8-1913

UA99/9 Southern Exponent of Business Education, Vol. VII, No. 1

Bowling Green Business University
GOOD BUSINESS.

If you knew you could, by buying a certain article for 25 cents, clear $296 on it a year from this date, wouldn't you buy that property even if you had to borrow the money? It would be good business NOT to do it. It is difficult to find a lender, would you stop trying and give it up? Of course not. Your business education will be even more for you than this illustration indicates. It will double your earning power; it will render your services desirable; it will put you into a position offering you promotion from time to time; it will break the financial shackles from your hands and make you a free, independent, self-supporting man or woman.

"240 PER CENT."

My salary was raised twice in the last twelve months and I anticipate another raise this year. My salary is not 240 per cent of what it was before I attended a Commercial School; I cannot too highly recommend your school for the excellent service it has rendered me in preparing me for the duties I am now performing.

Faustus Noble.

CASHIER CORNELIUS.

The Bowling Green Business University is one of the country's most successful business schools. The school appoints the principal and all the officers of any business college in the South, the faculty and school are well known, progressive and successful business men. The money that you have spent in the B. G. U. is the best possible investment that you or your young lady can make.

Yours very truly,

L. U. CORNELIUS.

Cashier Warren State Bank.

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY.

The distributed postage is sent free, to you for all. I never expect any one to do this.

J. A. UDD.

"CLIMBING UP THE HILL."

(Extract from a letter.)

Angola, Miss.

My Dear Friend:

I want to tell you about my good luck. I have the best job in the division, pays the best salary and does business better than any other agency on the line for the size. Have a belt the year round and a helper for part of the time. I can never tell you how very grateful I feel to you for the good instruction I got from you while a student there. I have been promoted three times since I left school, and have gone up without any trouble. Of course, I have attended in my business, but it seems so easy to climb up the hill when you know how it is done.

Your friend,

H. C. GILILAND.

Agent of A. M. V. R.

Mr. Gililand enjoys a salary larger than two or three average men draw. Tailoring offers great inducements to capable men. We congratulate Mr. Gililand upon his splendid record. We are proud of him.

Whether you are a young man or young lady, I recommend you to the B. G. U.

"$70.00 FOR NINE HOURS."

Parkersburg, Iowa.

I have a pretty good place in rural bond service here. I get $70.00 per month for nine hours' work per day and don't work all the nine hours by any means.

I realize more since I left school than I did while there all that you did for me and I am certainly grateful to you for it all. I never expect any one to do this.

J. A. UDD.

SPECIAL PENSION.

This Department is now almost twice as large as ever before. Prof. Bouknight has few but few equals in getting results. He is turning out more good penmen than ever before have left this school. Pensions will do more than anything else to get you a good position. Of course you will have to know how to hold it, but you can't hold a position until you get it. Therefore get Pensions and get it as soon as you can. Don't postpone it. A little money invested in Special Pensions will be the best investment you ever made.

J. A. UDD.
MAJOR HENRY W. PATTON

Professor Henry W. Patton rendered great service in the departments of Higher Accounting and Professional Education during the summer training school for commercial teachers. He is a graduate of Yale as well as a C. P. A. The students greatly enjoyed and appreciated his splendid work.

COLONEL JAMES F. RAMSEY

Colonel Ramsey completed his business course in R. C. B. F. eight or ten years ago, since which time he has been President of the National Bank of Eddyville, Ill., and a little later was head of the Banking Department of the State. He examined the first State Bank that was ever officially examined in Kentucky. Appointed on the Governor’s staff, he became a real “Kentucky Colonel.” He has retired from his position as a member of the Board of Governors of the Bank of Kentucky, and is now president of the First National Bank of Eddyville, Ill. He is a man of big business and big brains. He owns the largest and best farm in Lyon County. He knows his wife is also a graduate of the R. C. B. F. and that their four little ones are “grand-children of the R. C. B. F.” If the Colonel is proud of his Alma Mater, we wish to inform him that she is doubly proud of him, and claims him as one of her most loyal and most highly appreciated sons. Here’s to you, Colonel!

