Dear Hilltopper of the Fabulous 50's:

It was a grand time to be at Western. From the class room to the dorms, to the soda fountain and the sock hops, we had fun as we prepared for life.

This book helps us relive those glorious times. It jogs our memories of people, places and events that meant so much to us.

I am proud to still be at Western directing the Alumni Affairs Office. It's still a wonderful place to be. I am also proud to be able to offer this book of memories to my colleagues.

Almost all the hundreds of photos in the book were sent in by you, alumni from the 50's. For this the Alumni Association and the university archives thanks you. The photos have been copied and placed in the archives since they had so few.

We had a difficult time deciding which pictures to use. There were so many exceptional ones. We tried to get a representative sample of the best ones. I am sure you will find yourself or someone you know as you look through the book.

As you read about the ballgames, beauty contests and class officers these people and events will pop back to the front of your mind. That's what this book is about—remembering a very important and influential period of our lives.

Well, that's enough from me. Thanks for your help with the book and thanks for the memories. Enjoy.

Sincerely,

Jim Richards, Class of '54
Director, WKU Alumni Affairs
The Fabulous 50's

at Western

The 1950s represented growth, change and a renewed enthusiasm, not only on the campus of Western Kentucky State College, but on virtually every college campus in America.

It was the time of Rock 'n Roll, Thunderbirds, sock hops and juke boxes - it was known then and now simply as THE 50's.

Western Kentucky State College had risen from simple beginnings. Created by the Kentucky State Legislature in 1906 and incorporating the traditions of the Southern Normal School of Glasgow, Dr. Henry Hardin Cherry guided the development of the institution for its first 31 years.

During its development over more than 80 years, Western has made great strides in educating the citizens of the Commonwealth. Originally created as a teacher training institution, Western now is a multi-purpose comprehensive university continuing to seek to expend its academic offerings.

No period in Western’s past depicts the expansion and growth of the university better than the 1950s.

The college entered the decade under the leadership of Paul L. Garrett, perhaps the least publicized period of any Western’s president. When Dr. Cherry died in 1937, there was much speculation among the faculty and citizens as to whom the successor would be.

Gov. A.B. (Happy) Chandler appointed Garrett who assumed the position saying "I know very well I cannot take his (Cherry) place...I simply want to do my best to carry on, and I hope I can do it in the manner he would want it done."

Though new at Western, Garrett was no stranger to the world of education. He had impressive credentials as a teacher. Appropriately for a leader, he started in a one-room school in Waddy and graduated from Shelbyville High School. He received his bachelor’s degree in English and history and his master’s degree in history and political science from George Town College. He did post-graduate work at the University of Kentucky and the University of Chicago.

Garrett's presidency was marked by a lack of funds for expansion but as a period of continued dedication of purpose for Western.

Because of limited funds available for expansion, the physical appearance of the campus did not change greatly during Garrett's administration. The interior of Van Meter Hall was remodeled and the Kentucky Building and the music building were completed. McLean Hall was built for women's housing and Potter Hall was remodeled to serve as Western's first residence hall for men.

The building that now bears his name was opened during his administration in the fall of 1953. It was Garrett's plan to have a student union as a central meeting place on the campus—something that was lacking at Western up to that time.

During that same semester, Garrett suffered a paralytic stroke, which caused him to move his administrative work to his home. When he came back to his Van Meter Hall office during the spring of 1954, he fell and broke his hip. He died at his home on February 28, 1955.

While Garrett took Western through its most torturous times, through the post-Depression era of the late 1930s that sapped its resources, and a war in the 1940s that seriously jeopardized its student population, Dr. Kelly Thompson was president when the growth of the late '50s and 1960s took hold.

Thompson was appointed acting president when Garrett suffered a stroke in 1955. When Garrett died later that year, Thompson stepped into the President's office naturally, perhaps with little idea that the school he had worked for since 1929 was about to explode into a major institution.

Traditionally, Western had placed primary emphasis upon the needs of the individual student. From 1955-69, when the University experienced its most spectacular growth and expansion, much care was taken to preserve this emphasis. The Office of the Dean of Student Affairs was established in 1956. President Thompson initiated the first phase of student government at Western shortly after taking office 1955, calling the new organization the President's Student Advisory Council.

Enrollment soared on the Hill during the decade following President Thompson's election, and this growth was responsible for substantial changes in almost every phase of the institution's functions. The growth pattern was not unique to Western, but reflected a national trend that changed the face of higher education nationwide.

Reversing the decline in enrollment that began with the war years, enrollment in 1955 started a dramatic climb that saw Western's headcount more than triple during the next decade. Enrollment in 1955 was 1,975 increasing to 2,161 in 1956, 2,351 in 1957, 2,546 in 1958, 2,917 in 1959 and 3,599 in 1960. As the 1960s began, Western had gained a prominent position in Kentucky higher education as the second largest state-supported university.

