Shakespearean Is Chosen For Fifth Anniversary Production Of Players

On April 3, the Western Players plan to present in collaboration with the Upper English Club Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice" as a project of the English department.

The selection was made to mark the fifth anniversary of the organization of the Upper English Club. Shakespearean plays have been selected for the past three years, and the presentation of "The Merchant of Venice" is a continuation of this tradition.

The Upper English Club is planning to work out plans for the collaboration with the Western Players. At the initial meeting of this group cooperation by members of the English club in research, radio, and television was discussed.

This Is America

"Today when men declare to me, "This is America,"
I think again and again, again and again,
And then a hush comes over my thought,
And then indeed I am done with thought.
To think that one man says, "This is America,"
And then another says, "This is not America,"
Then I know that the thought of our business manager, Raymond S. Churchill was well advised.
This was the year accepted for publication in the "Annual Atlantic,"
No democracy is not dead, for THIS IS AMERICA
—the country founded on the freedoms, Democracy though it each man has his own peculiarities, so that necessarily exist.
As Americans we are not a particular race but a varied collection of our blood, our customs, our religion and group on earth.
In this lies at once our strength and our possible weakness, for national unity as a people is the best defense against any time of fear.
The only way you will know who would seek to destroy this country.
That is the fact which we must recognize.
Our people, these enemies, know internal discord in this world and the results of discord can make us weaker, why particular emphasis should be placed on the survival of Brotherhood Week, which is in progress now.

Following Americans are stationed all over the globe today fighting for that world of true and of brotherhood, this Brotherhood Week takes on a magnificent significance. In 1952 the observance is focused on the needs of those in our Armed Forces.
This is one item which, as college students, can afford to give because it is readily replaceable.
And we should keep in mind how with our experiences on the part of the giver.

Observing brotherhood during one week of the year should be the least of our duties.
In this case it is to maintain the unity which we must have. Through each day of every year we must make of brotherhood a reality, for there is a multitude of things which we can do.
For instance, all Americans can deal with people as individuals with out reference to color, creed or race.
We can make friends in all religious, racial and ethnic groups.
We can challenge prejudice and bigoted statements which with certain principles, and we can give example good by living as citizens according to relative and desirable principles which call for fair play and equal justice.

Giving blood at each and every possible opportunity is a less we can do for our Armed Forces.
The work of the Red Cross is to the classroom and all other activities the principles of brotherhood and truly American democracy.
As the times change, the nature of the perhaps we, more than anyone else, should do this.

One of the great lessons of our American heritage is not only the right but also the spontaneous will of people to band together for the creation of what can be done all together for the promotion of the greater good. This is the principle of brotherhood.
This is the essence of democracy.

Mind Your Manners
By Evelyn Bailey

Dining out has come to be a rare occasion on most campuses because of the material drags that an education makes on the college man or woman's pocketbook. When such an opportunity comes along, however, we can look forward to it with anticipation and without any fears for us, by now, know how to act (7)

For instance, the girl knows if she is asked, to suggest a place to dine which is within her contest's budget. She also knows that table service is less expensive than a la carte, and it is usually more sanitary if more than simple dishes on the menu.

It is hoped that we know how to hold our knives and forks and to use them. What a shock if you know how, you are advised to sit, you will not find any table manners before you can ease at the table and and the meal.

One of the most embarrassing tendencies is to let it be know what you are ordering. Rarely does a norm appear that does not be on it or more foreign within the following, which you may or may not be familiar, frequently appears.

Bill Ford, the head of the OVO, will see if you attend the tournament, for the OVO is recognized as one of the main events every semester. The annual tournament has a strong team this year and it will be a great day for all if you do turn up.

Library Receives Books From Taff Collection

A collection of nearly five hundred volumes of economics and sociology books from the library of the late Dr. M. O. Taff, head of the economics department from 1891 to 1931, has been presented to the college library by Mr. Taff.

Dr. Taff was a scholar and a distinguished reader in his field. This fine collection of economics, sociology, banking, and present-day social problems, which was kept in the economics department, will be used to add to the collection of economics books while he had helped to build up in the library.

Always on the lookout for good books, his purchases for his own collection and his recommendations for the college collection have been for the best, the worthwhile. The numerical size of the collection did not appeal to him, but the value of the individual book and the rounding out of the general collection appealed to him strongly.

A bookplate will be selected by the Mrs. T. O. Taff Benevolent club and will be placed in each of the books in this collection.

The radio program originating from the University of Kentucky has been broadcast for about seven years now and is very popular among the students. The program is presented by members of the University staff.

Since January of this year, the style of this program has been changed, which is a sign that something new is in the air for Kentucky. It is a step forward, and the program is expected to be even more popular among the listeners.

