Hilltoppers Rated Favorites In OVC Contest

By Edith Love Hawkins

The fourth and last contest of the current indoor track season in Bowling Green will be presented Monday evening, February 25, by Nan Merriman, member-sponsor.

Merriman has the distinction of having broken all records in the men's division. Her first set of records for the 100 yards and 100 yard hurdles in 1946, which are recorded in the record book, are still the fastest ever recorded for that distance. She has since broken the women's 100 yard and 100 yard hurdles records in the women's division.

She has also set records in the 200 yard race, the high jump, the long jump, the triple jump, and the discus. Her most recent record of 11 feet 3 inches in the high jump is the best ever recorded by any woman in the United States.

In addition to her own records, Merriman has set several records for her team, the University of Kentucky. She has established new records in the 100 yard dash, the 200 yard race, the long jump, the high jump, and the triple jump.

February 25 will be a great day for track fans, and everyone is invited to attend. Tickets are available at the door for $1.00 each.
A TEAM TO REMEMBER

Four months ago, they were a bunch of boys who knew how to play basketball. They were three seniors and four top players. They have come back from last year's great team. But they had not played basketball in a year and a half. They didn't play in the tournament. They didn't play in the state championship game. They didn't play in the district game. They didn't play in the regional game. But they still have something to prove. They still have something to show the world.

Johanna Maples Wins Contest!

If you were given the question "What is the first name of the President of the United States?" at a trivia contest, would you know the answer? Most people probably wouldn't, but Johanna Maples did, and she won a contest.

Johanna Maples is a former student at Western, and she recently won the first prize of $35 in a trivia contest held by the college. The contest was held as a part of the Western Alumni Association's annual meeting, which took place last weekend.

Johanna is a member of the Green River Baptist church, and she has been a devoted member of the Western Alumni Association. She recently received the first prize in the trivia contest, which consisted of questions about the United States and its history.

If you are interested in participating in future contests, be sure to check out the Western Alumni Association's website for more information.

UNESCO Shows Interest In Coming Production Of "The Petrified Forest"

Three members of the HERALD staff have major roles in the forthcoming Western Players production of "The Petrified Forest," and others are involved with journalism as their extra-curricular activities.

The Western Players have received a request for photographs of rehearsals and production, publicity pho- tographs, publicity facts, etc., in connec- tion with their forthcoming production of Robert E. Sherwood's "The Petrified Forest," to be presented in Van Meter auditorium March 21.

The request came from Miss Howard Gun- dler, secretary of the American National Theatre and Academy, who recently extended an invitation to the Players to participate in the "National United Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization's National Theatre Month. This ma- terial was requested in order to present a complete picture of Inte- rnational Theatre Month to the nation and to other countries.

The UNESCO idea is a simple one, but it has become a means of broadening the horizon for the players at WJL and in the community at large. The information is to be broadcast during the Four Decades of American Play production, and later the same material will be broadcast on March 30 by the Bowling Green Players' Guild, under the direction of Judy Makanickk.

Here's To Another O.V.C. Victory

We take this opportunity to express our best wishes to the Western Hilltoppers and to Coaches Ed Diddle and Ted Hordeback in the forthcoming tournaments.

Guss Nopper was elected mayor with the following council members: Tommy Beadle, Harold Murphy, Clifford Hard, Harold Phillips, John Q. Wesley, Harold Greshch, Edwin C. Conant. Faculty members Adam Street and Jack Clayton are serving.

Librarians Meet for Staff Discussion

The college librarians held a staff meeting on Monday, February 11, while class meetings were in session.

Topics selected from a LIBRARY JOURNAL editorial, January 1, 1950, listing important events in the library world in 1949 were briefly discussed. These topics were: "Public Library Inquiry," "Innocent use of Mechanical Aid," "Catastrophing Conferences," and "Protest." "Regional Conferences of the American Library Association" and "Improvement in indexes and Classifications" were also discussed.

Also presented was a discussion of the material received by the library. These are WORLD ALMANAC and POCKET ALMANAC for 1950.

CEDAR HOUSE STORY

In 1916, nearly all of the edifice on the Hill girded as a result of a severe drought and the ravages of hoppers. In the summer of 1920 several accidents, most of them members of the dormer class at that year, stayed on the Hill and under the direction of Professor W. J. CRAG, 1921-27, through, and George Page, cut the erodes and with them built the Better House, now known as the "Cedar House."

In 1950 an Arts and Science Curriculum leading to the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees was awarded, the benefits of which were to enter the teaching profession.