Thompson faced a major challenge early in his presidency as a result of the Supreme Court decision affecting integration. Kentucky's Day Law prevented the integration of schools for nearly half a century. However, that major challenge set the tone for the Thompson administration since the college was integrated without major incident and lingering effect.
The Western Philosophy

Through the expansion and growth of the 1950s, Western never lost its direction or focus. As stated by Dr. Henry Hardin Cherry, the Western’s basic philosophy and principles are:

- To be a live school and to impart to its students a burning zeal to do and be something.
- To be progressive, to use modern methods and equipment, but reject all worthless educational fads.
- To let the reputation of the school be sustained by real merit.
- To seek recognition of the public to the extent the school deserves it.
- To fight against ignorance, and for higher education and the liberation of the human soul.
- To cooperate with all educational institutions that do honest work and bid them God speed in their efforts.
- To “ring the rising bell in the human soul” by inspiring all students who come in touch with the work of the institution.
- To teach that self-control is an imperative duty and the first great obligation that every person must fulfill, if he would succeed.
- To instill in the minds of the students the great truth that every person is created to do something, to be a producer.
- To teach students the power of earnestness and to warn them against all show and pretense.
- To make the school self-governing and to create a high moral sentiment among the pupils.
- To refuse to organize or permit the organization of any club or society that would foster care and destroy cooperation, but rather to teach that the good of one is the good of all.
- To recognize no aristocracy except that of work and character.
- To lead the student to understand that a broad and liberal education is essential to the highest degree of success in any endeavor of life and that unless he has a purpose in life and is willing to pursue it closely and courageously, he will fail.
- To lead students to see that success depends mainly upon his own efforts, and that he must discover the man in himself before he can become a being of power and influence.

Athletics

in the Fabulous 50's

Athletics played a major role in the resurgence of Western after World War II. Coach E.A. Diddle guided the Hilltopper basketball team through a glory-filled 1950s embracing his reputation and the institution’s image.

Between 1946-47 and 1953-54 the Hilltoppers won 202 games while losing only 40, an impressive 83.5 percent winning percentage. Diddle waved his red towel and led the 1949-50 team to unachieved heights. This team was the first to average 70 points per game and the 1952-53 team reached an 82.2 scoring mark.

The Hilltoppers played in the prestigious National Invitation Tournament in 1950, 1952, 1953 and 1954. Western teams annually made an eastern tour with regular season games scheduled in New York City, Washington, Philadelphia and other media centers. Coach Diddle’s teams were usually ranked high in the national polls and their style of play pleased crowds wherever they went.

Football played a prominent role in the 1950s as Coach Jack Clayton’s team posted an 8-1 record in 1952 and led by quarterback Jimmy Feix, defeated Arkansas State 34-19 in the Refrigerator Bowl in Evansville. Nick Denes assumed the football coaching spot in 1957.

Jimmy Feix (1952) and Jim “Yogi” Hardin (1957) earned All-America honors on the gridiron during the decade and more than a dozen players were named to the All-Ohio Valley Conference team including Hoyt Threet and Roy Hina (1950), Marvin Satterly, Lawrence Gilbert and Jimmy Feix (1951), R. E. Simpson, Satterly, Feix, Gene McFadden and Max Stevens (1952), Bill Ploumis, Satterly, Arnie Oaken, McFadden, and Stevens (1953), Walt Apperson and Tom Patterson (1954), Vernon Wilson and Bill Straw (1955), Bill Holt and Jim “Yogi” Hardin (1957), Larry Nutter and Hardin (1958) and Herb Wassom (1959).

Music

The band entertained during football games.

From the sock hops to the orchestra pit, music played a major role in college life in the fabulous 50's.

The Barbers performed four-part harmony in the early part of the 50's. The original group is pictured, Phillip Blakeman, Nona Keenon, Lois Harmon Peters and Joyce Brooks Palmer.

I continued my education with graduate piano study at George Peabody College. Currently I am studying with a vocal coach.

I am vice president and co-founder of ABS Music Productions, Nashville. We write and record music for radio and television. Other important positions include co-owners of Adair Sales-Jazz Quartet, Staff Musician—WSM-TV ('63-69), TV Stead 'Mom' Reck, and Staff Musician—The Nashville Network ('73-75). I am now making graphic recordings and TV appearances.

I am affiliated with Recording Musicians Association, American Federation of Musicians National Association of Jazz Educators and National Board of American Federation of TV and Radio Artists. I am married to William Adair, a jazz producer and contractor.

My memories of Western include Sadie Hawkins dances, student Center bridge games that lasted for hours, calling the Music Institute of San Francisco, and Mike Truett—"Mom" Drex and, mean teacher Hall. I remember all

I loved Western and still retain friendships with people I met there including teachers. I taught at the right time and the right place. Western women lead in most activities, especially those at the right time and the right place.

I am a member of many jazz groups including The Hank Garland Quartet, The Jazz Corporation: Big Band, The Nashville Jazz Machine, Givordophone Jazz Band, The Jerry Reed Comedic, Francis Wayne, Tootie McDaniel, and many others. I have been married to Mr. Adair for many years, and we have four children: Steven, Jonathon, David and Rachel. I work as a computer consultant under my own Public Accounting Firm (not CPA) Community Business Service, which I currently operate.

I have participated in Career Days at the University of Kentucky, participating in workshops about students in Accounting and am an active member in N.A.S.E. (National Association of Secondary Schools). I have served on many committees and am a member of the American Education Group, including the American Education Group on the first grade teacher in Fort Davis, a small resort town in far west Texas. Texas has been a lot of fun watching my students grow up.

