4000 Musicians Are Playing for 20th Talisman Ball

By DON BELL

Royalty will return tonight to the Hill in celebration of the 20th annual Talisman Ball, which will be held from nine until one in the Student Union Building. Tickets are $2.00 a person and may be purchased from any senior or at the door.

Twenty-five Talisman kings and queens, elected from 1929 to 1954, have been invited as special guests in the formal dance. They will sit at a dinner given by the Talisman staff before the ball. Several of the former kings and queens have selected theme items and plans for this evening. Special arrangements will be made for them. Guest re-entrance is $1.00 for those who wish to return for the dance following the coronation of the 20th Talisman king and queen.

A list of all the Talisman kings and queens follows. They are, listed in order of their names and of their crowns. The names in brackets indicate the year of their coronation:

Construction Of Two Dorms Will Begin By September

Construction of two men's dormitories at Western will be started not later than September 1, unless unforeseen circumstances develop, college officials announced last Saturday.

E. Kelly Thompson, acting president, said that the dormitories, which will be on the south campus, would be completed within two years. They are planned to accommodate a student body of 3,000 to 4,000, he said.

The State Property and Buildings Commission at Frankfort has approved plans for construction of the dormitories. Funds are expected to be released soon.

Construction of the dormitories, which includes the purchase of land and improvements, will cost approximately $1,300,000. The federal government will contribute $450,000 to the cost.

VARSITY VARIETIES SLASSED TUESDAY

The "V" Club will present the annual fall Varsity Variety Show tonight for the 20th Talisman Ball.

The show will be held in the Student Union Building tonight, May 3, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The show will include several musical numbers, several vocal numbers, a juggling act, a dance number, and a magic act.

The show will be directed by Don Bell and sponsored by the Student Senate.

Welcome To Western

Western extends a hearty welcome today to those more than 4,500 students who have earned the opportunity to take part in this year's Fall HiIltops.

The students and faculty members are at your service during this weekend to help you make the best of your experience. Western is here to see that you will enjoy your stay on the Hill and plan to make Western your choice for college work.

Each registered student is eligible to receive information on placing in the campus for the State Hilltops increases. The entire college joins with the music department in being a part of the program made by the students and the increase in music interest throughout Tennessee.

We wish each of you the best of luck in the festival and hope that this year's meeting is a great success.

A favorite annual event, the Contemporary Music Festival concert has been held recently on campus.

The program included original compositions by students, faculty members and members of the music faculty of the Tennessee Colleges League, including William Linn, Richard Hunt and积蓄 assorted instrumental ensembles.

The Contemporary Festival is an outgrowth of the spring Festivals of Contemporary Music which were conducted for many years by Professor Frances R. May.
Portrait Of Dr. Stickles Now Hangs In Cherry Hall

An oil portrait of Dr. A. M. Stickles, former head of the history department, has been hung in room 310 in Cherry Hall.

The portrait was done by Joseph B. Cochran of Brooklyn. A.T. Stickles, who has studied in New York and has done portraits of many local people. He has done a portrait of James E. Polk for the New York Historical Society and one of Andrew Jackson, which hangs in the Mansion House at Nashville.

This portrait is a result of a movement started by Dr. James H. Petree, head of the history department. It was made possible by contributions from former students, faculty members, friends, and present A. M. Stickles History Club members. Dr. Stickles sat for the portrait last October, and it was completed that month.

Dr. Stickles, head of the history department for 46 years, retired from active teaching this past summer. He completed the longest service record and instructor on the Western faculty.

In 1908, he arrived at Western with Dr. J. M. Williams to establish the first university in Missouri.

Western's Schabbard And Blade Unit Roted Best In District

District V Advisor, Bella F. Robert, of Cherokee High School, from Chicago, Wednesday, to attend the Southwest High School Meeting, Wednesday night to inspect the Choir of Schabbard and Blade. Mr. Roberts says this unit is the best in his district, yet Western's unit is the newest.

The unit is commanded by Capt. John W. Bagley.

Varsity Varieties

by Leonard Boff, Donna Monroe, Page Webb, Shirley Chandler, Dar-im McLean, Bob Hensley and John "Ted" Richardson.

Imitations and pantomimes will be presented by Leon Deming, Tynan Patterson, Wayne Dunbar and Charles Francis Musterly.