Lavoy Makes 34 As Aces Fall

Pitting their regular 1948-49 team against the Westerns, the Lavoy's exhibited their shooting accuracy and all-out defense as they rolled over the Bravissima Aces 21-64 at Jackson Field, last night.

It was the last home performance of Bob Lavoy and Johnny Giovmia. Buddy Glebe, who made his last local college performance a week earlier was still unable to see action because of a lingering cold.

Bob Wra

As the final whistle blew and the Hilltoppers walked off the floor with a great victory, the team's season record rose to 27 wins against only four losses.

The win left Bob Lavoy who collected 34 markers, only five points away from the all-time Western scoring record set by Carpie Twomey over three seasons. In scoring the 14 field goals and 6 foul shots against the Aces, Lavoy tied only eight points short of an all-time scoring record for a single game by Bravissima college record. He had ample time to get the eighth point but missed on a trio of the anxious fans the Aces appeared to concentrate their defensive power around the six-foot seventh-inch brick.

By Pat Shaw

Well, after this season, Western fans can quit arguing about the old records established by Hilltoppers of former years—there just aren’t very many old records left to argue about. This year’s quartet has just about written an entirely new set of records by breaking sixteen major offensive standards, tying one more, setting a few minor marks in addition, and setting at least one major defensive record. After they hit their stride at October, the Red and Grey boys just didn’t know where to stop.

Coach Diddle’s notable position is being the only collegian in collegiate basketball who has won five hundred games while at one school and is one mark which is new not only at Western, but in the nation.

If Lewey is left off of many all-American selections, there will be something wrong with the means used in choosing the five best players in the country. His services are going to be missed next year when the Toppers return to the hardwood.

There doesn’t have to be much doubt about the Hilltoppers getting into at least the Invitational Tournament. The only doubt left is who of us outliders will be there they stop.

One game of the OVC has already been played, but at the time I’m writing this, I haven’t heard the results. It was held in Chicago, and I hope for my predictions to be proved wrong. Nevertheless, I predict Evansville over Eastern, Western over TSU, and Marshall over Missouri. Marshall had the most points in the first round. Western and Marshall will go to the Finals, and Evansville will win the consolation game. I’ll try and pick my crop further by predicting the score of the final game. 77-73. But I don’t want to bet on it any of it.

The Physical Education club has certainly done a fine job of instilling at Western’s house games this year. The programs they distribute before each game have helped all of us to enjoy the game much more. Although this has been the club’s first year of ushering, we all hope that it won’t be its last.

One other department deserves special mention whenever one discusses Western’s success in sports. I am referring to the marvelous job done by Kelly Thompson and his assistant Bob Cochran. These men and their staff have provided the press and other interested parties with all the statistics and records needed to make it a pleasure for anyone to write about the Hilltoppers.

The intramural season now in progress has certainly attracted a large number of boys interested in basketball. Such a tournament is a wonderful way to provide students with some welcome recreational activities. There have been some close games already, and it will be worth any student’s time to stop by and watch some of those boys play.

The first-year-four degree class was graduated from Western in the year 1934.

Rifle Team Nips Ft. Knox

At least five former Hilltopper marksmen have successfully made the transition from college basketball to professional, playing successfully. After completing their careers at Western, the former Hilltoppers entered the ranks of pro-ball play.

Only two former Western players are now playing in the same professional team. Dee Gibson and Don "Duck" Ray are regulars for the Tri-City Blackhawks, a team in the western division of the NBA.

John Oltham, the last product of Coach Diddle to play professionally is with the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Zollner's. Oltham is expected to play with the Hoopep Yarn in Fort Wayne. The college basketball teams were represented with an individual trophy. They were awarded Howard W. Jones, Jack Day, Robert Pusner, Joseph Kratz, and Joseph Hook.

Port Knox's team took second place and received individual medals. Western’s second team was third, and Port Knox's second team was fourth. Members of Western's second team were seniors James L. Perkins, Glenn G Auswahl, Milton W. Hood, Joe G. Garman, and Carroll W. Ross.

Broadhead General Thomas L. Harold, Commandant of the Armored School, Fort Knox, was on hand to present congratulatory Captain William P. Debrose, Infantry, officer in charge, and F. McClure on the showing of the Western teams. Major Plucius, adjutant of Port Knox, presented the individual trophies to the five members of the winning team.

Plans are underway for a return match to be fired at Western during the early part of March. If a return match is fired, individual trophies will again be presented to the five members of the winning team.