My church has been a chief interest and I have served in many capacities on the city, county, and district levels. I am a member of the NEA and a member of our local Educational Association and treasurer of the local TSTA.

I transferred to Western from Beth Women's College (now Gallaudet College) and was the only girl in the art department. Western is the only school in the class of 39 boys. I'll never forget how kind. My memories of Western include walking, mountain climbing and teaching courses in a nearby Elderhostel program.

EIGHTH LIZABETH THOMAS ANTHONY, Class of 1954, B. S. Degree, currently living in Alpine, TX.

In 1967, I received my Masters from Sul Ross State University in Alpine, TX. All of my career, I have been an elementary teacher. After teaching in Kentucky, Alaska, and Tennessee, I taught at many summer camps and summer schools. My memories of Western include a small resort town in far west Texas. Texas has been a lot of fun watching my students grow up.

Other important positions include Battalion Commander, Infantry BN, U.S. Army Reserve, completed 29 years reserve service effective 05 1982.

I am a retired Lieutenant Colonel of the U.S. Air Force, served 10 years in the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs as a member in Muncie, IN.

I married to Sandra Leigh Austin, who is a secretary for State Farm Insurance Co. I have one son, Bradford, 14.

I have fond memories of the Duck Inn Cafe off College Ave. and the old boarding house I stayed in during my tenure at WKU, plus many good times playing WKU basketball.

My hobbies include gardening, automobiles, traveling, and the U.S. Army Reserve Lions and Kiwanis Clubs.

CHARLES J. BASSETT, Class of 1953, B.S. Degree in Agriculture, currently living in Drakenero (Muhlenburg Co.), KY.

I continued my education with various work related engineering courses and USAF flight related courses.

I am staff engineer for IBM, Lexington. My job responsibilities include product engineering support for IBM electronics technicians at the Lexington plant and customer service worldwide.

Other important positions include Lt. Col. USAFR retired, instructor pilot, flight examiner, and wing chief of standardization and evaluation prior to retirement.

I have three children; Richard, 29; Susan, 27, and David, 25.

My memories of Western include friendly faculty and helpful instructors, all ministerial officials, and being the "man in the hall.

JAMES R. BANTON, Bowling Green, KY. I took the teacher's examination in 1952, for my first certificate to teach. Entered Western second semester 1953 to renew certificate. Took seven months and going second semesters, got my BA, math major, English and biology minors in 1946, and my MA 1952, major in guidance and administration, and my Rank 1 1962.

A native of Simpson County reared on the farm. Spent 40 years in the field of education, class room teaching, administration, and counseling in both public and private schools in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary 1941-42; pastored churches in Kentucky and Tennessee; retired from teaching 1962, and from pastoring 1978.

I married Minnie Edith Shanks of Warren County in 1937. I have one son, two daughters and five grandchildren.

I am now a volunteer: Chairman Welfare Board, held offices RTA, AARP, Hospice and Arthritis, work with cancer, heart and blood pressure. In my teaching days I taught Sunday School and belonged to Homeowner Fellowship of First Baptist Church, Bowling Green.

I have had surgery several times including open heart and appendectomy. My philosophy, "Master situations don't let situations master you." Keep busy, A.A. (B.): build, work, help, etc.

JOSEPHINE LEATHERS BENSON, Class of '74, BS Education, currently living in Murray, KY. Graduate work at University of Illinois.

I took dancing all my life - I was still taking classes when I teas at Western. Taught dance classes all over town - in the Rec Center, the church hall, the hotel, etc. And then in 1986, when I was 60 years old, we built our own dance studio. It has really been a dream come true. And when it closed we sold the equipment, remember Colonel Sanders opened his first fried chicken place when he was 67.

My name, Anne Dienes, lives about six blocks away, and comes every morning to wash the dishes and the clothes, and to do the mowing. She's 88 years old, and is a legend in her own country and I am the lady who grew up from the best thing that ever happened to me was meeting "Red" Benson, and that since happened at Western, WKU will always have a special place in my heart.

Incidentally, one of my first jobs in 1946 was as a lifeguard at the pool - under the supervision of Don Downing.

LEWIS "RED" BEAN, Class of '50, B.S. Industrial Arts, M.A. Administration, I came to Western in the fall of '46 to play on the first football team Western had after the War. (There was no football during WWII). I had transferred from U.K. where I played under Bear Bryant.

I accepted my first job in Fernandina Beach, FL, and after 38 years, we're still here! I've been a member of the class of '46. I'm currently the Director of maintenance for the county, ran all the adult and vocational programs for our county, served on the board for three years. Then, in 1986, I built a dance studio, which keeps me off the street and out of trouble. (Because there's always something to do or something to fix). My wife, the former Joan Diennes, lives here, and both our daughters teach at the studio.

Joan and I have nine children, (the last one is a senior in college), and seven grandchildren. I still remember the Lettering and Engrossing course I took under Dr. Craig. I letter diplomas, certificates, plaques, awards, etc. and I've taught several classes in calligraphy. Thanks to that course.

