Hilltoppers Have Big OVC Test Tomorrow At Murray

Western's Hilltoppers will get their first test of the season tomorrow night when they take on the tough Murray Thoroughbreds in the Murray gymnasium at 8:00.

Bill Red will be shooting a 11-1 record as they move on the floor tomorrow night, coming in at the same pace as the Thoroughbreds.

Head Coach Jim Mason, assistant coaches, Dick Jones, Ohio and College of St. Mary, and Murray Mason, Courier, The Thoroughbreds have won only six games this season, with only one conference win to Eastern. Conference play will be finished by the Hilltoppers today at Tech, Evansville, Marshall, and Murray.

Western will out its match victory to win the conference, be the winner of the conference, be the winner of the conference, be the winner of the conference, be the winner of the conference.

The Big Red will be shooting a new winning streak after the Western trip which stopped them, after their impressive win in a 11-1 match. Three big wins for Murray came with the following wins on December 19, 19, and 12. The Redbirds defeated the Mounties, 64-60, and Texas, and ended the season with the Mounties, 60-56, and the Texas, 60-56.

The big guns are the Murray line.

March of Dimes vs. The March of Polio

For the fourth time in as many years, the swelling tide of polio ended this nation in 1961. Like a hurricane, its high-speed blast drove across the countryside, the uncontrollable force of polio which had been responsible for killing some 50,000 people in 1952, with a total of 11,000 persons existing in the previous ten years.

Individually, each of these two years represents a serious set-back in the fight against polio. Collectively, however, the efforts of these three years have shown that polio is a disease to be taken seriously by every community. The cost of these epidemics will be reflected for years to come. Thousands of today's patients will be normal in body and mind, but thousands more will bring a crushing burden upon communities unless MARCH OF DIMES money continues to be made available for the prevention of this crippling disease.

MARCH OF DIMES money lost last year left families struggling with the heavy burdens of polio. Chapters paid off in part by bills for hospitalization and medical care; furnished iron lungs, beds, cribs and special equipment to cover emergencies; were instrumental in bringing skilled nurses, physical therapists and other skilled personnel to the bedside of the patients.

MARCH OF DIMES equipment pools rushed 500 iron lungs to polio patients, part of more than $1,000,000 worth of emergency equipment furnished during last year.

By November, the National Foundation was accruing a huge fund, with sizable bills that would reach approximately $5,000,000 by the end of the year.

The March of Dimes, in its 4th year of service, has been neglected. Hospitals, doctors and nurses cooperated in extending credit for services until such funds reach them. The MARCH OF DIMES has the task of getting the bills paid in the shortest time possible.

One of the most important things to remember is that MARCH OF DIMES is a money-making organization. It has been especially helpful to our community. It is necessary for us to carry on this work if these problems are to be solved.

The March of Dimes has done a great deal for the polio patient. It is necessary for us to continue this work if the future is to be better.

Mind Your Manners

By Evelyn Bailey

The waning hours of this dreary Christmas, December 19, found me draped in coats and Christmas packages, hugging two suitcases toward Western Lunch room to meet an over-crowded and exhausted lunch hour.

By this time most of the student body were well on the way to their holiday homes. The majority of the Western lunch perks looked deserted. But there were a few minutes to look up at the Hill, literally, and to wonder what this school would be like the following September.

All the recognize and consideration having been given to the students, the administration, alumni, and support groups, it is still a question of what question remains, "If it is done, without let or hindrance?"

Without, in students Western is a place where we do not like to do it. Western is a place where we do not like to do it. Western is a place where we do not like to do it. Western is a place where we do not like to do it.

If we want to continue theSame, we must make sure that the same things will not happen again.

All the above suggestions are made to the best of our knowledge and belief. We want from it to be graduated, consistently, individually, the idea that the boy who has done his best will be able to play the part of a useful citizen.

We want to continue the school and the institution on that there is a period of vacancies, at all sports events and a genuine desire that education and American education must exist among students and faculty members.

Most of all, for the good of the group and members and readiness opportunities for preparing to live in the world, for participatting in the world, for learning to be friends, we will remember and treat those.

May these suggestions mean every year's losses of students' rights to vary in the end. Then he can be proud to be one of the students of the class in the country. We want from it to be graduated, consistently, individually, the idea that the boy who has done his best will be able to play the part of a useful citizen.

E. Kelly Thompson Takes Office As Kiwanis Governor

The president-elect, assistant to the president, took office as governor of Kiwanis club of the Kentucky-Tennessee district on October 12 at the Helen hotel. Dr. Red A. Moore was also installed as the dinner meeting's district secretary.

Principal speaker on the occasion was Harper Gaston, Murfreesboro, past president of Kiwanis International.