A combination of sports news and music is presented on the program, with contributions from various sources. The program features a variety of guests, including sportscasters, musicians, and other personalities from the University.

Cardinals Start Preparing For District Tourney

The College High Cardinals who set to play in the District basketball contest are beginning to prepare for the twelve games which will start with the district at the Berea High School. The district is divided into three sections, which will start after OVO.

Cardinals, under the brilliant coaching of former Western star John Davis, will be in the heat of this meet. The Garden High and Warren County High, which is the seventh district, is supposed to be one of the loudest in the state this year, and it is just about time for the war to start.

Weatherby To Speak At Topper Dinner

The Bowling Green Junior Chamber of Commerce will have a dinner for the 1952 Western Kentucky basketball team on March 7, at the Bowls and Bocce Club. The dinner is an annual affair for the team, and will be attended by several prominent men of this Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

"Democracy In Action" Theme Is Instituted

Newly-elected officers for the Congress Debating Club are cooperating with the speech classes on a different type of program for the March 3 meeting.

Feeling that altering the program in favor of group dynamics and discussion might be more beneficial than random series of speeches, the program of "Democracy In Action" was inaugurated at the February 11 meeting.

The idea is to present in various types of discussion, current problems, current events, and student life today or tomorrow. This type of program was followed some time by Northwestern University and other universities in the Big Ten Conference of the Midwest.

At the organizational meeting held in the Little Theater on Monday evening, February 11, its groups were organized to prepare and present the discussions in whatever format they might choose. The officers of the club cooperating with Mr. Miller, speech instructor of the English department are Charles Jenkins, William E. Rice, and James Myers.

There was also a tentative program set up as the last meeting was as follows:

February 23: Group I, Frank Huynh, Leader, Allen Hendricks, Recorder. Topic: What is the best for the elimination of a Commercial Department? As proposed by West Virginia State College?

March 10, Group II, David Leland, Chairman, Catharine Williams, Recorder. Topic: Should women wear colored shoes or none? What are women's rights?-

March 19, Group III, Bob Gorrell, Chairman, Joan Pfeifer, Recorder. Topic: Should the U.S. have universal military training?

April 1, Group IV, Russell Gazzard, Chairman, Edward Warren, Recorder. Topic: Should we go out and fight (Rhe?)-

The meetings will be held in the Little Theater at 7:15 on the dates mentioned above, and discussion is to be conducted between 7:15 and 7:30.

All the meetings are open to the public and students and members of the faculty and staff are invited.

Mia Slavenska And Ballet Variante To Appear Here

The third concert in the current College Quadrangle Series was presented by the internationally famous pianist and her Ballet Variante of 10 outstanding ballet dancers, who are appearing on the East Coast for the first time. Miss Slavenska was born in Vranac, Yugoslavia. Her training was at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Zagreb and in Paris. At the age of 18 she gave her first gala performance at the Opera in Zagreb with her own dance ensemble.

In 1935 she entered the Dances Cyrillic of that year's Grand Prix and won first prize in competition with the dancers of 10 countries. In 1937 Slavenska toured the world with her own group, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo in Europe, and then sailed to America with them in 1940. Since then she has been in America, with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo for three years, and has organized her own company and appeared in the larger music centers of both the U. S. A. and Canada.

In 1948 and each succeeding year Slavenska has returned in triumph to the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo as guest star of their New York season. Again and again every season and each summer she has danced with them as guest star in the Hollywood Bowl.

Slavenska's supreme success as the star in Hollywood's famous motion picture "Ballletina" was so great that the film has been reissued. The Slavenska Ballet is the largest and most important dance attraction to appear in Beverly Cipem since the famous Andrea Pevny Ballet was presented in 1930 in the All-Star Concert Series.

Cinch Crown With 92-58 Win Over Evansville Aces

Western's Hilltoppers clinched their regular season Ohio Valley Conference championship Monday night with a smashing 92-58 triumph over the Evansville College Purple Aces in the Western gym.

The game gave Western a record of 11-5, and one loss in the OVC. For the season the Hilltoppers have won 20 and lost four, excluding last night's tournament game.

The Hilltoppers took the game against the Aces in the opening game of the OVC tournament. They drew in and out of the upper brackets along with Marshall, Mountaineers and Evansville.

Eastern, Murray and Tennessee Tech drew in the lower brackets. Western had two more season games to play after the tournament. The Hilltoppers will meet Kent State, Winchips, and the University of Evansville.

Last Monday night's game with Evansville marked the last home game of the season.

Last Monday night's game against Evansville marked the last game as Western's for the famous Hilltoppers guard, Great Rhinos. When Rhinos was introduced before the game, told two students and one of the cheering crowd in the lounge, "I'm Western's greatest student ever given to the school." During the game, Rhinos scored 20 points from inside the floor three circles as turned in one of his best performances.