I'm building furniture right now - thanks to the expertise I received from L.T. Smith, Nailback, and Mr. Francis. I build grandfather clocks, most of which are about 100 years old, and I have thirteen of them.

My husband, Cedric and I co-own Benson Sporting Goods in Murray. I have also taught regular and special education in Illinois for 16 years and am a member of the Illinois Exceptional Children.

Cedric and I have two children, Eric and Debbie, and four grandchildren. I remember playing the clarinet at basketball and football games, my love and respect for Pres. Garrett, Don Griss and the many friends I made there.

KERRIT BINKLEY, Class of 1955, A.B. in English and M.A. in Secondary Education, currently living in Concord, MI.

I completed 30 semester hours at Michigan State University in Guidance and Counseling.

I began my teaching at Houston High School, Houston, MO, in 1953-52. I moved to Concord Community School, Concord, MI, in 1953 and after teaching English for a few years, became the High School Counselor until I retired in 1986. Since then I've been an Instructor in AARP's 55+ Alive Driver Education Program.

Memories of WKU include: fond memories of Dr. Gordon Wilcox's all men English classes, seeing my first football game, Dr.
Russell Miller and playing parts in plays he directed (in Van Meter). West Hall being built, long my dream. Pat Hall, Mr. Ivan Wilson’s and Miss Ruth Temple’s Art classes, especially, going to Western—U of L basketball games my first world anniversary, and studying very hard to keep up in Dr. Wilson’s fast paced classes.

OWEN LEE BLANTON JR., Class of 1951, A.B. in Math and M.A. in Education, currently living in Rome, GA.

I continued my education in Guidance and Counseling (Education Specialist) for six years.

I am currently retired from Rome City Schools. My job responsibilities were a Football and Basketball coach, Math, and a School Counselor. At the present, I am active in the Rome Exchange Club.

I am married to Pat who is a school secretary. We have three children, Mike 35, Mark 37, and Lee Ann 28. We also have two grandchildren.

My memories of Western include beating Easter 14-13, in the last few seconds of the game, at home, watching Eddie Diddle, count or tell Bert Smith’s saying “AND THAT” during the game.

At this time my current hobby is playing golf.

BETTIE (DALTON) BLOSS, B.S. in Music. Currently living in Evansville, Ind. and five years watching Eddie Diddle, count or tell Bert Smith’s saying “AND THAT” during the game.

I am currently a housewife. I am director of St. Adult Church Choir, a soloist, and accompanist for Adult Church Choir.

I am married to Bryant A. Bloss, we have two children, Cathy, 32 and Hal, 30, and two grandchildren, three years and three weeks. My memories of Western include wonderful and caring professors: Gertrude Biele, Claude Rose, and Dr. Gordon Wilson, in particular. I had the most fun singing in Madrigal Women’s choir in 1955. Currently living in Hopkinsville, KY.

I am currently retired from TVA in Knoxville, TN. My job responsibilities included appraising TVA Real Estate and buying land. I also spent four years in Acquisition of LBL Office of Buildings and Occupancy.

My wife, Sylvia Green died in 1984. I remarried 1986 to Eva Hollifield. We have two children, Danny C., 40 and Marty C., 36. I have one granddaughter, Nathan, three. As I look back on the days at Western, very pleasant memories are brought to mind.

RICHARD G. BRANDON, Class of 1954, B.S. Degree in Agriculture, currently living in Lindale, TX.

I am currently a Transportation Analyst for Ford Motor Company in Louisville, KY. My wife, the former Margaret Rogers received her B.A. in 1954, we have two children Richard II, 31 and Dan, 29. I also have a granddaughter, Megan, 2.

IDA FRANK BUTTON BRATTON, Class of 1939, AB in Math and English, currently living in Louisville, KY.

I am a teacher for the Jefferson County Board of Education in Louisville, KY. I am a Math and English teacher and advisor for a group of 9th graders.

I have taught in the Advance Program 20 of my 30 years. I am featured in the following:

The World’s Who’s Who of Women, Who’s Who in the South and Southwest, Who’s currently a secretary for the Westbrook State Bank. My job responsibilities include purchasing, insurance, and coordinating the bank’s various departments.

I am also a member of the Western Alumni Association, and I enjoy reading and participating in community activities.

I have been married to my wife, Nancy, since 1965, and we have three children: Chad, 32; John, 29; and Emily, 26.

I enjoy traveling and spending time with my family. I am currently living in the Franklin area.

Currently, I am a Right of Way Supervisor with the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet in Frankfort. My job responsibilities are to assign and supervise statewide the court appraisal awards in all ways of right of way acquisition condemnation trials in Kentucky Circuit Courts.

I am a Charter member of Alpha Sigma Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa (Educator's society) and a member of National Association of Biology Teachers.

I worked for Bob Burrow, (Assistant Superintendent of Fort Knox Schools) and we have two sons. Brent, 25, at the University of Kentucky and Matt, 21, at the University of Kentucky.

I remember studying all night for finals and going out to breakfast, "Frog Room" at S nell Hall; Beta friends and parties; great friends at McMahan Hall; Dr. Steve and Dr. Sumpter.

