Successful Season Closed
By Western Debate Team

The national intercollegiate topic for this year, the Federal-Foreign Relations Act, was a good one for the Western Debaters as they traveled to Murray Tuesday, March 4, for a return match in close to this season's debating.

By mutual agreement, this debate was conducted on a non-discrimination topic, that is, Raymond Craven and Mary Alice Hannah, adopted affirmative propositions for Western, while David Mefford and Thomas Pope upheld negative contentions.

Both schools had been placed in the four-state section at the American Debating Association Convention in February. Raymond Craven and Mary Alice Hannah, both seniors, are expected to be much more experienced in the upcoming tournament season than the other members of the debate team. Their opponents are members of a well-organized four-state division.

Hilltoppers Meet University Of Louisville in First Game Of Nit Tomorrow At 5 P.M.

By TOD OLIVER

Western Kentucky and Louisville will trott out from opposite dressing rooms at 5:00 (central standard time) Thursday evening for a thrilling and exciting preliminary round of the National Invitational Tournament.

It will mark the first time the two teams have met since the latter parted company in 1949 for the last time against Art Spocchia and Bob Lochmuller to open this year's National Invitational Tournament—look out!

The Hilltoppers will have theред for a while in the tourney's first round, but if they lose, they will be back for more in the coming seasons.

This is Western's sixth bid to the National Invitational Tournament, the distribution of being the only team outside of New York City to have ever played six bids. Only St. Johns and Long Island have garnered more Western in invitations.

How is it that the Hilltoppers have fixed in their five previous engagements against the 10-team tournament field and the Hilltoppers lost to West Virginia 34-27 in the championship game after knocking off Denison and Creigh-ton on the road to the title?

Louisville, which defeated the Hilltoppers 55-27 in the second game, lost to Denison 55-27 in the first round.

The Western University Debate Club is a part of the American Universities Debating Council. The team is coached by Mr. Raymond Craven, M.D., a member of the Board of Trustees and member of the American University Debate Council. In the recent tournament, the Hilltoppers won their first three games, lost 55-27 in the second game, and lost to the University of Louisville 65-25 in the first round.

MIND YOUR MANNERS

By Evelyn Bailey

Are you popular as you wish? Do your behavior? If it is "yes" or "no," all the time. Miss Beatrice O'Connell has put in a leave some course for popularity, which will last until the end of the semester. She gives seven points for which one should be popular daily if he is to be popular. In brief, they are as follows:

1. Be yourself—You were an individual, then you become a personality, improve yourself, but don't be yourself a second-class individual. If you want to aim high, don't aim low. You want to be like your group so you go along with it. But you cannot set standards and the courage to state them. The secret is in stating them tactfully.

2. Be sincere—Colleges is the opportunities for here. Be an individual properly as you can, and be your genuine self. You will find a lot of people who will be with you every day when you learn something new every day, but don't brag about it. Use your "sincerity" as a natural—master—fact way of speaking.

4. Be tactful—That is the virtue of being able to say the right thing at the right time. To do this you must be able to control your temper. If you have two sides to your character, you cannot be popular.

6. Be graceful—Good manners, coupled with a kind face and a friendly smile, are the cornerstones of a business. Manners are made up of things, little courtesies. It is always pleasant to be with people who have good manners. To keep it up, you must have your head on straight. And you must be ready to say "please" and "thank you.

9. Be well-groomed—Everyone can be well-groomed, and you must be continually so if you are to be a popular person. You should be happy to brush your teeth, wash your hands, and comb your hair. You must be cheerful and clean. Being well-groomed means also being well dressed in more ways than one. You must be sure of your right make-up and position it carefully. If you mean looking, putting on, putting on and wearing clothing that is not your own, you cannot be popular.

Art Exhibit Features Venice

VENICE, a photographic exhibit presented by the editors of "Life," is being shown at the Art Gallery, third floor of Cherry hall, and will continue for about two more weeks. The exhibition is an expansion of the article, "Renaissance Venice," and is the third to be based on the "Life" articles dealing with the history of Western culture.

For a USC year Venice has been the wonder of travelers. In 1940, the poet Pound wrote: "I knew not if it had an equal within the limits of the world." This exhibition in both text and pictures, supports the Renaissance splendor and opulence and rich commerce - in fact the whole extraordinary history of the city and its art. The exhibition opens with a photographic view of Venice in 1946 as imagined from the air by a Renaissance artist, with the Grand Canal winding like a serpent through the heart of the city. The twenty-five enlarged panels then follow with the story of the fabulous city which enjoyed a charmed life.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 35

THE LARGEMOUTH BASS

Always a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! But he worried his way out when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be tossed off reel lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test - the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camel as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments!

Once you've tried Camel for 30 days in your "Y-Zone" (Y for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...

