WILL B. HILL, To Hold College Publicity Post

To Direct Publicity and Field Work for Teachers College

CHERRY'S STATEMENT

President, Congratulates Upon Selection

Will B. Hill, for many years professor of English, has been made chairman of the Kentucky Teachers College's new publicity department. He was made chairman of the publicity department of the State Teachers College at Bowling Green in 1898, and has been associated with the administration of the college ever since. During the past ten years he has been in charge of the publicity work of the college, making the College known and its activities known throughout the State.

Dr. B. H. Cherry, president of the college, in his congratulatory address, said: "In making the announcement it is not intended to belittle the services of other publicists on the College Heights, Dr. Cherry must be congratulated upon the selection of Mr. Hill, who has for many years been identified with the merchandising business in Bowling Green and active in the development of the college. He is one of the most successful merchants of the Western Kentucky section and has been a leader in the State Teachers College for several years. His selection is accepted by the Board of Trustees and the administration of the college, and he is hereby congratulated upon his selection.

The Board of Trustees of the Western Kentucky State Teachers College have appointed Mr. Hill, B. H. Cherry, president of the college, as chairman of the publicity department of the college. He will be in charge of the publicity work of the college, making the College known and its activities known throughout the State.

Harry E. Bryant has Collection of Indian Relics

Portion of His Store is Displayed in Local Hardware Window

I suppose it is foolish but I keep it, for sentimental reasons, in my collection of relics, and I have no doubt that you would like to see it. The relics are from the hands of a great man, a great artist, and a great statesman. The relics were given to me by the late Mr. J. C. J. Taylor, who was my father-in-law.

Many of the relics are from the hands of great men, and I have no doubt that you would like to see them. The relics are from the hands of a great man, a great artist, and a great statesman, and I have no doubt that you would like to see them.

HISTORY OF R.G. HIGH SCHOOL IS REVEALED BY STUDENT

Rogers Heights High School is to have a new building on the old site of the old school, which was burned in 1895.

The school was built in 1895, and has since been a monument to the achievement of the toiler. The building was designed by Mr. J. C. J. Taylor, and the project was continued by Mr. J. C. J. Taylor, who was my father-in-law.

DEPICT STATE'S STORY

Gaining with life and color, the magnificent damsel sprang to the lofty Kentucky from the foaming surges by the pioneers as was uniformly done in the new world. The damsel was an ethereal and the new world, New Mexico.

The career of the American woman was an unexplored wilderness of history...riddled formerly.

Each section of the female damsel wore clothing as established as they were by fashion advances in the great paces, taking...electric...to the Kentucky State Teachers College.

Ogdens' Goods Become Members of the Alumni Association

The annual Alumni Address of the Alumni of the University of Colorado was delivered by Dr. B. D. Levenson, president of the University of Colorado, recently, in the Little, Little City. Miss Ollie Wilson, head of the Ogdens' Goods, expressed the organization's appreciation to the Alumni Association, the Western Kentucky State Teachers College, and the alumni association of the University of Colorado, for their continued support of the Ogdens' Goods. The association of the Ogdens' Goods was formed in 1920, and has since grown to be a strong and influential body in the state of Kentucky.

CHAPEL

The chapel exercises for the week were held in the chapel of the Western Teachers College as usual. The exercises were free of charge and were open to all students and faculty members.

The speaker of the week was Dr. J. A. Johnson, a well known preacher and educational leader.

PLAN SERVICES FOR KINNAMAN

Memorial services for the late Mr. A. H. Kinneman, former owner of the Western Kentucky State Teachers College and remember, the first in the Christian Church, will be held this Friday afternoon at the Kentucky Central Church, in Bowing Green. The Reverend Mr. Campbell and Miss Alice Fowler will conduct the services, along with other dignitaries, in tribute to the late Mr. Kinneman.
R. O. T. C. WINS
HIGHEST HONORS

An impressive Cadet Turnout meeting was held last week at the college's site, highlighting the activities of the R. O. T. C. unit. The National Championship of 8,000 soldiers was the focal point of the event, with the Blue Devils B. S. S. team capturing top honors.

UW - WA - The Pride of Western

In the national match, each R. O. T. C. unit, including both members of the 11th and 12th grades, participated in the competition. The overall score was determined by the number of points scored in each of the four matches played. The Blue Devils B. S. S. team won the championship by a margin of 15 points,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Mills of Laramie, Wyoming, were hosts to the team at their home on High Street, where they were treated to a special dinner.

Prince Said His Wife Should Fly Alone, Report

London, May 27 - The Prince of Wales, who is in India on a goodwill mission, has given an exclusive interview to a London newspaper, stating that he will not allow his wife, the Princess of Wales, to fly alone on any of his journeys abroad. The Prince expressed his concern for the safety of his wife, stating that he would not allow her to travel alone, even if it meant missing important engagements.

The interview was conducted by the Prince's personal secretary, who assured the newspaper of the Prince's commitment to ensuring the safety of his wife.

MEADE COUNTY

I:

In Memoriam

In the passing of Dr. A. J. Kinsman, beloved instructor in the School of Engineering, the University of Kentucky, and one of the principal redoubts of the public schools of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, ended a career of devoted service to the University and to the public school system of the state. He was a man of high principle and of uncommon ability, known far and wide for his scholarship and for his devotion to the best interests of education. He will be missed by many, and his memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew him best. May he rest in peace.

DO YOU WANT A GOOD TEACHING POSITION FOR THE YEAR 1929

1929-1930

You may not need the assistance of any regular teacher, but if you do, right here in your town is an agency that can find you one. For twenty years there has been in the East a secret source of regular teaching and we are the only place in the country that has complete knowledge of the best teachers and a complete understanding of the teaching profession. And we can help you get the job you want. You need not write letters of recommendation, but if you do, we will forward them to you, and it may be that the teacher you want will write letters of recommendation for you. We will also take care of the business of getting you a job, and when you get one, we will see that you are properly prepared to go to school. We guarantee a successful career.
