dr. Gary Ransdell, Director of Athletics Dr. Camden Wood Selig and Head Coach David Elson, WKU has completed its two-year transition from the I-AA level to I-A.

Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium

Over $50 million has been invested in the recent renovation and expansion of Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium. This has resulted in new and refurbished locker rooms, meeting rooms, weight rooms and training rooms along with an expanded academic advising center. The stadium also features club seats, a $1.5 million video replay scoreboard and a state-of-the-art playing surface that was installed in the spring of 2009.

The Hilltoppers will be the newest of the 120 member Football Bowl Subdivision (I-A) in 2009 and are eligible for a bowl berth and the Sun Belt Conference title.
Offensive lineman Greg Ryan completed his Hilltopper career with a construction management degree and signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Ravens.

David Elson is in his 14th season at WKU, his 7th year as head coach and has a 39-32 overall record. Always emphasizing academics, WKU’s 948 APR in football is higher than all other Sun Belt Conference programs.

*2008 attendance was 2nd highest in school history, while 2007 totals rank 4th all-time.
*Student attendance increased 80.3 percent from 2006 to 2008.
Kenny Perry, a WKU Hall of Famer who lettered on the golf team from 1979-1982, is a 27-year veteran of the PGA Tour. He was a member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team in 2004 and 2008, finished second in the 2009 Masters Tournament, and has 14 career PGA wins.

WKU was one of only 12 universities nationwide to receive a grant in 2008 from the newly designed NCAA Division I Women’s Basketball Grant Program. WKU’s $36,000 grant was used to create a literacy program by partnering with the local city and county school systems. The project centered on “Follow Your Dreams!” – a children’s book for grades 3-5 written about women’s head basketball coach Mary Taylor Cowles. The book focuses on following one’s dreams based on the real life story of Cowles, who earned Miss Kentucky Basketball honors at Marshall County High School and saw her dream to play for the Lady Toppers come true.

Director of Athletics Dr. Camden Wood Selig is currently serving his fourth year of a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Women’s Basketball Committee. This committee selects and seeds the teams for the NCAA Women’s Basketball Tournament, while also selecting the sites for the entire tournament, including the Final Four.

Patrick Jenkins (Cross Country/Track) is in his second year representing WKU on the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Consisting of 31 individuals, this committee represents the tens of thousands of student-athletes competing in NCAA competitions by giving them a voice on proposed legislation and programs.

WKU was one of six regional hosts for the 2009 NCAA Golf Championships, as the Central Regional was played at The Club at Olde Stone in Bowling Green.

E.A. Diddle Arena was one of 16 host sites for the first and second rounds of the 2009 NCAA Women’s Basketball Tournament, and Ball State’s upset win over Tennessee marked ESPN’s highest rated women’s first round tournament game ever.

WKU, which hosted the Sun Belt Conference’s cross country and swimming and diving championships this past year, will also host the conference’s volleyball and swimming and diving championships in 2009-10, cross country and soccer in 2010-11, and cross country and baseball in 2011-12.

WKU was one of only 12 universities nationwide to receive a grant in 2008 from the newly designed NCAA Division I Women’s Basketball Grant Program. WKU’s $36,000 grant was used to create a literacy program by partnering with the local city and county school systems. The project centered on “Follow Your Dreams!” – a children’s book for grades 3-5 written about women’s head basketball coach Mary Taylor Cowles. The book focuses on following one’s dreams based on the real life story of Cowles, who earned Miss Kentucky Basketball honors at Marshall County High School and saw her dream to play for the Lady Toppers come true.

“Follow Your Dreams!” by women’s head basketball coach Mary Taylor Cowles

Follow Your Dreams!

MAKING A Difference

12 | WKU
Back To Back! WKU’s Men’s Basketball, Baseball and Volleyball teams have earned NCAA Tournament berths in each of the last two seasons.

WKU finished ahead of almost 75% of the nation’s Division I schools in the final 2008-09 Division I United States Sports Academy Directors’ Cup Standings, which are based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports – 10 men’s and 10 women’s.

The Hilltoppers, who ranked 88th overall out of 341 Division I institutions, ranked ahead of seven Big East members: Providence (91), Rutgers (92), Pittsburgh (93), St. John’s (112), South Florida (116), Cincinnati (129) and Marquette (173).