Camel leads all other brands by billions

College Orchestra To Present Three March Programs

Two of the year's main musical programs on the campus will be presented by the college orchestra. Sunday afternoon, March 13, in Wednesday evening, March 15.

The orchestra will present an all-American program featuring as soloist, Mr. Horace Haas, head of Western's piano department. The orchestra and soloist will combine in the performance of Gershwin's popular "Rhapsody In Blue.

A second feature of Sunday's concert will be the group's new work for har- monica and orchestra by John William "Tom" Wolfe, American. The narration of this piece is drawn from the writing of Wolfe, accompanied by an orchestral background. Rev. Mr. Garrett's name is not selected as narrator.

Other works on Sunday's concert will be "Clancy," a folk portrait by Mitchell, "The Winter's Passion," by Barlow and "Brats on Pleasure Tongs," by Mooney.

On Wednesday evening, March 13, the orchestra will broadcast in a nationwide program over the Mutual Broadcasting System at 8:05. Featured works will be "Thomas Wolfe, American," with Reverend Wolfe as narrator, and "Clancy" by Lyndel Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell is a Western grad, presently completing his doctoral studies at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y.

KENTUCKY BUILDING NEWS

By Seymour Speigelman

The Kentucky Building has recently received four colleges prints by Benjamin Franklin. These are not the first Stricker pictures to come to the Kentucky Building in the War, Mr. Bower said his "Winter in the Valley" to the Museum.

The new prints are members of the "Beaver Creek," "The Museum," "Storm along the Viaduct," and "Post Hill Coral." As soon as suitable frames can be acquired, the prints will be displayed at the Kentucky Building.

A native of Louisville, Mr. Bower spent some time of his life in the western states, and many of his pictures reflect the influence of that period of his life. He was recently given a display in Louisville. His work is discussed later in the art sections of the Sunday, February 21, 1953, and the Sunday, January 11, 1951, art sections of the "COUGLERJOURNAL." Mr. Bower now resides at the Art Colony in Cincinnati, Ohio.

CONGRESS DEBATING
The final term's "Democracy in Action" programs sponsored by the College Heights Courant and the classes in Fundamentals of Speech was held in the Little Theatre of the Library Building on Monday evening, February 11. Almost the topic for discussion was: "What is the basis for the elimination of a Commercial Department from the curriculum of Western State College?" The program was presented in the form of a panel discussion and then followed by an open forum discussion of the question.

Group One, under the leadership of Frank Bures, planned and conducted the program part of the meeting. Members of the group participating in the panel discussion included Charles Arlett, Arlen Hendricks, R. Ir. Williams, Eddie Smit- ter, George Hurdin, Willie Wilson. The second program of the series will be held on March 12. The discussion is scheduled to begin at 7:30 immediately following the business session and group meetings. Group Two, presenting the program on Sunday evening, will prepare a program on "Can you select an occupation without being colored student?" The moderator of the group is Candace Winfrey. The panelists for this occasion are: Joe Pogue, Paul Koonen, Dale Mitchell, Robert Jenkins, and Kenneth Cordon. All of these sessions are open to the public. The number of the faculty and staff are invited to attend. Some of the sessions held and conducted in the above-mentioned sessions have been of a nature that will affect the student's life today or tomorrow.

Hilltopp Captures OVC Tournament; Place Four On All-Tournament Team

By Ted Cryer

The Western Hilltoppers are one of the larger winners of the OVC tournament. A question that certainly arises is whether this is the sign of every "Topper follower" who has attended any final games of the Kentucky boys' basketball tournament, but to think the Hilltoppers will be a new trendsetter in the OVC.

As we well know, the "Topper" fans arrived, and accepted that bid and were ready to play tomorrow night in the Memorial Coliseum, facing the University of Louisville.

Wednesday, April 18. This year’s inspection and presentation of awards will not conflict with any a t h r clauses on the Hill. The awards will be announced prior to April 16.

The FAMC also learned that the AF ROTC program is to be revised and will go under the Air University at Maxwell Air Force Base approximately August 15. The transfer will not affect the operation of the Western unit.

“All major commands of the Air Force expressed their complete sat-faction with the performance of AF ROTC graduates,” said Col. W. V.

These zooms as well as their school have reason to be proud of the quality of service they are giving their country in these days of need.”

ATTEND MEETING FOR TEACHER EDUCATION
President Field L. Garrett and Dean P. C. Griese attended the fourth annual meeting of the Amercan Association of Colleges for Teacher Education held in Chicago on February 21, 22, and 23. For twenty-five years Western has been a member of this organization, which is a department of the National Education Association.

In attendance were presidents, deans, and other school officials from almost every state. Addresses in several groups were concerned primarily with the accreditation of school education programs. Problems concerning the curriculum, student teaching, and graduate study, and evaluation of teach-education programs were also discussed.
