MURRAY QUINT IS VICTORIOUS IN GAME HERE

Hilltoppers Defeated In Hard-Fought Tangle

COUNT IS 38 TO 26

The Western Hilltoppers came out on the short end of a 20-point loss to the Murray College Toppers in the second game of the three-game series at Murray. Murray was ahead by two points (13) when the game was stopped in the final minutes. Murray had scored a number of impressive moves that seemed to indicate they were in control of the contest when McMullen, left end, scored the first touchdown and took the lead. The Hilltoppers were unable to play an effective game after that.

The Hilltoppers will play another game today with a chance to square the series. Mrs. M. E. Cool, Murray, has come to supervise the Hilltoppers in the third game. Mrs. Cool, former manager of the Cincinnati baseball team, is expected to be a big boost to the Hilltoppers in their game against McMullen.

John Stanley McGovern, manager of the Hilltoppers, referred to himself with pride when his team defeated McMullen, left end, in the second game. The Hilltoppers will play another game today with the same team. Mrs. Cool, former manager of the Cincinnati baseball team, is expected to be a big boost to the Hilltoppers in their game against McMullen.

ORIENTAL ODDS AND ENDS

By Raymond C. Barkhouse

Wearing a light change of clothes, the late President of the Bank of India, India, July 1, 1925.

I have been the College of Presidents for the past year, and I should like to say that the College of Presidents has been well run. The President has been good to us, and I believe that the President will be good to us in the future.

A few years ago, I was the President of the College of Presidents. The President was a good President, and I believe that the President of the College of Presidents will be a good President in the future.
