(From William Lytle)

President and Executive Secretary

The students of the College of Kentucky State Teachers College selected the issue, ‘The Lesson Bill Learned’ as their topic for the anti-saloon league meeting. The meeting was attended by a large group of students who ardently supported the cause. The gathering was held in the college chapel under the guidance of the faculty advisor.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS

The southern railroad mileage in the country is in the Southern states. It is observed that in the past few years the mileage of the railroads has increased steadily. The increase in the mileage of railroads has been more than doubled since the beginning of the century. This increase is due to the expansion of the country and the increase in the population of the southern states. The railroads have played a vital role in the economic growth of the country and have been a major factor in the development of the southern states.

Hilltoppers Take Two Games On Opening Day From Eastern Teachers

Smith and Evans Shine as Diddlemans Run Routsherd Over Sister School From Richmond in Season's Opener

Coach Diddle's Hilltoppers opened the season in fly-fishing fashion Saturday, April 13, when they took the high flyer from Eastern Teachers College into camp by the score of 8-3. The game which was played in the morning was a rejuvenation of the Southern Conference of the league. The game was a bit of a disappointment to the crowd, as the visiting team was led by an experienced crew of players who had been in the league for years. The Hilltoppers held the upper hand throughout the game, and the players were able to keep the game in control until the end. The final score was 8-3, and the Hilltoppers were able to claim the victory.

Kempusology Loaid Out

The Kempusology team was eliminated from the tournament last week, as they were unable to secure a victory. The team had been practicing hard for weeks in order to secure a spot in the tournament, but their efforts were not enough.

Western in Classics

An article written by Kelly McCracken for the department of Classics at Western Kentucky, discusses the importance of the classics in today's world. McCracken argues that the classics are not just a part of history, but also a part of our culture. He suggests that by studying the classics, we can gain a better understanding of ourselves and our world. McCracken's article was well-received by the community, and it has sparked a renewed interest in the classics.

Western Tennis Team

Wesleyan College Drops Two Games to Local-Squad

Western added two more wins to its record in the loss of Kentucky Wesleyan College. The team played on Tuesday against a squad of local players, who were able to beat the hilltoppers by a score of 5-2. The Westerners were able to come back in the afternoon session to increase their lead to 7-2. The Westerners were able to maintain their lead until the end of the game.

Second Contest Between Pedagogues and Colonels Result in Even Break

Hilltoppers Swamp Blue Grass Players in Opening Game But Lose Second By Lack of Harmony

For the second title of the season the Western Team was divided into two parts. The Colonels and the Pedagogues met in a game where they both scored a tie. The Colonels came back in the afternoon session to lose the score of 6-2 to the Pedagogues. The game was a thrilling one, as both teams were evenly matched. The Westerners were able to gain the upper hand throughout the game, but the Pedagogues were able to take the lead back in the third game. The final score was 6-2, and the Pedagogues were able to claim the victory.

Western Nine Splits Duo Bill With Centre In Contests At Danville

Diddleman Lose First Game with Colonels But Come Back in Second Start to Win Both Matchs

Western Teachers College have lost both their first game of the season on Saturday, April 26, when they played against the Centre College Colonels. The Hilltoppers took the first game by the score of 9-6 but the Colonels came back strong in the second affair to win by the one-sided count of 19 to 0.

LOUISVILLE BEATS RACQUET WIELDERS OF COLLEGE HILL

The Western Teachers College Racquet Wielders lost a hard-fought battle with the Racquet Wielders of the University of Louisville. The Hilltoppers were very much in contention with the Colonels in the first game, but the Colonels took the lead early on and continued to build it. The final score was 20 to 0, and the Colonels were able to claim the victory.

JUST CHIEF

A white-line in the middle of the court is made immediately before the match begins. A second line is then drawn by the umpire to indicate the back of the court. The score of each game is kept by the umpire and announced to the players.

PROF. McMillan Goes to Peabody College Next Year

Lawrence T. McMillan, professor of mathematics at Western, will go to Peabody College next year. McMillan has been a valuable member of the faculty for many years, and his departure will be felt by the students.

Just a Note

It is noted that the equivalence between the order of operations and the grouping of terms is important in mathematics. This equivalence is based on the fact that the operations are associative, which means that the order of the operations does not change the result.