Prior to his inauguration, Mr. Thompson was in Chattanooga where he participated in the will of Clandice R. Hulahan of Dalton, Kiwanis International president. Mr. Thompson also attended a luncheon on December 11, with the Chattanooga club. The reception of Mr. Hulahan of Chattanooga was given following the afternoon. A rally honoring the international official took place in the evening with which Mr. Thompson introduced the President.

Camel Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 31 ... THE MOUNTAIN GOAT

He thought they were trying to make him the butt-end of a joke when he was asked to judge cigarette mildness with a mere puff of one brand and a quick sniff of another. The fancy footwork didn't dazzle him! He knew that the pinnacle of pleasure comes from steady smoking... and that there is only one test that gives you enough time to permit conclusive proof. Subokes throughout America have made the same decision!

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camel on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No map judgments! Once you've tried Camel for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Thrust, T for Taste), you'll see why...

FACULTY NOTES

Dr. A. M. Stuckles, head of the History department, was honored last Thursday afternoon with a party, honoring his birthday, held at the office of the History department.

Refundments were served to those present: President Paul L. Garrett, Dean E. F. Collins, E. H. Carson, Gabrielle Robertson, Francis An- derson, Dr. James H. Peter and James Whitaker.

Dr. Paul L. Garrett and Prof. Bert R. Smith were among those people attending the funeral of Rep- resentative John Whitaker, of Russ- ell County, of Tennessee.

Mrs. W. C. Gooch, Traveling, of the Western music department, visited her son, Dr. Chester Traveling and Mrs. Traveling during the Christmas holidays. While gone she visited the John C. Campbell Folk school at Brasstown, N. C., and frequented in Franklin, N. C. Dr. Trav- eling is associate professor in the College of Education of the Univer- sity of Georgia.

Miss Elizabeth M. Woods, former- ly of the Western faculty, was honored with a surprise birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard on Monday morning, January 7, 1937. The occasion was Miss Woods birthday.

Miss Woods, now retired, was the former head of the French depart- ment at Western. She also taught German and Spanish. Following her retirement after thirty years of ser- vice, she was in charge of the beauti- ful Western grounds for several years. She now lives at Indian Lake, near Branson, Mo., and has two sons.

A few close friends present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanier.

Staff Sergeant Joe Herod, West- ern, returned to duty at Western after a few days leave during the Christmas holidays which was spent in New York.

ART ON EXHIBIT IN CHEERRY HALL

The January 7th to 25th exhibit in the Art gallery, third floor Cheerry Hall, is entitled "Pleasant Hill." It is presented and is being circu- lated by The Allen R. Rice Art Institute of the University of Louis- ville. The display, including eighteen large photographic posters of this Shaker settlement near Harrods- burg, is presented under the direc- tion of Miss Ruth Hines Temple, head of the Art department at West- ern.

A commentary by Joan McDer- molt accompanies each panel photo- graphed by the Historic American Buildings Survey, Washington, D. C.

The designs and execution are the work of Joan McDermott and Al- fred Zobal. Maps and plans are by Richard Pope.

This exhibit should be of interest to all Kentuckians because two Shaker settlements—one near Har- rodsburg and the other near Aus- burn—are in this state. The United League of Believers, or Shakers, grew out of the Quaker faith, and are well known for the perfection of workmanship and utilitarian desig- ns in their homes.
CONGRESS DERATING

A program of interest to all college students will be presented by the Congress Derating Club at its next meeting, January 18, 7:00 p.m. in Van Meter Auditorium.

"Evolved" that a student government system should be adopted at Western," will be the topic for debate. Leo Magers and Charles Hardacker will take the affirmative side, and the negative side will be represented by Jerry Parker and Jimmy Bryant.

A short business session for the election of officers for the coming semester will be conducted before the debate.

M. STICKLES HISTORY

Dr. A. M. Stickles, head of the History department, was presented with a gift congratulating his birthday at the last regular meeting of the History Club this semester, February 14, in the Kentucky Building.

OPEN HOUSE HELD

Open house was held at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. Ward Bumpster, at 123 Clinton Street, Sunday, June 3, honoring the father of Dr. Bumpster, Mr. Ward C. Bumpster, who celebrated his 90th birthday.

BIRTHS

Arriving two days and two hours early for the new year, a baby girl was born to Capt. and Mrs. Andrew H. Overby of Bowling Green. Andrew Elin, Jr., arrived at 1:01 a.m., Dr. Bumpster was delivered by Dr. J. M. Overby.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal M. Gilmore, Fortumberland, announce the birth on November 25. Mrs. Gilmore received her degree from Western in 1940 and was student advisor in the registrar's office last year.

L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike—Means Fine Tobacco
Gene Rhodes Holds Many Records For Hilltoppers

When Gene Rhodes, the fiery, black-haired guard on the Western basketball team, graduates next June he will leave marks in the 'Topper record books that may continue to be read for some time to come.

