HEY DROOIDLE BUGS! HERE'S ANOTHER BACH!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

YOU GET A GOOD CLOS-E-UP OF Luckyes's smothers' preference for Luckies in the Drooidle at right, captioned: Lucky Strike column in a college cigarette-vending machine. On campuses all over America's college students automatically get Luckies. Why? Simply because Lucky Strike tastes better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better...

Don't carry two strikes before you bat.

Shirley Chandler, freshman from Scottsville, will play the part of Curtia Cumnias in the production of "Oklahoma" to be given by the Festival Music Theater in Fort Wayne, Ind., June 29 through 30.

The Theater sent a form for talent hunters, dancers and actors to work with the summer music scene. Miss Chandler applied, went to Fort Wayne to audition, and a few days afterward was accepted. In addition to starring in different roles, she will receive instruction under the best instructors.

John Nell, choreographer and dance director, will have Miss Chandler and other dancers on his payroll in future productions. Other productions will be "Better Sweet," "Curtia Cumnias," and "Peter's Raincoat.

She is an active member of the Western Players and has appeared in "Wings and Menace," "The Moon in the Garden," and "Diplomats." She also teaches tap and ballet classes on the Hill. But she is a drum majorette for the Western band.