I pursued my education with a Master's Degree in Secondary education, and a Member of the Board of Education at the Academy of the Arts, Paducah, CA.

My memories of WKU are: "Mom" Dew and McLean Hall, The Fabulous Five, The Didn't Have To" and The Goal Post.

My hobbies are traveling and reading.

GILBERT T. CALHOUN, Class of 1955. B.S. Geography. Currently, an Associate with Weyerhauser, California. I am currently retired.

My memories of WKU include completing high school at Western in the spring of 1922, and since teachers were scarce, I was selected to teach three months before my 18th birthday in spring of 1922. I have three sons and six grandchildren, and I continue to teach. I believe education is essential and I am in my 62nd year of teaching in the Kentucky public schools.

I have a life-long love of the outdoors and enjoy fishing, hunting, and spending time with my grandchildren.

JAMES AUSIE CARPENTER, Class of 1948, AB degree, currently living in Bowling Green, KY.

Western University certainly gave me a solid foundation for a full life ahead! "Life after Western" was spent traveling around the world with a military husband for 22 years. We retired in Alaska. I taught school, worked in retail stores, and pursued an interest in sports. Several years were dedicated to competition—skating, 10K races, and jazz clogging. I have three children: A son, a daughter, and a grandson live in Anchorage. The youngest child lives in Atlanta. I am teaching 3rd grade in DeKalb County and plan to complete my masters degree at Mercer University. Yes, I recall those times at Western which shaped and helped me realize my dreams ahead.

WILLIAM R. CATE (Buddy), Class of 1950. B.S. Degree in Physical Education, and Industrial Arts, currently living in Bowling Green, KY. I continued my education at Murray State in 1951 by enrolling in M.S. classes. I played 1 year of professional basketball with the Waterloo Hawks. Waterloo, IA. I am currently a private businessman with my own building supply business.

Other important positions include coaching 8 years in high schools in Alabama and Kentucky, and seven years at Tenneseee Technological College, and played four years at WKU. 47-70 on the team that played in three straight NIT tournaments. Selected for the TWC Hall of Fame in 1988. I am married to Joy Davis Cate who received a BS in 1950 and taught secondary education for ten years in Alabama, Kentucky, and Ohio, and was Health Services Coordinator in the Bowling Green City School System for six years.

My memories of Western include many memories of Coach Ed Diddle and playing under him from 1946-50.

JOHN M. CHAMBERLIN, Class of 1957. Controlling my memories of Western reminds me of some other difficult tasks. Like this, I spent an entire writing term paper for Gordon Wilson, or worked too long on a quittance for Hugh Johnson, slaved over Gabrielle Robertson's impossible tests, lived in the lab to complete Glenn Dooley's quàntum mechanics assignments through joyce's Ulisses under Justine Lynn. They asked too much — but I wouldn't trade what I gained.

MARION E. CHESNUT, Class of 1955, B.A. Degree in English, currently living in Orlando, FL. This year, 1989, marks my 36th year of teaching. Following graduation from Western I taught and coached at Henderson High School in Henderson, KY until 1959, at which time I became a teacher and coach at Fort Knox Independent High School. During the summer of 1964 I completed a Master's degree in education at WKU. In 1966 I returned to Henderson County High School as principal and in 1969 became a teacher and counselor at Henderson Community College where I am now a Professor in the University of Kentucky Community College System. Both professionally and personally I have remained involved in sports and physical fitness. My hobbies include tennis and fishing.

My favorite memories of Western are the camaraderie among the small student body; philosophizing with Mr. Diddle; Coach Jack Clayton with rolled sleeves and starred collar; and the fruit provided by Mr. Diddle to the football team as we travelled to out-of-town games. Looking on this time in my life I wouldn't change a thing!

DONALD A. CHAPMAN, Class of 1953, B.S. Social Science, Henderson, KY. San Diego, CA. WKU MEMORIES: I feel very privileged to have played on four straight WKU Ohio Valley Conference Tennis Championship teams in 1952, '53, '54, and '55. I have fond memories of the many trips and humorous coaching stories and experiences with coaches Hornbeck and Diddle. I remember vividly what the Western Campus looked like when I was a student. It was well maintained and beautified at the growth and size of WKU today. I enjoy playing golf and travel experiences throughout the world, which are pleasant.

BILL AND MYRNA (CHEW) CHUMLEY, Class of 1953 and 1955, B.S. Degrees (both), currently living in Owensboro, KY.

I was the past president of the Kentucky Chapter of American College of Radiology. Myrna, a housewife, was a past Trustee for the Board of Directors of Paducah Community College.

We have two children: Marshall William, 31; and Warren Franklin, 18. We are involved in numerous professional and medical societies.

MEMORIES: WKU: We have many fond memories. Bill's tug-of-war and the Hilltoppers, Coach Diddle's red towel, teachers (Lancaster, Stevens, Summer, Gabriella Robertson).

JEAN JEWEL CLAIRBONE, Class of 1953, B.S. Degree in Health and Physical Education, M.A. Degree in Education, currently living in Owensboro, KY. I am married to George E. Clairborne, a retired school administrator. We have two children: George E. Clairborne, 25; Brent Smith Clairborne, 18. I taught health and physical education at Daviess High School. I am now a mall owner (on leave) with Century 21 Partners.

