Western Takes Turkey Day Classic At Expense Of Maroons

Guille, Wacker, and Oliver Play Last Game of College Football In Western Uniforma

The Turkey Day celebrations at Western were climaxd by the football battle of the seasons between the Western defense, a well organized and well trained team, under the guidance of its brilliant coaching and its talented and well trained players, and the Eastern defense, a weak and unorganized team, under the guidance of its untrained and non-talented players. Western won the game by a score of 17-0.

Stansbery in All-State End

Camunas Chosen All-State Tackle

With the passing of Edgar Camunas from the line of scrimmage, the Western defense is left with a void in the tackle position. Camunas, a big and strong tackle, was one of the finest tackles in the state, and his loss will be felt by the Western defense. Camunas was chosen for the All-State team, and his absence will be felt by the Western defense.