FRENCH DICKER IN DEMAND

The Bowling Green Business University takes much pride in the recognition it receives from men of business here at home and throughout the South. In this manner it earns the respect and confidence of educational interests of all kinds and as evidence that it reaches its desires in this, Pres. J. S. Dooley received thirteen invitations from literary societies this year, in Kentucky and other states, to deliver their commencement addresses and has already received three invitations for next year.

HARDEN CONTINUES CLASS ADDRESS

To Mr. J. J. Hornback, of Hardin county, fell the honor of delivering the class address at the commencement exercises of the Bowling Green Business University, which were held Tuesday evening. Mr. Hornback’s subject was “Bible Doctrine.” Elizabethtown News.

And a great address it was. The Institution is proud of the speaker and the speech.

Mr. Maxie S. Cole, formerly of Allen County, Ky., has been in the commercial work of the Normal School at Marion, Ind. Mr. Cole is a combination teacher and Business man, and has made a success of his profession. Before entering our school he had little or no earning capacity. Now he shares a salary probably four times as great as that of the average man of his age.

The combined courses in Telegraphy and Railroad Accounting, in Bookkeeping and Stenography, are as staple as sugar and coffee in a grocery store. They are popular because those students complete them.

NEVER FAIL TO GET PROMOTIONS

THE LAW OF AVERAGE

It is said that the average salary of doctors is $1200 a year; of lawyers $500; of dentists $750, and of business men $2500.

Draw your own conclusion.

2200 MILES UP THE AMAZON

When almost seventeen years of age, Paul Mahoney completed the combined course in this Institution and went on to a splendid position in Alabama. Last fall he was employed by a timber company in Ohio. Now he’s the in and out, or South America and on arriving there went twenty-two hundred miles up the Amazon River to his place of business. He began on the small salary of $1200 a year and expenses. Though he’s an old man, he is still in his prime. Great is the combined course!

This is a good likeness of handsome Herbert Whitney, who only a few years ago was working on a farm of 60 acres, today he is one of the five claim agents of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., lives in 64 rooms and earns $1200 a month. He is one of the five claim agents of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., lives in 64 rooms and earns $1200 a month. He is one of the five claim agents of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., lives in 64 rooms and earns $1200 a month. He is one of the five claim agents of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., lives in 64 rooms and earns $1200 a month. He is one of the five claim agents of the Illinois Central Railroad Co., lives in 64 rooms and earns $1200 a month.

PROF. HARMAN’S BIG SPEECH

Vice President J. L. Harman accepted an invitation to deliver the Commencement Address at Cape Girardeau Business College, in Missouri, last June. From newspaper reports and direct letters, we are convinced that it was the greatest speech ever made—and he has made many that “they say” are as good as any.

Prof. Harman is regarded as one of the best educational speakers in this State.

GETS JOB AT $1,000 A YEAR

Mr. Roy James, of this city, who graduated this week at the head of a class of fifty-five in the Bowling Green Business University, accepted a position as teacher of the Normal School in a small town near Springfield, Mo. The salary attached is $1,000 for nine months service.

Mr. James’ friends are justly proud of his record at the school and of his new position. Elizabethtown News.

Mr. Will S. Merlehead, formerly of Allen County, is now head Night Keeper for the Illinois Central Railroad, from Monroe to New Orleans. He has under his care nearly two hundred seconds, dollars, wheels of property and the direction of many men. His salary is in keeping with his great responsibilities. A few years ago he was in our school. Prior to coming here he was making about forty dollars per month teaching. His home is now in Montclair, Mass.

Do you know of any other town or city in which board can be had for as $9.00 per month, everything furnished?

Where else can be had in a private family for $12 to $14 per month?

The riches of the Commonwealth are free, strong minds and hearts of health:

And more to help than gold or grain:

The OUSING hand and CULTURED brain.

—J. C. Whitlitt.
BIG INDIANS

Engage in War Dance Around Their Camp Fire.

There were No Scalp Locks Taken, and the Faces Were Very Soon Reassembled.

