Historical Pageant To Be Staged

"THE PAGEANT OF PROGRESS" TO BE STAGED

CAST of 1200 To Be Used In Stupendous Production of The Pageant

A transformation of vital and colorful pageantry, in which the student reception was made public last week by the faculty of the Western Kentuckian State Teachers College was carried out last Friday in the Physical Education Building.

The student reception was attended by approximately two thousand students, who were divided into two groups, the first group in Western Recital Hall and the second group in the Physical Education Building. The reception consisted of a series of dramas, musical numbers, and dance routines, all of which were designed to depict the progress of Western Kentucky State Teachers College from its early days to the present.

The first group, in the Recital Hall, was attended by the students who had been at Western since its beginning, and they were dressed in costumes that represented the various eras of Western's history. The group was divided into three parts, representing the early days, the middle years, and the present day.

The second group, in the Physical Education Building, was attended by the students who had been at Western for more than five years. They were dressed in costumes that represented the later years of Western's history.

The reception was a great success, and it was enjoyed by the entire student body. The dramatic performances were especially well received, and the music and dance routines were praised for their beauty and effectiveness.

The pageant was a fitting tribute to the many students who have contributed to the success of Western Kentucky State Teachers College, and it was a fitting way to celebrate the college's history and progress.

William Crabb Succumbs At Home in Louisville

Was Former Student, Graduating in 1923

W. O. Crabb's death on Jan. 30 was a great shock to the Western community. He was a former student of Western, graduating in 1923.

William Crabb was a native of Kentucky, and he had been active in the community throughout his life. He had been associated with the Western Kentucky State Teachers College, and he had been a member of the Western Kentucky State Teachers College Alumni Association.

Crabb was a well-respected member of the community, and his death was a great loss to his family and friends. He will be missed by all who knew him.

R. O. T. C. of Local R. O. T. C. Unit Wins Competition

The R. O. T. C. of the local R. O. T. C. unit won the competition in the first round of the rifle contest.

The competition was held on the western campus, and it was attended by a large number of students and faculty members. The competition was a great success, and it was enjoyed by all who participated.

Enrollment of Western Shows Large Increase

The enrollment of Western shows a large increase for the current year.

The increase is due to the efforts of the admissions office, which has worked hard to attract new students to Western. The office has implemented a number of changes in its procedures in order to make the enrollment process more efficient and effective.

The increase in enrollment is a great success for Western, and it is a reflection of the quality of education that is provided at the college. Western is proud to have a large number of students who are dedicated to their studies and to their future careers.

The Georgetown College Eagles were mighty quick to make three touchdowns during the contest. The candidates performed better but still better than in recent games. The first five games have begun the season's offense with some work, according to the Hilltoppers.

The famous Bowers being leading on the back, have a two-man team over the back. No big plays for the Eagles in the first half. Western had a running play from the back of 20 yards and a pass from 25 yards. In the second half, the Hilltoppers were on the move, and scored a touchdown from 10 yards.

The Hilltoppers offense was led by halfback Bob Miller, who scored two touchdowns, and fullback John Smith, who added another.

The defense was led by tackle Bill Johnson, who had two sacks. The Hilltoppers defense was very solid throughout the game, holding the Eagles to only one touchdown.

GROUP FROM WESTERN HEARS PADEREWSKI
On Monday evening, Jan. 26, a group of thirty students and faculty of Ball State (a.m.n.) attended a concert presented by Mr. Henry Green, tenor, in the ballroom of the Student Union. The concert included a variety of songs, including selections from operas and classical works. The audience was deeply moved by the music, and the students were especially impressed by Mr. Green's technical skill and emotional depth.

WHITNER'S GENETICS
Class Visits Anyson
On January 13, the class in Genetics, attended by Mr. J. T. Whitney, visited 14 Famous Architects of New York.

The visit included a tour of the city's leading architects' offices, where the students had the opportunity to see firsthand many of the famous buildings that have come to define the city's architectural landscape. The students were particularly impressed by the attention to detail and the unique design elements that characterized each building.
