Christmas
About this time next year our minds begin to turn toward Christmas and the Student, while products of the School Book Store are advertised as being "right on time," realize the true sign of the season. How late all the presents are, however, is indicative of the Christmas spirit, a spirit that denotes the real meaning of Christmas. The American Dry Cleaners. 771... Bowing Green, Ky.

Trebble Clef
Club is Heard

Be C. S. 5.

A rare musical treat was given to the Bowling Green community, when the Treble Clef Club presented their choral work at the theater on November 24.

The voices were given by the Treble Clef Club. The selection included a variety of songs, with selections from "Goodbye, Old Kentucky Home," "There'll Be Yearning," "At Ragged Point," and "Hark! The Herald" being some of the more popular numbers.

The Treble Clef Club consists of many talented girls and boys who are capable of rendering music of a high order. The club is under the direction of Miss Kay Eaves, Choral Club.

Moore Leads Hilltoppers
To Trounce Eastern 41-7

Alfred "Al" Moore, who has been coaching the Wichita Hilltoppers since the 1940s, recently achieved a milestone in his storied career.
On the road trip to the University of Kentucky, Moore passed a legendary figure in Western's history.

"Coach" Moore's remarkable record includes victories over a series of tough opponents, solidifying his ame as one of the greatest coaches in the history of Western's athletic programs.

The Long-Tall Short of It

"Our Captains."

J. Edward Cashman, head of the Wichita basketball team, stood over the line of scrimmage to begin the game. As the opponent readied themselves, Cashman launched the ball forward. The crowd erupted, cheering as the ball hit the hoop and landed in the corner pocket.

J. Edward Cashman
head of the Wichita basketball team, headed the line of scrimmage to begin the game.

CAPT. LAWRENCE

Wichita's star player, Captain Lawrence, stood on the center court, waiting for the ball to come. As the opponent's forward
advanced with the ball, Lawrence moved quickly,
blocking the attacker's path.

Merry Christmas

"Merry Christmas, everyone!"

Lawrence shouted, as he flew past the opponent, blocking the ball from entering the basket. The scene was ominous, setting the tone for the rest of the game.
