Dr. Albert E. Winkapwski
Addresses Students
8th Years Ago
Veteran Educator Has
Based Career Since
1894

Of rare originality and prophetic vision, Dr. Winkapwski addressed the students of the College Heights Herald. He expressed his belief that the world of tomorrow will be different from that of today, and that the teaching of today must prepare students for the future. He stated that education is not just a means to an end, but an end in itself. He also spoke about the importance of the arts in education.