The rifle team recently defeated the University of Cincinnati in a friendly contest. The score was 2768 Western—0, of C. 2768.

The team will leave March 1 for shoulder match with the Eastern rifle team. The match will be held the following day.

Harpist Gives Chapel Concert

The weekly chapel program on Wednesday morning was presented by Miss Christine Curr—concert harpist, lyre player, and musician.

Since her graduation from Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, Ohio, Miss Curr has been making extensive concert tours of the nation. At the conservatory, Miss Curr earned degrees in both harp and voice, and specializes in appearances before high school and college audiences, but she has also appeared before clubs and international conventions from coast to coast.

Miss Curr presented several vocal solos in which she accompanied herself at first the piano and then the harp. She also made a brief explanation of the history, mechanism, and usage of the harp.

Her program was composed of classic compositions and folk songs which she had arranged herself for the harp.

In the summer of 1950 Western started offering courses for the train of high school librarians.

Dr. Crabbe Heard On WSM Broadcast

Dr. Alfred L. Crabbe, professor of education at Peabody Teachers College, spoke on a special Farmer's Day broadcast over WSM, Nashville, at midnight last Friday evening.

"Memory" was Dr. Crabbe's subject at this 150th anniversary of Peabody.

Dr. Crabbe, who was graduated from the old Western State Normal in 1915, was at one time Western dean. He is the author of several novels, the latest of which is A MOCKINGBIRD SONG AT CHELSEA MUSEUM.

A piano number written by Roy Harris, of the Western music department, was also featured on the program.

Miss Lynn Leaves To Study At Columbia

Miss Justine Lynn, instructor of English at Western, is now on leave of absence from the college faculty to continue her studies in the English field at Columbia University.

Miss Lynn will resume teaching at the beginning of the 1950 summer term.

Pershing Rifles Is Reorganized

Pershing Rifles, national military fraternity and the only recognized fraternity on the Hill, is sponsored by the Ground ROTC. It is open to all freshmen and sophomores of the Air ROTC.

Cadet Robert E. Spillner was chosen captain, company commander; Gene Hout, first lieutenant, company executive officer; Joe Allen, second lieutenant, company secretary; and John Johnson, second lieutenant, company treasurer.

Meetings will be held on Monday for drill periods and in organized drill teams. There were 26 members present Tuesday night.

The regular business meetings will be held on Tuesday nights. At one of the later meetings, a first sergeant will be chosen for the company.

In 1948 the department in which students had majored were: agriculture, chemistry, education, English, French, history, home economics, Latin, and mathematics.

Nan Merriman To Sing

Nan Merriman, mezzo-soprano star of concert stage and radio, will present the Final Community Concert at the current season in Van Meter Auditorium Monday evening, February 27.

Fullbright Scholar Tells Of English Situation

Bill Rudd

D. C. Pergamon, "L. A. M. A." Indiana University, now attending Manchester university in England under a Fullbright scholarship, has recently written Miss Stefie Kubler, head of the history department an interesting letter telling of the political developments in England.

Mr. Pergamon revealed in his letter that he is following the General Election in England. He describes the election kindly by saying: "This contest is a real battle with both major parties putting all their energies into the fray."

He adds, "If the leading speakers do not root across the country in special trains, these British political figures can equal any American counterparts in covering the well-known campaign phrases."

Mr. Pergamon tells of attending the major Labor Party rally of the campaign in Manchester, Prime Minister Attlee being the main speaker. He refers to Mr. Attlee as a "dignified man, whose words are few and solemn."

"The Prime Minister’s manner was more like that of a recruiting profuseness of a rip-roaring politician," writs Mr. Pergamon. Mr. Attlee’s speech was devoted to recalling the accomplishments of the Labor Government in the last four years.

The crowd cheered his reference to the abolition of the Poor Law and the disappearance of the workhouses. The Prime Minister made reference to the unhealthy hospitals in England. He did not promise lower taxes or less controls. In fact, he defended controls as having been the reason for England’s advances in production and for the success of the plan of “Fair shares for all.”

Mr. Pergamon plans to attend the Tory rally on February 26, to hear Winston Churchill speak.

Mr. Pergamon ends his letter with an account of his Christmas visit to London’s historic places. He plans to visit London again before returning to the United States this summer.

Officers To Interview

Kentucky Building News

By Norma Butler

Miss Mae Trigg Stoddard, of Ju- nior, and Mrs. Maurice Black- burn of the library, have presented the museum with a lovely group of gifts for the children and doll collections.