Bill Shrum, J. V. Flinn will present different imitations.

Plays have been donated by local business organizations.

Debate Is Tomorrow

The intercollegiate round Robst debate tournament will be held Tuesday in Peabody 315.

Col. George Sibbald, Army PMR, by H. B. McAdams, and Floyd McElhiney, of the ROTC staff, will argue the motion.

The debate will be given a high place by Raymond Gravva, debate coach.

Plans Made For Baptist Student Center On Hill

A modern student center for the benefit of Baptist students at Western and Bowling Green Business University will be built here this year by the General Association of Kentucky Baptists.

Plans for the project, similar to others to be carried out at Eastern and Murray State Colleges and University of Louisville, were made public recently.

The association has purchased from Mrs. M. C. Lankton the lot at 110 and State Streets for $16,000.

A general construction contract to be let in May as work on the $30,000 building, a necessity fund affair, is scheduled to be started in June and completed in ample time for opening of the fall term.

Only the first of two planned stages of the building is to be built now. When completed, the two mills will form as "Lawn." The building will contain an auditorium with a seating capacity of approximately 100. There also will be a kitchen, two offices, a combination store and "Lawn.""

Last Production Given Wednesday

"The Twelve Peson Look" a contact play by J. M. Harris was presented Wednesday in the Motor

Auditorium by the Western Players.

This was the last of the annual productions to be presented by Western Players this year under the joint sponsorship of Augusta Lyne of the English department.

The characters portrayed by the leading characters done by Jay Reddy and Jean Tipton show the masterful artistry of Harris as director. Everyone who attended "Twelve Peson Look" wants to know when the next one will be put into the play by the Players.

When the campus queen beside you murmurs, "Gosh, I'll never pass.......

then turns to you and whispers, "Will you help me after class?"

Herald Editors, --Continued

As a social science major, he received an AB degree from Western in 1930. He has since worked on a master's degree at the University of Kentucky. At Western he was president of the KPA, president of his junior class, editor of the yearbook, Talisman, and field representative for Dr. R. H. Cherry for one semester and a summer term.

He is a past president of Women's Alumnae Association, and later, of the Class of 1952 for the Herald for more than twenty years and is a member of the Board of Directors of the University of Kentucky Alumni Association.

Mr. Hornback is married to the former Daisy Bell Rice, of Green-cille, a 1928 Western graduate. Their son, Raymond Rice Horn-back, is a junior at the University of Kentucky School of Agronomy.

Charles F. Patterson, 1955-56

Serving on the Herald longest is former editor Charles F. Patterson, now an assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Western University's Southeastern Center, Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Patterson, AB '55, majoring in English, became the youngest managing editor of the KPA when he was just a sophomore and received an MA from the University of Kentucky. He is now a member of the Western Graduate Club and the English Club.

Since graduation, he has served as assistant to the dean of students from 1955-58, and as a teacher of English at Louisville Male High School from 1958-59. From 1942 until 1946 he was a major in the U.S. Army. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Patterson, Bowling Green, he married the former Olivia Ruth, AB '40. They have one son, Benjamin.

Joseph R. Laferty, 1932-33

The second, and longest serving, Herald editor, Joseph R. Laferty received his AB degree in 1933 and did postgraduate work on a master's degree. He is now doing experimental work on the Cape Cod Experiment Farm.

While attending Western, he was a member of the debate team for three years, and in his junior year, Laferty was the managing editor of the Herald in 1932 before leaving Western. In 1942, he took top honors as graduate of Army Air Force Paramedic School, Lowery Field, Denver.

He was admitted to the Kentucky Bar in 1931, and served as information chairman for the Kentucky Production and Marketing Administration, during World War II, when he served with the rank of major in the Army Air Forces.

Last September, he was married to Mrs. Ruth Hole Phillips, of Durham, N. C.

John R. Thomas, Jr., 1922-24

Following Mr. Laferty, John R. Thomas, Jr., the 1927 Herald editor, is a naval officer, living in Falls Church, Va.

Prior to the Navy, he taught English at Cosmopolitan High School, National Ball and Musical Training High schools in Louisvi-le. A history and English major, he received his AB degree in 1924 and was awarded the Trustees' Medal. He obtained his certificate from the University and has done further graduate work at Indiana University, George Washington University,

William Floyd, 1951-52

Succeeding Mr. Bone as editor of the Herald was William Floyd, of Dawson Springs, KY, a First Lieutenant, C. G. Air Force, stationed at Tachikawa Air Base, Japan. He is a C-124 Globemaster.