Saturday night about eight o'clock an army of Indian warriors with war paint, tomahawks, bows and arrows, feathers and "fur breeches" filled the streets and captured our city unconscious. They marched around Fountain Park and back to their campsite at the Bowling Green Business University. They were accompanied by drums and bugles, all in war paint and arms. It was soon discovered that their purpose was a peaceful one and that no bloodshed was intended. In other words, they were the teachers and students of the Bowling Green Business University who were enjoying a late year Indian party, and therefore, with college liberty, they took in the town and then went back to the university to enjoy there a program in keeping with the occasion. Mr. Bogelson, a student from Ohio, had prepared a beautiful posterized representing Indian life on the plains in which the war dance was given around the campus. Sticks and Indian music, both instrumental and vocal, was rendered by students in Indian costume. This dance was probably one of the most enjoyable that the students have ever given. Immediately after the performance, refreshments were served and then Indian trading began, each Indian having brought to the articles to trade to other Indians. Several hundred students wore Indian costumes, and it was the opinion of all present that no more warlike nor beautiful Indian girls were ever seen on the Western plains.

Many visiting citizens were present and seemed to enjoy the evening quite as much as did the students. Messenger, Dec. 2. 1912.

Mr. J. M. Reynolds of Mississippi, and Mrs. Anna Hopkins of Kentucky, whose pictures appear above, received the prize offered for the best man and woman whose Indian "fur breeches" was considered best. They have since been known as "Big Chief Reynolds" and "Pocahontas Hopkins."

MRS. CORA E. WARE

Miss Ware graduated in the Commerce Course one year ago, since which time she has been teaching in Cheyenne, Indian High School. She has just been called to one of the new schools of Arkansas to teach commercial branches at $2500 a year.

Don't stand up the Steps of Success.

without the Stairs.

-Mark Twain

BAND CONCERT.

The complimentary Band Concert given by the faculty of the Bowling Green Business University to the students of the Summer Training School Saturday night was beautiful both in

A WINTER SCENE AT BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS UNIVERSITY. WITH STUDENTS RETURNING TO SCHOOL AFTER HOLIDAYS.

30900 A YEAR.

Mr. Eldridge Harper, who came from Adair County, Ky., three years ago, completed our Commerce Course and went West to give up with the country. His employer has just written us: "We have an opening for a commercial student of Shortland and Bookkeeping. Please recommend one immediately. Mr. Harper, whom you sent to us two years ago, will clean up $2000 to $2500 this year."

"We spend our days in deliberating, and we end them without coming to any resolve." —Extraneous.

We spend our days in deliberating, and we end them without coming to any resolve. —Extraneous.

A New York Teacher.

Syracuse, N. Y.

Every association of school life at the B. G. U. is pleasant to me, and I shall always look back to the months I spent there as one of the most

The Fall Session will open Tuesday, September 2nd.

A. C. DAVIS

Secretary-Treasurer Paducah, Ky.

Mr. Davis enjoys a comfortable position here. In a recent interview he said:

"Whenever I have an opportunity, I make the most of it by resting and reading."

Mr. Davis recently visited the Bowling Green Business University. I have been there, and I have enjoyed the facilities for business education. I shall always cherish the day I entered the Bowling Green Business University. If that facility were not for this school, I would not hold the position I now have.

M. B. W. WEBB, GRANTOR.

We present here the face of the normal and business instruction of the Alumni Association. He delivers the address to the Alumni Association, and is always up to the standard standing he has always maintained. The Alumni Association is one of the greatest strengths of the school. New students are always welcomed by the brilliant men.

I entered your school on the ist of October, 1911, altogether ignorant of the principles of bookkeeping and on May 1st, 1912, I accepted a position as assistant bookkeeper which I am now maintaining in addition to your advertising, and I am the principal of the oldest education I know. If I ever make success in life, it will be largely due to the teaching received in your school.

T. P. ALEXANDER.

M. E. R. EAY, MANAGER.

The Institution has opened a branch school at Hattiesburg, Miss., now known as the Hattiesburg Business College. Mr. E. R. Eay is managing it. He is one of the strongest teachers in our acquaintance. His success and his success as a teacher of the leading business schools furnish the best evidence that his work as manager of H. B. C. will be followed by highly profitable results.

SIX TRAIN DISPATCHERS.

Six students from our Telegraph School have been promoted to the honorable and responsible position of Chief Train Dispatcher.
BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS UNIVERSITY, PHOTOGRAPHED IN MARCH, 1913.

The Bowling Green Business University is shown in the photograph, possibly taken in March 1913, capturing the university's buildings and campus environment. The image provides a visual representation of the university's architectural features and the surrounding landscape during that period.
Begin your course in Special Penmanship the day you arrive here.

