President Paul L. Garrett

The 17-year-old son of doctors attending Dr. Paul L. Garrett at the Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital, who was killed in a car accident recently, is a 17-year-old senior at Western Kentucky State College.

Dr. Garrett suffered a fractured right hip in a fall in the driveway of his home. He was hit by a car in mid-stride.

The Western President, who suffered a severe concussion, was transported to the hospital in a private ambulance. The hospital staff said he was not expected to survive.

The President's accident occurred at 3:30 p.m. on May 17. Dr. Garrett was taken to the hospital and was reported in serious condition.

The hospital staff said they were optimistic about his recovery.

The Western President, who was an active member of the ROTC program, was reported to have been involved in an automobile accident while returning from a ROTC meeting.

The accident occurred on the outskirts of Bowling Green, near the University of Kentucky campus.

The President's car collided with another vehicle, causing him to be thrown from the car.

He was taken to the hospital by ambulance and was reported to be in stable condition.

The hospital staff said they were optimistic about his recovery.

The President was a member of the ROTC program at Western Kentucky State College, where he was involved in various activities.

Accident Prevention

The year 1953 saw more than two million casualties in work places and highways. More than 100,000 people were killed and 3,141,000 injured in 1953. Traffic deaths increased 800 and injured jumped 60,000 over 1951.

The committee on accident prevention from previous statistics continued unheeded in 1953. Excelsior speed was the most dangerous driving mistake again last year. Speeding over 70 was listed 18 times more frequently than any other cause. Three of four auto accidents happened to people driving over 60 miles an hour, and 80 per cent of vehicles involved in fatal accidents were travelling straight ahead. The death toll increased for the fourth consecutive year.

There are hundreds of splendid safety organizations in this country dedicated to safety education. Many of these organizations do their best efforts in this direction at considerable expense. In hundreds of communities, civic clubs have taken on the job of spreading safety information and education. State and community authorities have spent millions of dollars for the provision of safety devices and better roads and highways. Driver training programs at all age levels are almost nowhere safer and safer driving habits are being taught in the education and business fields. It appears to us that almost everyone is concerned with this needless slaughter and its accompanying waste of human and property values.

Almost everyone, that is, but the drivers.

The problem starts and could readily end with the drivers of the cars.

Each one of us knows the answer to that question. Let each one of us promise these few simple rules to him or her self and practice them:

1. Always pay strict attention to the highways.
2. Do not walk back to the weekend as a time for rest and play. We can enjoy on our golf games, work around the house and have some fun with the kids. But we also have another responsibility to church, watching television, listening to the ball games or visiting or being visited by friends.

3. The sun sets and the horses are fed. Never drive after the sun goes down.

4. Keep the roads safe and clean. Do not throw trash on the highways.

5. Do not drink and drive. The highway is supposed to be a place for fun and safety and not for cars and fences and red skies.

The highways are open to everyone except the drivers. In 1953, 15,400 persons were killed and 38,000 were seriously injured, according to figures compiled and recently released by the Travelers Insurance Companies. Forty per cent of the deaths and 52 per cent of the injuries were recorded on Saturdays and Sundays in 1952.

Saturday continued to be the most dangerous day of the week. One reason that more cars are in use Saturday night is that more people are at home. There is a distinguished feature which sets this day apart from the others. For too many people, Saturday night is a time when drinking and driving combine. No one knows exactly how many traffic accidents are caused by drinking drivers but everyone knows it is a major problem. Everybody needs to know that even one drink before driving is too many.

The highways are a line of rest. For too many they are the beginnings of permanent read.
How the stars got started.

Record Number Attend State Music Festival

Over 300 performers from high schools participated in the Annual Kentucky State Music Festival which closed here last Saturday with performances by 23 bands.

"The record number indicates music remains on the ascendency in Kentucky," said Claude E. Ross festival director.

There were 255 different performances during the annual three-day festival. Dr. Frank G. Wimmer, head of the Music Department, said that the quality of performance showed a marked improvement over recent years.

Miss Sylm Stonerock, of the Fore- sign Language Department, also participated in the festival, and said that the music department has been invited to select the best of the five institutes that he inspected. The Colonel indicated that many new ideas were developed on the trip that will help better operation of the ROTC unit.

The inspection trip through Virginia was taken during the fall apple blossom time. Many interesting people were met on the trip including a photographer from Life Magazine and an old college classmate.

What makes a Lucky taste better?

WHY do thousands of college smokers from coast to coast prefer Luckies to all other brands? BECAUSE Luckies taste better.

WHY do Luckies taste better? BECAUSE Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted!"-the famous Lucky Strike process—brings fine tobacco to its peak of flavor...tones up this light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better—cleaner, fresher, smoother.

SO, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Enjoy the better-tasting cigarette—Lucky Strike.

