The Season's Greetings

The staff of College Heights Herald is glad to extend through these columns its many congratulations in this and other phases of Christmas festivity. May the spirit of peace prevail for the coming year.

International Peace

We have been all too conscious of the grave condition of the world in recent weeks. The tone of peace has been against a strong background of threats and difficulties. In the United States and in nations throughout the world, we have been urged to be on our guard.

Last December, war broke out between Russia and Japan. Russia retaliated with an attack on Finland, Poland, and Romania. All the nations that we know are now engaged in some form of conflict.

This Christmas, let us hope that the spirit of peace will prevail. Let us pray for world peace.

Fish Traps

By Charles Robinson

The period of greenery, with its associated life cycle of the fish, is one of the most interesting and enjoyable times of the year. The fish are active and ready to be caught. The water is clear, and it is easy to see the fish.

The method of trapping fish is quite simple. One end of a net is anchored to the bottom of the river, and the other end is pulled up. The fish are then caught in the net.

A Warning

Never use a fish trap. The use of a fish trap is illegal and can be dangerous. It is illegal to use a fish trap in any state in the United States.

LUcky Places

By Charles Robinson

We have always been fascinated by the idea of finding a lucky place. These are places where we have been successful in catching fish or have seen other signs of good fortune.
