Jaroff Chorus
Gives Colossal Performance

William R. Blackwell

The senior Jaroff Male Chorus and Dancers, the original Don Cossacks, appeared in Van Meter Auditorium Tuesday evening, December 5, in the second presentation of the 1935-36 Community Concert Series.

The group presented a program that thrilled the entire audience. Every man in the large chorus sang as if he were singing only for the joy of singing. The group responded to every mood of Maurice Jaroff, their diminutive conductor whose direction was of colossal attainment whether it called for ethereal plate notes from the tenors or clashing climaxs from the bass section.

The solo voices added richly to the solid background of the chorus and their fifth full tones were ever-cooping.

The gifted dancers, M. M. Serovich and W. W. W. Schiller, displayed a wish enthusiasm as they danced to the accompanying music. Their interpretation of the music and ballet of various composers from the sidetones was delightful.

The Jaroff Chorus, following a three-month tour of Europe, spent Christmas in France and may have been on a trans-continental trip to New York, where they will be heard in Carnegie Hall Tuesday. They also will present a program for a Community Concert Endowment now to be shown in Field Hall while there.

Book Marks

By K. MILLER

"Most every American should read art compiled by Nast and O. E. Goodman with aid of some or more of the hundred educated men and women whose names are in 'Who's Who in Amencn,' and contains, in short, nothing such as Shakespeare's PLAYS, a select and reproduction, plus others furnishing reading pleasure.

Many of these wonderful books are in the college library. If a person really loves books, he will wish he, too, were having his own library of favorites."

The Library, through a proper book list to be begun this month, will give students and others an opportunity to purchase for a nominal sum, second-hand books. There will be duplicates copies of titles no longer needed in our collection, and rather than discard as done in many libraries, it is decided to offer them, for sale. And at twenty-five cents.

The most salivating reward of ownership of books is the companionship one enjoys with great personages, either of the literary, the scientific, or the political. In the company of books, one finds a companion in having books for collateral reading, and finding a book on every subject of interest, finding people where a library may not be near.

Dr. Schell Appointed As Senior Resident

Schwad, in his capacity as a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, has been active in the field of medicine and has contributed to the advancement of veterinary sciences.

quarter ended with the ball resting on Ohio State’s three yard line. On the first play opening the second quarter, Ray Nixon moved even more right tackle and went into the end zone. Stiflers kicked the extra point and Western was on top for good.

Two punt exchanges and the Topper offense again, moving a yard or so, in seven plays, and Jack Bobley made two sensational catches for 11 and 8 yard gains in this drive. The last one, to the 4 yard line, Stifler pulled his way over the right side for the score. Again Stiflers converted and the half ended 14-0 State Comus Bank.

State teams back for the second half with a great determination. After kicking the kickoff, they moved from their 36 in Western’s 34. But here the Indians bogged down and the Topper took over on their 39. Six plays later the men of Chisholm had another marker. The outstanding scoring run of the day oil marked this drive. Taking a hard off on a quick opener, Stevens broke over the left side and handled the secondary and went 41 yards to score. Sanders kick was blocked and the score was 20-0.

The next two Western scores were set up by their quick defensive unit. Initially Bobley Bilyeu was the prime instrument both times.

Recovering a State pass on his nine yard line, he intercepted and threw to Diney for an 18 yard return. After connecting on passes good for 9, 18, 3 yards, Wilson kicked the remaining two yards to score.

With the next 15 minutes Bilyeu intercepted another pass, this time in the end zone. Unheeded, Tom Riedman grabbed one also and both failed gains drove.

With seven minutes remaining in the ball game, Bilyeu took a punt on Arkansas’ 40 and returned it 60 yards for a first down on the Hogs’ 30. Goodman for 8 yards Watson went up the middle for the remaining 12 yards, carry a defender into the end zone with him.”

Clayton (climbed) the field with reserves. Then State marched 67 yards for its second score. State’s first ground gainers en route to the end zone, included a 20 yarder by Brown who handled the secondary and, after a couple of misfiring passes, he was intercepted on the eight yard line.

The Topper quarterback quickly stamped the ball on the 14 yard line and a couple of runs by Wilson and Mason, and a couple of passes to Hillman and Mason kept the ball on the line. Then Wilson went all the way and the score was 28-0.

The team won’t be back for a game in the home gym until January 8, but that doesn’t mean we should forget about them all together. It is close to games where the school spirit is really needed, and they like the spirit and enthusiasm and lookin’ that can come from the students just as much as the football players do.

Rooters Send Team To Murray With Cheers

The Western football players were sent off on Friday, Nov. 23, for the Murray State games with more than just good wishes. Festivities began with a bonfire where many enthusiastic rooters gathered out, with happy encouragement to the cheerers of the Hill. The band played the school song and led the formation of the turning and twisting shake dance.

Although it was to be the last of the regular season play, it would not have been known by the performance that was witnessed by the crowd of onlookers.