Open Shop Scheduled For June 2

By Owen Lawless

The Annual Industrial Arts Open Shop Program is to be held Wednesday, May 4, 3:30 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. and Thursday, June 3, 12:00 noon to 3:30 p.m. in the Industrial Arts Building. Open Shop, held for the purpose of displaying the work of the department's major's and minor's sponsors is sponsored by the Arts and Crafts Club. The practice of presenting these displays began in 1933. All visitors will be given souvenirs and will also be allowed to register for one of the three door prises. The first prize is to be a table lamp made from maple, the second prize will be a steel saw, and the third prize is a wrought iron magazine rack. The souvenirs will be a puzzle. Winners have not to be present to receive the prizes, all of which have been made by members of the Arts and Crafts Club. Projects which will be on display for the visitors to see will include displays in bench woodwork: oak- wood work, pewter metal, machine shop, farm shop, tourist shop, printing, mechanical drafting, architectural drawing and projects con- structed by the high school department.

Visitors will be escorted through the various departments by members of the Arts and Crafts Club, under the supervision of Mr. T. C. Moore, Industrial Arts teacher. Hours will be from 12:00 noon to 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 16. Her subject was, "Interesting Facts From Argentine Buenos Aires."
Orchestra To Present Concert Sunday

For its final concert of the year, the Western College Orchestra will present the annual Concerto program this coming Sunday afternoon at 3:30 P.M. in Van Meter Auditorium. The students for this program were selected by the Music Department faculty during tryouts held earlier this semester. Those chosen to perform are Jean Jennings, Pat Mastriclo, Bill Miller, Caesar Riedel and Jane Skinner. Jean Jennings is a freshman Music Education major from Rensselaer and a former pupil of Mrs. C. T. Cowan. Her present teacher is Dr. Emil and she will perform the first movement of the Mendelssohn piano concerto in C minor. Pat Mastriclo, senior Music Education major from Racine, Pennsylvania, recently appeared as soloist at the Kentucky Music Educators Association meeting in Louisville. He is a student of Mr. Bennet in Chicago and will play the first movement of the Concerto for Trumpet and Organ. Bill Miller, senior Music Education major from Bowling Green, is one of the leading soloists in the orchestra's production of "Laurel and Hardy" at Western. On Monday of this past week he gave his senior recital in the Student Union. A student of Mr. Robert Pearson, he will sing the "Credo" from Verdi's "Requiem." Caesar Riedel is a senior Music Education major from Laundale, Pennsylvania, and is one of the Music Department instrumental music assistants. He is a student of Mr. Donald Hebbel and will play the first movement of the Concerto in E flat for Clarinet.

Jane Skinner, senior chemistry major from Clayton, Arkansas, is the daughter of Dr. J. T. Skinner and a former member of the Western Chemistry faculty. Miss Skinner is in concert recital of the College Orchestra, a student of Dr. Carpentier and will play the first movement of the Violin Concerto No. 9 in A major by Beethoven.

Hilltopper Baseball Team Wins Four Games In A Row

Western's baseball team went off with the honors in the last four games played this spring as they beat Tennessee Tech 3-2 in the only conference game, Evansville 9-4, and Belmont twice 12-9 and 8-7 in a home and away series.

In the first contest it was Bob Daniels picking his way to the victory for Western, although he was in trouble several times during the game, he pulled out of it each time.

Shortstop Jerry Nanzano led the Western batters with two singles in three trips to the plate. He also handled his chances in the field.

He also started a double play in the eighth inning to tag a Tech runner that was cut short at one run making the final score 9-4 for the Hilltoppers.

Despite the fact that nine men were walked in the Evansville game by pitcher Jim Gansell and reliever Shirley Prichtett, they still allowed only one hit in the game called at the end of eight innings on account of rain.

Gansell didn't allow a hit in the 8-7 innings he pitched, but was relieved by Prichtett when the former walked two consecutive bas-see by one of the mostipated scores ever recorded in any track meet at the stadium.

The Topers won every one of the 14 events and scored a clean sweep of all points in nine of them. Lynn Cole again was the big point-maker with 16 of the points in the pole vault and high hurdles and a tie with teammate Proty Ahl in the high jump.

Veget Vetsme, unbeaten in the mile this year, won that event and an incidentally shortened two-mile also for 18 points. Officials left a lap in the two-mile and it turned out to be just a mile and a quarter.

EASTERN II - WESTERN 1
Coach Turner's track team came within a hair of leading the OVC before they dropped a hard fought battle to Eastern 50-49.

Western had previously beaten Tennessee Tech by about 20 points. It was the first dual meet loss for T. P. L. in two years.

Lynn Cole again came through for the Topers as he won the first four events in the pole vault, high jump and high hurdles for 13 points.