Recently in December, Miss Stoddard and Mrs. Garland called Mrs. Mary M. Trigg, mother of Mr. Gaynor Trigg, on visiting their home, were delighted by a gift of doll clothing which they found. They included various dresses for the dolls and a hospital gown which was bequeathed to Miss Stoddard, Mrs. Garland, Mrs. Trigg, and the Children's Building and Graduation Classes. Miss Trigg donated the costumes of the doctors, parents, Allamont Trigg and his family, and nurses, which were given. The doll took place on December 15. The beautiful ensemble included cream bed dress, cream bonnet dress, a gown and heavily-beaded jacket, and a beauti- ful dress with a front of embroidery, which consists of a coat, bateau, saucer, and overskirt.

The gown was a two-piece wed- ding suit of black satin handsewn and wedding boots. He had a second day suit of black crepe dress. A brown bonnet dress, and brown hand-made slippers which had belonged to Mrs. Trigg before her marriage. The costumes, so typical of that period, have been unusually well preserved and are invaluable to the costume collection.

Miss Stoddard's graduation dress and gown were graduated from Horseshoe High school and were presented to the museum. She had also preserved the bridal gown and tor- tion.

Children's Clothes

Among the collection of gifts were two dolls which had belonged to Allamont Clabaugh and John- son, a dress of Junior, and Miss Stodd- ard and Mrs. Caroline.

A military school cap which had been worn by Junior when he attended Junior Agriculture and Mechanical college, Hazel Arrows is now the University of Kentucky. Among the gifts were a pair of child's button shoes, a pair of black buckles, and a pair of small red-top boots, a white batiste dress with a front of embroidery, and a beautiful batiste dress with a front of embroidery, and a beautiful batiste dress with a front of embroidery, and a beautiful batiste dress with a front of embroidery.

Young Clabaugh Stoddard died at an early age and had black crape mourning veil which will make his mother

34 Girls Enroll For Rifle Team

The girls rifle team has been read- justed this semester by the Ground Officers of the school. In the class and they will be marked according to the mark of the team.

The rifles and cartridge tests will be similar to the test used by the Reg- ular rifle teams. All the rifles were flet and a special medal corresponding to the one given by the Regular.

They are coached by Sgt. Fred- erson H. Phipps and assisted by Private First Class Edward McCaffery.

Fifth Graders Write And Produce Pageant

On Thursday night, February 9, the pupils of the fifth grade at Training School presented a pageant at the Little Theatre.

The pageant, entitled "America— Then and Now", was written enti-tly by the children, and members of the class also played the scenes and costumes.

Miss Ethel Bardwell furnished the background music on the piano, and Mrs. Roger Magruder directed the music and dances. Mrs. C. B. McHale was the soprano and Mr. James Wright was the director. The script was read by Sister Jean Berdener. Each child in the grade had a part in the production, and acted in one or more scenes.

Some of the scenes included in the pageant were the "Continental Con- gress", the "Westward Expansion" and scenes of modern life which included beach-calling, Civil War and early mountaineers, and Western cestival.

The entire program was extremely well-organized. The children played their parts well and the audience, which included parents, friends, the English club, and education classes, were highly impressed by the chil- dren's ingenuity and originality.

professionals.

"It is the loyalty oath..."

"It is a matter of a system which preserves status quo."

"It would not be a proper solution for the difficulty.

"Taking the oath of allegiance would be the best camouflage

for a Communist."

"If I were a Communist, I'd take the oath and then laugh about it.

"It would do as much good as anything, no matter whether he denied it on an exam."

TEACHERS FOR REST

A few teachers said that subversion should be kept out, but not by loyalty oaths. One such comment was made to the effect that;

"An 'act of loyalty' is not what is needed.

But an 'act of confidence' in obtaining the ideas of young students. I think teachers should be fully selected and the question asked in their professional discussions and recommendations.

"This school board should be able to pick out the right persons within the organizational framework."

"Their attitude is that the teacher is to be held accountable.

Our candidate of each faculty member whether he would take such a oath if asked to, answered

"yes," one said "no," and two refused to answer.

"I don't believe in the way they are going with their loyalty oaths."

"Clean up school board business first."

DEFEAT WILDCATS

In the second half Bobich seemed young Demons poured 22 points through the hole which the Wildcats were gathering. The final minutes were hot and furious.

Jim Stowe, high scorer for the night, paced the floorers with 15 points. Bob Walker, substitute Denmark, also scored.
