SC    OWENS, Philip,                    1944-1948
2614                1925-1944

Two letters from Philip Owens, of Russell Springs, Kentucky, to his sisters, written during Owens' Army service in World War II. He comments on a rigorous march, warns about mail censorship, and asks them to keep his mother from worrying. Includes typescripts of the letters and of local newspaper articles published after Owens was killed in action in Germany.
