M'ADOO HEARD
IN SPEECH ON AGRICULTURE

Listen, my brothers and sisters, let us not be afraid to face the facts of life. We must be willing to accept responsibility for our actions and make necessary changes in our lives. Only then can we truly grow and progress as a people.

Annual Conferences were held in New York City, Chicago, and St. Louis. These conferences provided an opportunity for members to exchange ideas and experience.

Tribute Where Tributes Due

Each day is sacred to those who use its opportunities, but they are otherwise idle. A day should be called "holy" not only because it sanctifies all the other days of the week, but because it is the only time when we can make it our own by taking it in our own hands and sanctifying it to the realization of our highest ideals. The beauty of the Hills is not the object of worship, but the evidence of the beauty we are made to contemplate.

Raddis and Frills

Franklin High School, under the leadership of the principal, Mr. W. E. Hall, and the faculty advisor, Mr. M. L. Thompson, has been crowned the winner of the annual Franklin High School Literary and Artistic Festival. The festival was held on April 20 and attended by over 1,000 students from throughout the State.

Campus Clean-Up

The enthusiasm with which the students of Western universe, together with faculty and staff, have participated in the annual clean-up drive, is evidence of the enduring loyalty of the students. The matter is not so much the result of a short-term campaign, but of a long-term commitment to the principles for which Western stands.