WKU also ranked ahead of a number of other standout programs including Mississippi State (100), Air Force (105), Miami of Ohio (107), Memphis (111), Gonzaga (t-122), Xavier (t-122) and Southern Miss (137).
2008-09 ALL AMERICANS

Megan Argabright
Volleyball

Valerie Brown
Indoor Track

Rachel Friedman
Soccer (academic)

Wade Gaynor
Baseball

Janet Jesang
Indoor & Outdoor Track
Cross Country

Orlando Mendez-Valdez
Men’s Basketball

Julia Noe
Volleyball

Matt Rice
Baseball (academic)

Gavin Smellie
Outdoor Track

Libby Stout
Soccer

Sun Belt Conference Players of the Year

Valerie Brown
Indoor Track

Matt Hightower
Baseball

Janet Jesang
Cross Country

Orlando Mendez-Valdez
Men’s Basketball

Mandhla Mgimima
Outdoor Field

Gavin Smellie
Outdoor Track

Sun Belt Conference Coaches of the Year

Chris Finwood
Baseball

Erik Jenkins
Men’s Cross Country
Men’s Outdoor Track

Bruce Marchionda
Women’s Swimming

Tyra Perry
Softball

Michelle Scott
Women’s Cross Country
Erik Jenkins was a four-year Track and Field letterman at WKU while earning a bachelor’s degree in mass communications (2000) and a master’s degree in corporate communications (2002) during his time on the Hill. He was named 2009 Southeast Women’s Coach of the Year by the USTFCCCA.

WKU named Erik Jenkins Head Track and Field Coach in January of 2008. Since then, the Hilltoppers have captured Sun Belt Conference championships in 9 of 10 sports under his direction and Jenkins has picked up eight conference Coach of the Year honors.

SUN BELT CHAMPIONSHIPS UNDER ERIK JENKINS

2008
- Men’s and Women’s Indoor Track
- Men’s and Women’s Outdoor Track
- Men’s and Women’s Cross Country

2009
- Women’s Indoor Track
- Men’s and Women’s Outdoor Track

2008-09 TOP 15 NATIONAL FINISHES

Valerie Brown - 3rd in 400 meter dash
Janet Jesang - 5th in 5,000 meters (outdoor), 8th in 5,000 meters (indoor), 13th in cross country
Gavin Smellie – 5th in 200 meters
4x400-meter women’s relay team – 11th in nation – (Valerie Brown, Miaie Williams, Samantha Smith, Alecia Brown)

2008-09 CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT

All six sports exceed the NCAA mandated 925 Academic Progress Rate.

WKU’s women’s track program has now captured 11 consecutive titles, winning every cross country, indoor and outdoor title dating back to 2006.

Janet Jesang became only the fourth WKU athlete to earn all-America honors in cross country, indoor and outdoor track in the same school year.
The arrangement between HSSN and WKU is truly unique. The school's men's and women's basketball programs receive tremendous national exposure, while WKU students gain invaluable experience using innovative and state-of-the-art technology. Simply put, everybody wins.

---David Brinkley, HSSN Executive Producer

Through an arrangement with the Hilltopper Sports Satellite Network, Fox College Sports and Direct TV, over 30 live broadcasts of WKU basketball games were syndicated nationwide in 2008-09, making the Hilltoppers one of the most televised programs in the nation. WKU games and coaches shows reach 47 of the nation’s top 50 markets and in excess of 25 million homes on a consistent basis.

“Western Kentucky football team makes a calculated move up

By Steve Wieberg, USA TODAY
October 6, 2008

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — Wood Selig figures he saw no more than 10 minutes of Western Kentucky University's football home opener three Saturdays ago, a 50-9 rout of Murray State that showcased the Hilltoppers and their expanded, spiffed-up stadium.

The school's 47-year-old athletics director stepped off the elevator to the new club-seating area — featuring food, drink and already a waiting list to get in — and into a game-long wave of handshakes, backslaps and attaboys. "I had people come up and say, 'I never thought I'd be able to do anything like this in Bowling Green, Ky. I don't have to go to Nashville. I don't have to go to name-another-market. I can do it right here,'" Selig says.

"It was great confirmation of what we're doing."
WKU’s 68-54 win over No. 3 Louisville on November 30, 2008 in the Sommet Center in Nashville marked the first game of a four-year series in men’s basketball. The next meeting is December 19, 2009, in Louisville’s Freedom Hall. The Cardinals travel to E.A. Diddle Arena in Bowling Green the following year, and the series concludes with a match up in Louisville’s new downtown arena during the 2011-12 season.

WKU and the University of Kentucky have agreed to an unprecedented four-year football series. The schools will meet in Lexington in 2010 and 2012 and at LP Field in Nashville, Tenn., in 2011 and 2013. The games in the Music City are designated as home games for the Hilltoppers.

RUSSELL ATHLETIC, a division of FRUIT OF THE LOOM, formed an exclusive relationship with WKU in 2007. The $2 million partnership provides first-class apparel and uniforms for WKU players, coaches and staff.