The game was the first of the tournament games. The game was also the last game of the season for the Hilltoppers. Rhinos has now played 11 games in the Western, scoring 25 in the final game. Rhinos was selected 25th in the nation for the award.

Toppers Enter Tournament With Season OVC Title

Dan King leads Toppers In Ninth OVC Victory

A 4-foot-4 head from Paris, Tenn., surely lived up to his name February 12, as he regained supremacy over the Thundering Herd of Marshall.

Dan King led the Hilltoppers to their ninth victory in ten OVC starts by dumping in 12 of 15 shots from the corner and in close, plus five of six at the free throw line for a grand total of 29 points for the evening.

At the end of a high scoring first half, the Toppers trailed the home team 38-30. They managed to come back in the second period, however, to pull into the lead as the half closed 42-36. With King pacing the way the Big Red wound up the third frame ahead 52-36. At this stage of the game the big red lead has 36 points in its corner.

It was another King who almost outscored Marshall in the second half as Didik of Marshall held a 23-25 lead in the third period with 31. In the fourth quarter, King's shooting percentage is 50.7, with player ranked among the top ten in the nation in this department. Marshall is 48 in the nation in scoring.

Spears has pulled down 302 rebounds in his last effort for the Toppers. He has pulled down in 302 rebounds. Reaching fourth in this scoring.

Eastern Breaks Nine Game Winning Streak

On February 8, on Eastern Kentucky's floor at Richmond the Hilltoppers witnessed theichoing of a streak broken at the hands of Mississippi College by the score of 72-61.

In the first loss handed to the Hilltoppers this season OVC play in 1948, the game was tied 39-39 with 3:39 to go. When regulard time expired and two free throws were made by Mississippi, the final score was 52-51 in favor of Eastern Kentucky.

Gene Rhodes has set another mark in the annals of the Western Basketball team. In the game against the University of Kentucky January 26, he became the first player to play 100 varsity games in a uniform. Through game-high total of 171 points, and had started in 91. Rhodes was honored on the front page of the January 26 edition of the Western Kentucky Basketball Record.

Another record was broken by Eastern Kentucky's great guard coach Ed Diddle recently by the "Townie Optimist" of Louisville. He received a plaque as their Man of the Year for his excellent work with the team.

This year's tour marked the ninth time the Hilltoppers have appeared in the state championship. It also happened to be the third time that Coach Diddle had taken an undefeated team out on the East to succeed in all games.

Cinch Crown

Cinched an away game on the road in Tennessee, the Cinch Crown came to the team after a hard-fought battle with the Owls.

The team, led by Bob Black, played a solid game and secured the win with a score of 68-59.

Spring Brings More Sports Contests

Spring has been trying to sneak into the spotlight for the past few weeks. With the cancellation of the winter season due to the bad weather, the emphasis has shifted to the spring season.

The Hilltoppers are currently participating in several sports, including baseball, softball, and soccer. The baseball team has started off the season with a strong performance, while the softball team is on a winning streak.

Marshall Loots 32 Points; Murray is Beaten 97-63

Fifty minutes after the ball game was over fans were still standing around in the Western gym talking about the game they had just seen, and especially of the splendid performance turned in by sophomore Tom Marshon who led fifty points and led the Hilltoppers in a 97-63 victory over the Murray State Racers.

Over in one corner of the gym stood a group of folks from Senior Night, who had come to see Tom play, waiting for their star to come up from the dressing room. When he finally emerged there were the usual handshakes and congratulations, and the typical sight of rivalry.

Best Game of Year

You, indeed, Western without a doubt played your game of the year on this floor last week against Murray. You couldn't have picked a better night to play that game either as the contest meant at least a tie in the conference with the first in the way of first.

Paced by Marshall's 13 of 17 shots from the field the big Red hit 13 as a white 19 in baskets in 35 tries for a percentage of .449 which ranks 4.2 points higher than Murray's. Hall's team outscored Murray 50-40.

In the third quarter with the score 53-38 Marshall hit six straight shots to tie the score up to 65-65 but a point and a half prevailing in the first half. Marshall led 19 points in this period.

After scoring 36 points in the first quarter the Red's came back with 32 more in the first quarter with the reverse playing the last four minutes. The null droped for 17 from the first line minutes to push the score to its final 97-63 score.

THE FLAVOR OF THE MONTH!

Brown's Whitehouse CHERRY ICE CREAM

The flavor in your favor for February is BROWN'S Whitehouse Cherry.

Ice cream that looks and tastes good. A smooth ice cream can be, you'll know when it's Whitehouse.