Every time Rhodes takes to the floor, for the remainder of the season he will have the record as being the number of variation games participated in by a Western player. He has played in a total of 56 games this season, including the last 24 as a freshman on an excellent Hilltopper squad playing an understudy to All-American John Oldham. In scoring 118 points, that first year the Western fullbackers were convinced this perhaps the speedily Male High, all-stater could fill the shoes of Oldham after the Rhodes skipped the opening game of the season his sophomore year and had been out of the starting lineup since then.

CLASSED as one of the greatest guards ever to be produced by Coach Hinkle in his 28 years as head man here on the Hill, Rhodes is also one of the fastest. There nothing he would rather do than take the ball down the center of the floor on a fast break, sailing through the defense for a basket, or passing off to a teammate for the two points. No one else has to use his record at this time close to 26 states that Rhodes's hands are all over the floor in any game.

A person doesn't have to study the game of basketball to know he's a star. On nearly every pass made he tends to jerk his head to the left as the ball finds its way to him. Failing has never been a problem with him.

THE FINAL game of the year, last season, Gene came through with a thrill for the Western followers that is usually only dreamed about. Behind Bowling Green University, this year's final with five seconds remaining, the 'Toppers took time out on horn and coach Ted Hajek finally designed the final desperation play. The ball was in Gene's hands and Coach Hajek directed Kuhn to clear out of sight, up among the flags, and then stopped straight for the key. Rightly timing the pass the throw went into the basket as it went by. Theactual measured length of the shot was 15 feet which now stands as a record not only for a Western player but also a record in the Sports Arena. No. 830,000.

With 830 points to his credit in four years at Western, Rhodes has a very good chance to break the 1,000 point mark before he ever before accomplished—by a 'Topper guard.

Western Represented

Mr. H. R. Cuss, registrar of Western, was one of the following delegates of college, universities, behind Bowling Green University and church groups who attended the inauguration of the new president of Transylvania college, Lexington, on November 30. Transylvania, being 175 years old, is the oldest college in the Allegheny Mountains.

The main address was delivered by Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, Chancellor of Western University.

The new president, who is the youngest president of Transylvania, being only 31 years old, was given the title of "Mr. America" by President Lain, the immediate past president of Transylvania.

Western Trims Xavier 92-82

The Western cage team made it eight in a row in the Lebanon Athletic on December 16 by trimming the Xavier Musketeers 92-83 before a packed audience of enthusiastic Lebanonites.

It was an enthusiastic crowd because it was the first time this year that the 'Toppers had appeared in Lebanon, and it was the start with the Big Red falling behind 21-26 after less than two minutes to go in the first quarter it looked as if it was going to be anything but good night for the 'Toppers. In that last minute and a half, however, Dick White dumped in two set shots and led the team to a nine point rally which put them out in front at the end of the period 21-21.

By grabbing off two-three of the rebounds in the second quarter and producing point-gaining fast-breaks, the 'Toppers scored 20 points in that second six-minute period which put them on top of the 52-38 score at the end of the half.

At different times in the last half the Musketeers put on a rally which nipped the score. Each time, however, they were cut short by a sharp-shooting Western defense.

With three minutes left in the game and Xavier coming up with nine points, 67-71, White once again threw a one-handed, one-minute jump shot from 15 feet out, and a set-up to Gene Rhodes which clinched the victory.

The Associated Press, led by the Red and Gray with 26 points, White and Dan King were close scores with 19 each. Bill Spott who played a bang up game off the bench totaled ten from the floor and two at the free throw line for 12 points.

Gene Rhodes came through with ten points of four baskets from the floor and two out of two at the charity line.

BearsDown 76-71

Western Kentucky rallied in the third quarter to down the University of Cincinnati 76-71 in the Cincinnati Gardens December 15 to remain undefeated.

The Bearcats opened fast and went ahead of the Hilltoppers 21-14 at the end of the first quarter. Ho-iston and Knarr showed the way for Cincinnati against that quarter.
The second quarter was similar to the first with the Cincinnati team, adding to their advantage, strongly.
The Bearcats led 41-34 at the half.
The great defensive work of Gene
Rhodes helped keep the score close.
The Hilltoppers opened the third quarter in a rush and overtook the opposition midway in the quarter.
From there they went on to hold a 29-42 edge at the start of the fourth quarter.

Western continued to roll at a fast pace and with four minutes remaining were ahead of the Bearcats 74-61. At this point the Toppers cooled and Cincinnati staged a blazing rally to close the gap to 70-71
at the end of the game.

Final scores for Western were Dick White with 26, Dan King 19, Art Speilkeeper 16 and Gene Rhodes
With 11.

In amassing a point total of 89 in their game against St. Xavier prior to December 15, the "Toppers came up with their high for the season up to date. The Marksteiners scored 99 points in that same game which is the most that any opponent has received since the Big Red took off last year.

Although only before in the past five years have the Hilltoppers given up that many points and still won the game.