I continued my education getting a M.A. in Education in 1958 and am a P.E. teacher for first grade in Franklin, KY. I am active in tennis, musical productions, football games, and basketball games. I am married to Ronald W. Clark who is a president for a bank. We have two children, David 28, and Karen 27.

My memories of Western include leading cheers for the Hilltoppers.

RONALD W. CLARK, Class of 1957, B.S. in Geography, currently living in Franklin, KY. MEMORIES OF WKU: Thoughts of Western always bring back warm memories of years spent "on the hill" in Bowling Green. What a great place Western College years truly represent. I love to remember those times and renew old friendships.

JOAN (GRABRUCK) CLARK, Class of 1957, B.S. Physical Ed. Currently living in Franklin, KY. I continued my education with an EDS at Indiana University. Currently I am retired. Some important positions that I held include: President, Washington County Actors Community Theatre; and I am also a member of the Board of Directors of the Salem Chamber of Commerce. Past honors which I have held are: I am a Retired Colonel in the United States Air Force, Talisman King in 1950, Vice Commander of the 434th T.C. Wing, Member of WKU golf team, Golf Coach at Salem High School for 20 years, and Executive Officer (AFFTC) Battalion.

I have been married to Joanne (Packett) Cole for 39 years and I am currently a teacher at East Washington School.

I have three children which are all WKU graduates: Deborah Cole Stent, Leslee Cole, and Julia (Cole) Hodges. I also have two grand­ children, Emily Stent and Megan Stent.

My memories of Western include basketball games in the Old Barn, dances played by the Red and Gray, Coliary Falls, Talesmills, Hills, crisp autumn evenings on the Hill, football in the stadium, spring evenings and walks by the Kentucky Building, Ed Diddle and his red towel.

I have many hobbies. I like golf, travel, gardening, acting in Summer Stock at Spring Mill (Mitchell, IN), grandchildren, and community work.

GINGER PALMER COLLINS, Class of 1956, B.S. Degree in Music Education, currently living in Jacksonville, FL. My wife is Joan G. Clark and she is a P.E. teacher. We have two children: David, 26; Karen, 27.

MEMORIES OF WKU: I was fortunate to have been awarded a basketball scholarship and had a great time with all my teammates at Western. I still have my Western ball and I love it. I do have a hard time remembering old friends.

W. FRANK COLE, JR., Class of 1952-1964, BA-MA History, currently living in Salem, IN.
I graduated from College High in 1951 and went right on to Western, starting in summer school. I was all set to graduate with the class of 1954 but married and wound up completing Dr. William and Mrs. Travelodge's classes by correspondence.

I continued as a symphony cellist and as organist and teacher at First Unitarian Church where I partied in 1970.

I am currently a Collection Representative for Continental Cablevision, enjoying all the benefits of working outdoors.

I have memories to conclude: hearing the Hilltoppers practicing "Trying" before a packed band hall, making sure the lettering on the poster teaching was a thrill not soon equaled; unlike some loved chapel I played clarinet in the band and majored in music and playing for the games; and most important my friends, teachers, and coaches who made me realize how important college life that leaves one with a wonderful feeling that never goes away.

BILLY COOK, Class of 1954, B.S. in Geology, Geography, currently residing in Kenton, KY.

I received commission into the Air Force. My first assignment was at Dabbits AFB, Marietta, GA. This is where I met my wife, Bobbie. We were married in 1957. In 1958 I went to U.S.A.F. Academy. We were there until 1960, when we returned to Marietta and entered the mobile home sales and parks business.

At this time I am the owner of the Bar G Mobile Home Sales, and the Vice President-Sales.

I received the Commendation Medal while in the U.S. Air Force. I married Bobbie, she is a Homemaker. We have four children, Billy, Trace, Tracy, and Randy; and 21 (twins), Bobbie, and Keni.

graduated from Western and attended the University of Kentucky in 1959. My parents, Robert and Agnes, were both from Ohio and had moved to Kentucky to pursue their education. They met at the University of Kentucky and married in 1960.

After graduating from the University of Kentucky, my parents moved to Owensboro, Kentucky, where my father worked as a teacher and my mother worked as a nurse. I was born in Owensboro in 1962, and we lived there until I was four years old.

At the age of four, my family moved to Paducah, Kentucky, where my father became a principal in a local school. My sister, Beth, was born in 1965, and my brother, Mark, was born in 1967.

My father was always very involved in the community, and he was a member of the Board of Directors of the United States Air Force Association. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of United States Air Force Association, the Board of Directors of the United States Air Force Association, and the Board of Directors of United States Air Force Association. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the United States Air Force Association.

After my parents divorced in 1970, I moved with my mother to Louisville, Kentucky, where I attended Western High School. My mother worked as a nurse at the University of Louisville Hospital, and I was very active in school and community affairs.

I earned my Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Louisville in 1984. I then attended the University of Kentucky Law School, where I earned my Juris Doctor degree in 1987.

I am currently a professor of Business Administration at the University of Louisville. I have published numerous articles and books on business and economics, and I have been a consultant to many businesses and organizations.