THE SOUTHERN EXPONENT

M. WILLIAM E. MCDougAL

This splendid teacher of commercial branches has just completed his second year at the principal department of the Business University in Steubenville, Ohio. The superintendent of schools has pronounced him one of the best men that he has ever had in that department. His salary is written in four figures.

MR. JAMES B. BUTCHER

Mr. Butcher was elected to assist notice to deliver an address to the Alumni Association on the evening of July 22nd. He is well known by all who have met him.

NOTE-FREE TRIP TO MAMMOTH CAVE

Students who enroll for this course and pay for same an entrance will be entitled to a trip to the Mammoth Cave, with all expenses paid, including railroad fare, hotel bills and car admittance.

The SPECIAL Course, including the Commerce Course, Typewriting, shorthand, unlimited, or Telegraph and Accounting, unlimited, $115.00.

Life Endowment Course, unlimited, $130.00.

ACADEMIC COURSE

We give a strong academic course in connection with the business branches but without extra charge. This is taught by experienced teachers who have received their degree from leading institutions. You need not defer your commercial course to take the preparatory branches—you can have both time and money by taking them with your bookkeeping, shorthand, or telegraphy.

We make this statement after many years' experience in preparing hundreds of students for college. They are so successfully and satisfactorily placed today.

If a student wishes to take the Academic Course, the tuition will be as follows:

10 weeks
5 months
10 months

Typewriter

14.00
18.00
30.00

Typewriting, unlimited course

15.00

PENMANSHIP

Class penmanship is free to all students.

Special lessons in Ornamental, or Business Penmanship

One week

Nine weeks

Twenty weeks

Unlimited Business Penmanship

Unlimited Ornamental Penmanship

Unlimited Commercial Penmanship, including Ornamental, Business Lettering, Flourishing and Engraving

BOARD.

Summer Rates, a Month

8.50
9.40
11.00

Winter Rates, a Month
10.00
14.00

These rates include both table board and lodging.

A CREDIT TO BOWLING GREEN.

The school has nearly one hundred new Underwood typewriters. Everybody studies typewriting. It is now so common in business offices as pen and ink. No one ever considered for a position unless he could use the machine skillfully and accurately.

THE HUMBOLDT BUSINESS COLLEGE

BRANCH OF THE B. G. B. U.

At the solicitation of the citizens of Humboldt, Tennessee, we have established there a branch of this institution, under the management of Mr. Edgar B. Ray, of Mississippi. The school starts under the most favorable surroundings. The citizens are enthusiastic in their support and we have every reason to believe that it will be greatly successful. It is supplied with all necessary apparatus, furniture, fixtures, etc., and is located in a spacious and modern equipped building. Our patrons in that territory will find the Humboldt Business College prepared to give them everything in the line of business education.

We are determined to leave nothing undone to make it measure up to the highest expectations and requirements.

Write for its literature. Address

HUMBOLDT BUSINESS COLLEGE,
Humboldt, Tennessee.

Address all letters to the Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky.
OLLA STATE BANK.

Olla, La.

I completed your bookkeeping course in 1982. After leaving school, I accepted a position with Belknap Hardware Mfg. Co., Louisville, Ky. Later I became assistant cashier of Blackford Bank, Blackford, Ky., and have been cashier of the Olla State Bank of Olla, La., for the past five years.

I consider it the duty of all young men to take a course in some business college and I never lose an opportunity to recommend BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS UNIVERSITY.

LACY C. NUNN.

BROWNSVILLE DEPOSIT BANK.

Brownsville, Ky.

I have been in the Brownsville Deposit Bank since January 1, 1912. I began work as a bookkeeper and cashier on September 1st, I was made assistant cashier, which place I am holding now. I would gladly recommend your School to any young man who wishes to make something of himself in after years, and I also want to thank you for the training I received while in your school, and will be ready to help you in any way that I can in the future.

C. L. VINCENT, Assistant Cashier.

A CERTAINTY.

It is a certainty that you are looking for, take a Combined Course in Bookkeeping, Bookkeeping and Short-hand, or in Telegraphy and Railroad Accounting, and you will get it.

THANKS, GENTLEMEN.

Bayou Goula, La.

Gentlemen: Mr. Bootth used to use the word “fuh” and he has heard the word “boil” given by the guide while crossing the river to the shore beyond.

