One hundred and five new stores added this year!

Six hundred and seventy-six department stores in all and still growing

Wishes to impart a very important message to the buying public—this message outlines the progressive spirit of this "nation-wide institution"—creating a new achievement in the world of business. This addition to our already large family proves the public's acceptance of the values and square dealings always to be found in any link of the "world's greatest chain department store organization".

This enormous buying power is unexcelled anywhere—it means that merchandise can be bought for less in such large volumes.

A Nation-Wide Institution

105 New Links Are Being Added This Year to Our Great Chain of Busy, Thriving Department Stores, Giving a Far-Reaching 676-Store Buying Power that Provides You and Your Family With an increased saving power!

Lemonade in The Shade First Grade

The first grade sold lemonade on the campus on July 15, and the students turned in the money. They agreed to buy some of the next year's second grade, which cost them 25 cents each. The first grade children were more than willing to help and also made the change. The money was used for books and supplies, which came out of the first grade's budget. The money was also used for the first grade's budget. The school still has a lot of interest in the playgrounds.
