8-1918

UA99/9 Southern Exponent of Business Education, Vol. XII, No. 1

Bowling Green Business University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Part of the Business Commons, and the Higher Education Administration Commons

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/2805

This Other is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.
ANY hundreds of B. G. B. U. students left school and others, their offices paying them handsome salaries, and are now standing French trenches with tyranny, oppression before them; behind them are Home, Liberty, Life and the Pursuit of Happiness. They show in these pages the

"MY COUNTRY, "TIS OF THEE,
SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY."

"SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY"

We sincerely wish we could reproduce here the faces of the many students who are with the Stars and Stripes. They are defending the land and liberty of the world.

Among them is Capt. D. Y. Doss, of Calloway County, Kentucky. After his course, he went to Pueblo, Colorado, to teach commercial subjects in the city High School. After one term there, he resigned at a great loss, and professional standards to volunteer his services to the government. After his training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, he was commissioned.

We doubt, by the time this paper is printed, he will be with the French trenches. He and all the other soldiers and the sailors from the B.
G. B. U. take with them our appreciation, our affection and our confidence. They will be a credit and an honor, not only to this school, but to this country. We salute you, Captain!