Very truly,

H. HANOIN SONS.

AMERICA’S GREATEST.

Our head penman is a pupil of one of America’s greatest penmen, and he seems to have caught the inspiration, skill and ambition of all. The day will come when Brownsville will be known as America’s greatest penman.

It requires only a very short time to qualify oneself for a position as operator-agent.

A little investment in business education right now will increase your purse-twenty five to a HUNDRED per cent.

MAMMOTH CAVE. The Greatest Natural Wonder in the World, Is Only Sixty Minutes Ride From the Bowling Green Business University.

SACRAMENTO DEPOSIT BANK.

Sacramento, Ky.

Gentlemen: I am still with the Sacramento Bank as you will notice. I am making better than $5000 a year and so I don’t regret the small salary that I worked for in starting. With all good wishes to the old Institution, I remain

JOHN T. BIBB, Cashier.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Marlboro, N. Y.

I am now assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Marlboro, New York, and attribute my success in banking to the splendid training last three years and find it no trouble at all to keep the books. I am also working as Revenue Agent for the State at Large in connection with my bank work and find a need every day for something that I learned while with you.

With kindest regards, I am Yours very truly,

ELAM HUBBELL.

A former Telegraphy student said in a recent letter, “My monthly salary for the year just ended was $50.00.”

And yet it took him only about six months to get the knowledge necessary to make this splendid salary.

The Keyboard of the Stenotype A. Wunderful Machine—the Swiftest in the World.

From Mr. Geo. Calvin, Superintendent, Springfield, Ky., graded school, one of the most scholarly men in the State, we received:

“Dear Mr. Harman: I greatly enjoyed your speech. It was the best I have heard for some time. The speeches were of excellent order. Do you know that that feature of your school is going to bring you your best compensation one day? I enjoyed your speech and wish I could do credit on the whole to any college debate.”

GEO. CALVIN.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

Business men all borrow money to carry on their enterprises. Why not follow their example and borrow the money to defray your expenses while taking a Combined Course in Bookkeeping and Short-hand, or in Telegraphy and Railroad Accounting?

“AT $5 A MONTH.”

Dear Friend: I am highly pleased with your prospect. I will begin work on July 15th as bookkeeper and stenographer at $75 per month. I shall always be glad to recommend the H. G. B. U. to anyone wishing a commercial course. Since leaving the H. G. B. U. I have traveled twelve thousand miles and have visited twenty-three states, Canada and Mexico. I have been working for the Southern Merchants Company up to this date.

With regards to all the faculty, I am

Respectfully yours,

E. F. HARDCASTLE.

GET THIS MESSAGE.

Telegraphy can be learned in 3 to 6 months. We have the main-line wire. The teacher is an experienced railroad man having occupied every office from night operator to chief Train Dispatcher.

For fourteen years, twenty-six railroads have been employing our graduates as rapidly as we could turn them out. Don’t wait; don’t put it off—come NOW. A good place awaits you.

Keep your eye on the School of Penmanship. It is attracting attention from all parts of the Nation.

The First Class in Stenography.
BATTLE HYMN of the Republic, and were followed by the Corcorans with their song of "Maryland, My Maryland.

Enthusiasm Breaks Fervor.

The pent-up enthusiasm of the Western forces could hold no bounds and for 15 minutes both sides hailed forth with their College yells. It was a wild scene, and the enthusiasm greatly and were unconsciously drawn into the game until everyone was yelling something. Even the faculty got the spirit of the hour and once more were the "bad little boys" of the hour.

Debate Begins.

Their enthusiasm finally exhausted, the gallery has been organized and con- ducted as such the organization of the two societies. Finally called the meeting on. The two last chairs fell to the lot of Mr. E. H. Harwell for the Corcorans, and Mr. E. H. Joiner for the Big Four. Each was given 25 minutes, and not a second did any of the debaters lose applying to their utmost cur-operating argument for or against the resolution. The great campaign closed with a ten-minutes' répétition speech by Mr. Robinson. The motion was then made, and the decision for the Corcoran Society was the beginning of another siege of an- nouncement which lasted until 2 o'clock in the morning. The winners and their friends, not satisfied with their great victory, began "raising up" the city, and paraded the main streets, giving further sent to the enthusiasm of the occasion. The victors were carried on the shoulders of their friends.