An English major, he received an AB degree from Western in 1950. He completed U.S.A.F. Flight Training in December, 1952. At Western, he was a Distinguished Military Student and Outstanding Senior AFROTC. He was named to Whose Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Mr. Floyd, the former Betty L. Hestain, who graduated Western, and their son, Robert, also reside in Japan.

Bob Richardson, 1952-53

Bob Richardson was the next editor of the Herald. He is a history teacher and yearbook advisor at Valley High School, Jefferson County.

In addition to his duties as Herald editor, Mr. Richardson was also art editor for the 1953 Talisman. He was named to Whose Who in American Colleges and Universities.

He was graduated from Western with an MA degree in English in 1953 as a scholastic honor student having a 3.2 average in all standing. He plans to do graduate study in Texas. Both were recent visitors on the Hill.

Judy Koch, 1954-55

Present editor of the Herald is Judy Koch, another scholastic academic editor major from Louisville. She will receive her bachelor's degree June 2.

In addition to her duties as Herald editor, she is Club Editor of 1963 Talisman and a member of the Education Council. She is also listed in Whose Who in American Colleges and Universities.

She was student speaker at the Western K.E.E. A. Breakfast in Louisville.

Miss Koch recently received a scholarship in elementary education at Peabody College, Nashville; and a research scholarship in journalism at the State University of Iowa. Iowa City, for graduate study leading to a master's degree. She plans to do free lance writing this summer and enter the University of Iowa in September.

College High Reached Debate Semi-Finals

The College High debate team reached the semi-finals of the state debate contest held April 18-19 in Lexington, winning in Mayfield which went on to capture top honors.

The team was awarded a superior rating by the judges, which included Joe Dits, Allen Flanagan, Patte Perte, and Tom Harris. Judy Ward, excellent in junior high debate and of prose reading, Jerome Stewart, fourth in the field of nine in prose reading, both junior and senior, were sold out to the team.

Four hundred and fifty-four competed in speech events.

Advertising Managers Are Masters Of Selling And Footwork

Advertising managers are as essential to a newspaper as type and ink, and are concerned with bringing ads of all the copy collected by the advertiser. A term no one would ever wish to perish.

The job of an advertising manager doesn't stop after he signs a contract. It is the job of the editor to make sure the contract is fully guaranteed. The advertising manager's job is to make sure that editor to most readers because he is the one who works behind the scenes and newspapers. To his impress, no pieces of ‘footwork’ and a certain selling knack which may never be understood.

All members of the College Heights Herald are interested in the activity of the advertising managers. They are the ones who do what they said they would do in the following years. Usually they are the ones who are told about those who re-supplied to the advertising managers.

William Allen Hughes, As 98, has been a doctor of Chiropractic in private practice in the United States since 1964, residing with his wife, Frances C. Allen Hughes. A WHOLE CABOODLE OF LUCKY DROODLES!

A WONDERFUL SLANT on smoking! You'll find it in the Droodle above, titled: Tourist enjoying better-tasting Lucky Strike while leaning against tower of Pisa. If your own inclination is toward better taste, join the many college smokers who prefer Luckies. From any angle, Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Little wonder that Luckies tower above all other brands in college popularity! (CINODOLK, Copyright 1934 by Ruppert Public Relations, Inc.)

By since 1940 except during the latter part of World War II when he was called to active duty, and Surratt Cuthbertson took over his duties.

Prior to 1940, W. J. "Uncle Billy" Cravath, retired placement director, was a Herald sponsor. Henry Clay Anderson was director during the first days of the paper.

Mr. M. H. Jackson, mechanical superintendent at the Park City Daily News, supervised the make-up of the first Herald, just as he did the latest, least exciting.

The Herald staff is headed by an editor-in-chief, Judy Koch, and an advertising manager, Byron Watkins.

rugs and gave up any hope. George Henry was the coach.

Jim Richards hit a home run for the Tops with Virgil Huffman aboard.

For the winners, McAdams started on the mound for Elkhorn and gave way to Clayton in the seventh inning. Murphy caught the entire game.