In my free time, I enjoy playing golf, reading, and spending time with my family. I am married to Sarah, and we have two children, Emily and John. We live in Louisville, Kentucky, and we are active in the community.
When starting at Western in the fall of 1954 the student body was small enough that we knew everyone on campus by sight or by name. I've lived with a lot of W.U.K.I. history—from Kelly Thompson (then acting superintendent of Thomas Meredith Elementary School student). The Western Spirit lives on! I even remember the renaming of Ky. St. as thank you to Nell Gooch Traveler's, the idea behind this idea was in my head in student assembly.

I met my husband, Scott Ford, a Navy veteran at Western and we married in August of 1958. He is ate from Dr. F. C. George until his retirement and then for Dr. Raymond Cravens until the birth of our first child in August of 1960. We lived in Vet's Village until June 1961 when my husband was granted a B.S. in Biology and a teaching degree. After six years at Tulane, I, Ph. D. in Medical Mycology and another child, we moved back to Bowling Green into faculty housing (across from Vet's Village—we started there).

My husband still teaches at W.K.U. in the Biology Dept. and I work part time at the local newspaper. Our children and their spouses all attended Western. Our son, Douglas 28, and his wife Debbie got their M.A.'s here. He is now a housing administrator in Orlando, FL. Debbie teaches dance and takes care of our first granddaughter, Matthew.

Our daughter, Lauren Kirby 26, is an R.N. in the Medical Center in Bowling Green. Her husband, Ron Kirby Jr, is in the auction and realty business.

My hobbies are painting, reading, cooking and bowling. My husband is an avid bowler and we are active in our church and still see a lot of our college friends from those early days.

We have a really good life—a lot of good memories and a bit of a lot of things we experienced at Western.

WILLIAM E. FORD, JR., Class of 1955, B.S.

On Dec. 21, 1954 I married the former Louise Barbour, also a Western graduate. We are the parents of two daughters, Kathy Louise and Rebecca Lynn. Kathy and her husband, Cory Mills, are parents of two sons, Daniel Page Mills, age four and Stephen Royce Mills, born Feb. 6, 1989. Kathy and Cory are with Grace Baptist Church in Evansville, IN where Cory serves as Minister of Music. Rebecca Lives at Morgantown, WV where she teaches music and is a local radio station host.

Beginning in August of 1957, our son Scott Ford moved to Bowling Green, KY., and in 1958 he married a Bowling Green native, Ann Ford (24), and they have two children, William (28), and Barbara June (22).

My memories of Western include bowling games, Industrial Arts labs, the town of Bowling Green and eating at Hilltoppers.

I've lived in Vet's Village and taught 16 years. I received Outstanding Educator in 1979, Western Kentucky's Outstanding Air Force Limaion Officer in 1979. I was a delegate four years, NEA delegate four years, Kentucky Colonel. Member Air Force Association Reserve Officer Association, National Association, Kentucky Education Association, Local Education Association, American Industrial Arts Association, and I've received the local board of 'Man, Society, Technology'.

My love for Bowling Green was that at Western were some of the best of my life.

I now enjoy working with my woodwork.

I enjoy going to some of the NASCAR Winston Cup Auto Races and cheering on my favorite driver, Darrell Waltrip—a former student.

LOUISE BARBOUR FORSYTH, MORRISONVILLE, KY., Class of 1954. My husband, Daniel Forsyth, is also a Western graduate in the fall of 1952 and received our son, Kyle Forsyth, in 1955. We are lifetime home economists. Kyle was also taught in the biology department at Butler County High School in Morgantown, WV. I taught in October 1987. While teaching, I was co-adviser of Future Homemakers of America and chaired the Vocational department the last four years of teaching.

At present I am thoroughly enjoying retirement and making sure that all the things I always thought I'd do when I retired is now a reality. My son, Kyle Forsyth, is also an educator currently living in Allegany, NY. I'm retired. I'm enjoying life as a grandmother to David Pate Shoell, 7.

I am currently a housewife and mother. I am married to Charles Douglas L'Neave, a medical doctor. We have three children, Mark (a graduate of Murray State University), Jeffrey (a graduate of Western Kentucky University, and Christopher (also a graduate of Western Kentucky University). My husband and I have fond memories of WKU. It was a great place to receive an education and a fun place to live. My husband received a good pre-medical background and after graduating from the University of Louisville School of Medicine has become a successful doctor. I put my training to good use and taught school for several years before several of my sons were born.

We cleverly entangle to WKU for our educational background and for a great climate to "meet your mate." My husband and I met at Western and one of our sons met his wife there also. She is a WKU graduate, also.

THOMAS J. NALL, B.S., Class of 1956.

I started at Western in the fall of 1952. The application form asked: "When did you first use a dial telephone?" and "Does your home have indoor or outdoor facilities?"

I roomed on the third floor of the President's House. I remember Dr. Paul and Mrs. Virginia Garrett well.

Working for Bob Cochran in the pressbox at football and basketball games, I carried the note to Coach Ed Diddle that the night Art Spalding helped me with my writing for individual scoring in a college game. I was up inside Cherry Hall chime tower the night of the ceremonial lighting of the tower. I relayed the "turn 'em on" signal.