Finally the big crowd landed at the Hotel Royal. The big hotel in the state, and their triumphal march was now abashed with electric lights, and an old-time love feast, followed by the speeches of the debaters which lasted until the wee small hours of morning. The great debate, now marked in the eyes of the world which had been on for some time by those who participated either in the debate or as friends of the friendly antagonists, as a sweet memory of golden days of college days.

The occasion was deemed the "greatest yet," and was witnessed by many former students of the B. C. R., U. U. E., and Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi.

The victory of the Corcoran Society last night gives this society the ad- vantage of one. It was seven years ago that the Big Four Society organized for annual debate. Three hundred Big Four and three hundred the Corcorans. The Big Four were not defeated last night,—they simply lost the decision.—Times-Journal, May 21, 1913.

SELF-EXPLANATORY.

This letter from the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of this city, was received on the morning after the great debate. Coming from one so eminently qualified to judge, it is greatly appreciated.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 21, 1913.

My dear Mr. Dickey:—Will you per- mit me to express the very great pleasure I received from the debate of your students last night. I listened with keenest interest to all the speeches, and 1 do not believe that I have ever enjoyed a debate any more. I frankly confess that I was greatly interested and plighted to watch the mannerly in which the subject was handled. I am very sure that no more able discussion of this subject will be held anywhere; it was worthy of great and interested and experienced men in debate.

I was so delighted with their good work that I could not refrain from expressing my pleasure and offering my heartfelt congratulations to you and the faculty for this splendid work you are doing.

Assuring you of my continued in- terest in the Bowling Green Business University, and with cordial regards, I am,

ROBERT H. MccAlLUM.

Burlington, Ky., July 9, 1913.

Dear Mr. Dickey:

I have just finished reading the Inter-Society Debate. It is as please-

RACED TO $100.

Dear Mr. Dickey:

I received a copy of the Seventeenth Annual Debate and wish to congrat- ulate the University on having set such a precedent as this debate indicates. You people are doing with your school the best class of college work possibly could be done for the business colleges of the world. You are going a long way to give the business world a standard and recognition which those institutions have not enjoyed before. Your line of procedure will enable those business colleges to enjoy the dignity and respect due to such institutions as you deserve and I wish to con- gratulate you upon your great work.

With best wishes,

Very truly,

E. 0. HUGHES.

RIGGERS AND BETTER.

The school is larger by far than ever at any other time in all its long history of thirty-eight years. The courses are stronger and more prac- tical than ever before. We are filling more positions per year and the stu- dents are demanded than at any other time in the school's history, for all of which we are duly grateful and on account of which we are put- ting forth redoubled energy and are devoting more special time and concentra- tion to the cause of busi- ness education, with a determination that the institution shall take no backward steps.

New Market Banking Co.

New Market, Ala.

Gentlemen:

I owe to a large extent my success in my chosen profession, to the training I received in this school. I had no business training whatever before taking a course with you. I regard the University as the leading business school of the South.

Yours truly,

R. E. COLMAN.

Cashier New Market Bank.

Prof. J. C. T. Nao, of State Univer- sity of Mississippi, who is one of our classmates, is a big man, talks on big subjects and always makes a big speech.

The Rev. Mr. Sears, deacon and teacher, delivered one of the most charming and inspiring addresses ever heard at our morning programs.

CLIMBING THE LADDER.

E. O. Hewitt of Mansfield, La., left this school about four years ago, after having received an appointment as telegraph operator. He has climbed the ladder round by round until to-day he is Traveling Telegraph Inspector of the Kansas City Southern Railway. And yet he is only twenty-three; in years, a mere boy; in responsibility, a man. The field of railroading is almost without limit for men of character, ambition and preparation. Mr. Hewitt has all these elements and hence, his won- derful success and promotion.

BANKS AND BUSINESS EDUCATION.

A bank thinks it has done something when it declares a ten or twelve cent raise. A teacher makes more than that. What did the teachers you have, that you could rec- ommend, with a short description and statement of qualifications. The teacher's job is one of the hardest in the world, and I love to do the things, although I am not a teacher, I am sure that you desire to acquaint me of the affairs of education. I would appreciate it and I think it will work to our mutual advantage.'