Senator Brookhart To Appear Here In Lecture

A number of prominent personalities, announced for the coming Chautauqua season, were mentioned in an interview with Senator George W. Brookhart, county senator for joint counties, when he was in Bowling Green recently. He will be a speaker at the credit union lecture to be held on the first evening of the Chautauqua program.

On the third afternoon, "Come and See" will be put on by the children. It is a part of the discussion by Judge J. C. Williams, assistant to the attorney general. At the same time, the students from the rural high schools will also be performing.

The Chautauqua season is expected to be a valuable one for the students of the College. The normal students have already announced their intention of attending the lectures. The visiting artists, dramatists, and lecturers will be a valuable addition to the program.

MOTHERS ARE FEATURED IN PROGRAM HERE

One Hundred and Fifty Mothers Are In Attendance

Mrs. L. S. McMorris, mother of Mrs. D. W. McMorris, was the guest of honor at the mothers' tea in the college dining room yesterday. Mrs. McMorris was accompanied by her two sons, J. D. McMorris and W. D. McMorris, and her daughter, Miss Mary McMorris.

The tea was given in honor of Mrs. McMorris, who is a graduate of the College. She returned to the college for the first time since she graduated, and was accompanied by her family. The tea was a great success, and was attended by a large number of students and faculty members.

Old Age

When we think of those who are old, we think of Master Doctor and Miss C. M. A. What of baseball, as of other forms of recreation, is lost, are we left with a picture of the present? Are we not cut off from the future? We see the back of life, its ends. Even though we are still young, we feel the passage of time. We wonder, who will be young like us?

The Past

We start with the idea of old age. In general, the past is seen as a time of youth and vitality. The present is often seen as a time of decline and loss of vitality. This is because the past is often seen as a time of peak performance and the future is often seen as a time of decline and loss of performance.

The Future

The future is often seen as a time of potential and possibility. It is a time when we can make changes and improvements. The past is often seen as a time of achievement and accomplishment. It is a time when we have already made changes and improvements.

Together

Both the past and the future are important. The past helps us to understand where we have come from and where we are. The future helps us to understand where we are going and what we can expect. By understanding both the past and the future, we can better understand the present.

The Alumni Association

The Alumni Association is the organization that represents the interests of the students at the University. It is made up of the graduates of the university and is responsible for overseeing the activities of the university. It is also responsible for providing financial support to the university.

The Freshman Picnic

The Freshman picnic is an annual event that takes place at the University. It is a celebration of the beginning of the school year and is an opportunity for the freshmen to get to know each other.

The Freshman Class

The Freshman class is the group of students who are entering the university for the first time. They are the newest members of the community and are often looked upon as the future of the university.

The University

The University is a large institution that provides education and training to students. It is made up of different departments and faculties, each of which is responsible for teaching a specific subject.

The Future

The future is a time of potential and possibility. It is a time when we can make changes and improvements. The past is a time of achievement and accomplishment. It is a time when we have already made changes and improvements.

Together

Both the past and the future are important. The past helps us to understand where we have come from and where we are. The future helps us to understand where we are going and what we can expect. By understanding both the past and the future, we can better understand the present.