I was hired in 1957 as an Officer from Western's ROTC program. I joined Gen- eral Davis at that time. I retired after 29 years at my fourth GE location.

I have a patent with GE and belong to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

My oldest son, Brad, is a Petty Officer in the Navy. My other son, Tim, will finish Graduate School at Western in 1980. Marilyn and I live in Bloomington, IN.

I am proud to have graduated from Western in its Golden Anniversary Year!

EMILY HELEN NAMKEN, Class of 1952.

My wife, Donna, and I am now looking forward to retirement in the near future, probably moving to the South. We have two grown children, Jay and Jasmin. In addition, the west side of Western include the strong spirit of koinonia on the campus. Every student and teacher enjoys everyone. The roundball games in the Red Barn and the bicep pep rallies culminating with a snake line down town will live on in my happy memories. From all my experiences at Western and in Bowling Green, I am often reminded of the truth that "the Spirit makes the Master."
It was during the winter of 1957, 6.5 in the life of the radio and heard the Hilltoppers singing, "Tryin'," for the very first time.

Memories of Western include putting the Herald to bed at the Park City Daily News with Bob Cochran and others, Gladys and Hubert Powell at Hilltop House and playing the phone in their own way helped many continue in school by talking to the principal with the ermög of five the dollar meal tickets they sold. Also remember Mr. Diddle and the baseball team on which I was privileged.

Have three sons Byron Murray (31) who holds an A.A. degree from Madisonville Community College, David Hunter (30) who holds a B.S. degree from Western and William Gregg, a B.S. degree from Georgetown and is a grad student at Western. Also remember other things which should remain memories without publication.

JIM WEDDELL, Since the 1957 graduation, we have lived in a number of locations. Every city and new position has been a broader educational experience. For the most part, I have been involved with new product development and management. The common denominator has been a lot of time in the Far East and the Philippines developing new products and ideas. It's fun and rewarding.

I married Nancy Wilson. She has her PHD in education and is a professor on the college level. We have been blessed with wonderful children. Jay Todd, age 24, lives in Virginia with his family. Anie, 21, is a senior at the University of Kentucky majoring in nursing. A freshman at the University of Missouri and Mark, 15, is a sophomore at Henderson County High School.

While the rewards of business have been great, the memories and experiences at Western are equally outstanding; I remember the basketball games in the Red Barn, enjoying closer with my roommates. I remember weekends at Beech Bend Park for those who couldn't get home on weekends. I remember working for the Industrial Arts convention trips.

But most all, I remember the closeness of friends and faculty. The Industrial Arts Department was like family. Mr. L.T. Smith, Mr. Carl Barnes, and Mr. Walter Nash were invaluable, but Mr. H.B. Clark spent many hours moving men from boxcar to floor. Thanks, H.B. thanks Western and may that "SPIRIT" always prevail.

Ann Rose Whittam, Class of 1957, B.S. in Elementary Education, currently living in Louisville, KY.

I taught at 4 schools, several years at one and two room schools and the last 12 years I taught first grade at Hughes K. All school was in Kentucky.

I taught my first school in 1918 and attended the spring term at Western which was my college experience. I continued to teach and attended Western on short term basis every year I graduated. During this time I married a farmer, had three children and was a part of the farm work. By the time I graduated my oldest child, a son, had already graduated from the University of Kentucky after his first two and a half years as a full time student. I continued teaching and working, after four quarter semesters at Western. My youngest daughter had graduated from Murray and was teaching.

I lost my husband in January 1964. I retired in May 1967 at age 70.

My children are: James T. Williams, Madisonville, KY. He is a retired County (Extension) Agent, married, has two sons and four grandchildren. My oldest daughter, Miss Martha Lynn Williams is single and shares a home with me. She is retired from USOA. FMH. My youngest daughter, Nancy W. Pogue teaches first grade in Greenville. She is married and has four children, one son-in-law and two grandchildren. My youngest grandchild of mine is planning to graduate from the following in the near future: Madisonville, Madisonville and the University of Louisville in Kentucky.

We have three of our children and two grandchildren. They are separated by only two years and only missed two Sundays from Sunday School and church in
I was an avid reader up to age 89 when I lost my eye sight. I had two cataract operations and six laser treatments (or surgery) on both eyes. I was the first person from Muhlenburg County to have laser surgery, approximately 15 years ago.

Since retirement I have made several cross stitch quilts, and table cloths, also laced hook rags. I had never done this before.

I remember Western’s first President, Dr. Cherry, very well. He used to get very upset with cigarette butts being thrown on the walk and campus. He wanted everyone to attend Chapel every day. Chapel programs were very interesting. I once had a bird watching class at Western. The teacher and students would meet on the steps of Van Meter Hall just before suppertime. We would walk down behind the building into a wooded area and watch the birds and listen to them sing at day break. We would mark off a list of the various birds we would hear or see. It was a very interesting class.

MARY LOU TAYLOR WOOD, Class of 1956, B.S. Degree in Home Economics, currently living in Russellville, KY.

I started teaching my first year in Jefferson County where I stayed for 28 years as a teacher, elementary principal and later as Executive Director of Elementary Administration.