PEPSI and WKU have an exclusive multi-million dollar beverage agreement, providing resources that enable WKU student-athletes to succeed on the field and in the classroom.

HOUCHENS INDUSTRIES provided $5 million toward the renovation of Houchens Industries – L.T. Smith football stadium and also makes a substantial annual commitment toward marketing and television exposure for WKU basketball.

IMG and WKU have a ten year agreement generating in excess of $10 million for Hilltopper Athletics – IMG also funded a $1.5 million video board at Houchens Industries – L.T. Smith Stadium.

The Hilltopper Athletic Foundation enhances WKU Athletics through private support and visibility while also providing scholarship funding for student-athletes. Since 2002, HAF assets have grown over 300% and annual donations to the athletic department have more than doubled, illustrating the significant advancement of the foundation and tremendous support from the WKU family.
100 million amount invested in new construction or renovations of athletic facilities this decade.

750,000 revenue going directly to WKU athletics as a result of three men’s basketball NCAA wins.

21,739 total students attending five home football games, a 53.2 percent increase from 2007.

6 million total revenue generated for Sun Belt Conference and its members by three men’s basketball NCAA Tournament wins over last two seasons.

2,001 school record number of kills by volleyball’s Megan Argabright, the only four-time female All-American in WKU history.

18/12/10 points, assists and rebounds by Orlando Mendez-Valdez in recording the first triple-double in WKU history in the Hilltoppers’ 99-76 win over Troy on January 1, 2009.

2,001 school record number of kills by volleyball’s Megan Argabright, the only four-time female All-American in WKU history.

18/12/10 points, assists and rebounds by Orlando Mendez-Valdez in recording the first triple-double in WKU history in the Hilltoppers’ 99-76 win over Troy on January 1, 2009.

511 all-time wins by WKU football, winningest program in Sun Belt Conference and 26th of 120 Football Bowl Subdivision schools (I-A).

925 Academic Progress Rate mandated by NCAA which WKU exceeds in all 19 sports.

76 different majors among 438 WKU student-athletes.

54 hours it took baseball team to win three NCAA Tournament games in 2009 Oxford Regional, matching program’s total over previous 89 seasons.

85 percent of student-athletes who have fulfilled their eligibility this decade have graduated.

65 Sun Belt Conference team championships this decade, 27 more than the next closest school (MTSU, 38).

41 regular or tournament conference championships for men’s basketball program, third-most in NCAA history trailing only Kansas and Kentucky.
35 wins for softball team, most since 2004. 29 members of football team graduated in 2008-09. 23 final national ranking for baseball by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America, the program’s best ranking since 2001.

27 consecutive years with at least one Sun Belt Conference championship (1983-2009), a league record.

25 home runs by third baseman Wade Gaynor in 2009 and career wins by pitcher Matt Ridings, both second-most in WKU history.

25 home runs by third baseman Wade Gaynor in 2009 and career wins by pitcher Matt Ridings, both second-most in WKU history.

23 consecutive Sun Belt Conference titles for women’s track program

15 wins for women’s soccer in 2008 to set WKU record, including conference record 14 shutouts by freshman goalie Libby Stout

14 members of men’s and women’s outdoor track team qualified for national championships

9 team conference championships – most by any BCS school for second consecutive year

14 members of men’s and women’s outdoor track team qualified for national championships

6 conference player-of-the-year honors

4 top 15 NCAA finishes by individuals on women’s track team

3.0 average GPA for all 438 WKU student-athletes

1 mission: “CHAMPIONSHIP EFFORT”
Championship Effort

What Have You Done to Be a Champion Today?

19 Sun Belt Conference Championships in Last Two Years
Most Team Titles by Any BCS (I-A) School

Two-time all-conference honoree Chad Cregar helped WKU baseball earn the program’s first ever Sun Belt Conference regular season championship, first-ever at-large NCAA Tournament berth and a No. 23 national ranking by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America. WKU posted a pair of NCAA Tournament wins over Big 12 tournament runner-up Missouri and another victory over SEC regular season co-champion Mississippi to match the program’s total NCAA wins over the previous 89 seasons.

2007-08 Champions
Baseball (Tournament)
Men’s Basketball (Tournament)
Women’s Basketball (Reg. Season & Tourney)
Women’s Cross Country
Soccer
Women’s Swimming
Men’s Indoor Track
Women’s Indoor Track
Men’s Outdoor Track
Women’s Outdoor Track

2008-09 Champions
Baseball
Men’s Basketball (Reg. Season & Tourney)
Men’s Cross Country
Women’s Cross Country
Women’s Swimming
Women’s Indoor Track
Men’s Outdoor Track
Women’s Outdoor Track
Volleyball (Tournament)