Dr. A. L. Crabb

Dr. A. L. Crabb, noted author, speaker, teacher and one time president of Kentucky State, spoke to an audience at the College Heights Herald on October 11, 1954. Dr. Crabb discussed his recently released book, "A History of the University of Kentucky," the story of a community growing from a settlement into a modern town.

Using local characters, the novel emphasizes, according to the speaker, the principal that strong men and women are necessary to develop history so that the novel must not distort history.

Dr. Crabb expressed his appreciation to the students for their assistance in writing his book and invited the attendees to the many events of Western for their inspiration in his life story.

An alumni of Western in the class of 1910, Dr. Crabb is the author of ten historical novels published in the U.S. and abroad. In September, 1989, the author was editor of the first Western doll, "Western Doll," in 1889.

To President Thompson

It is not a common practice to devote an editorial to one particular person, but there are times when it becomes so necessary, that the editor can do no less.

The College Heights Herald, as a representative voice of the students, desires to express its hearty congratulations to you, President Thompson, on your appointment to the presidency of Western State College.

It is, in a way, a selfish motive that leads us to make this appeal to you, because as a college, we know that you have been fully equipped to undertake the responsibility of this position, and, as an administrator. We realize that we have as president a man who is thoroughly imbued with the ideals and aspirations of Western. Those are not simple compliments designed to flatter, you have already proved your worth to the students of this institution.

In the time that you have served as acting president, you have not only demonstrated your ability to govern, but also your commitment to the betterment of Western. Those are not empty promises, you have shown that you are a man who can deliver on your promises.

The test of a real man is the life he leads at home, and your family is a tribute to you. They are a reflection of your character, and it is heartening to know that your family is as capable as you in the office. As the president's family is a part of the school, we are proud to have your family represent us.

We are proud of you, Mr. Thompson, and we pledge our love and support to you as you make Western the greatest school in the South.

The museum has recently obtained a number of important collections, including a collection of the late Mrs. Lena Duffaut's art work and a collection of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green of a few other notable collections. The museum is the most ambitious project of the year.

Surely the best of all of the collections is the one that belongs to our music faculty. It was a work of art, and it was a joy to everyone who was present. The students were all present, and they seemed to enjoy the music that was played. The music faculty is the most successful of all of the collections, and it is not surprising that they continue to excel in their music studies.

It is not true that the famous Brownsville High School is being rescued by the students. The striking is over. The students have been able to preserve their old school, and they are now enjoying the luminous prospects for a new school.

The student Music Ed Club is planning a vocal and instrumental show in the lounge at the Music Hall on December 1. This year's Music Ed club will be under the direction of President W. B. Thompson, professor of music.

The students were selected by John W. Garland, Martha Henry, John Babe, Martin L. Johnson, John Chamblin, Bertha Gifford, and John C. Haggard. The show will be presented by the music faculty and the students of the Music Department.

The membership of the Western Student Association includes the following: Dwight Rhodes, John C. Haggard, Bertha Gifford, John W. Garland, Martha Henry, and John Babe.

Why do more college men and women smoke Viceroy cigarettes than any other filter cigarette?

Because only Viceroy gives you 20,000 filter traps in every filter tip, made from a pure natural substance - cellulose - found in delicious fruits and other edibles!

1. Yes, only Viceroy has this filter composed of 20,000 tiny filter traps. You cannot obtain the same filtering action in any other cigarette.

2. The Viceroy filter wasn't just whipped up and rushed to market to meet the new and skyrocketing demand for filtered cigarettes. Viceroy pioneered. Started research more than 20 years ago to create the pure and perfect filter.

3. Smokers on mass report that filtered Viceroy's have a more flavor even than cigarettes without filters. Rich satisfying, yet pleasantly mild.

4. Viceroy draws so easily that you wouldn't know, without looking, that it even had a filter tip ... and Viceroy costs only a penny more than two more cigarettes without filters!

That's why more college men and women smoke Viceroy than any other filter cigarette ... that's why Viceroy is the largest-selling filter cigarette in the world!

President
Thompson
Speaks At Chapel

"Our heritage is a spirit ... It says, 'Love.'" said President Thompson, in his remarks to a packed afternoon chapel assembly on Wednesday, October 31. Chapel attendance is traditionally very high on this campus, as the students look to take a break from their daily activities and reflect on their purpose in life.

With those words President Thompson summed up an appearance before the student body at Chapel in Van Andel Auditorium. Thompson talked about the importance of having a spiritual foundation in life, and how planning, work and devotion can lead to a fulfilling life. He also emphasized the need for students to be involved in the life of the institution, to have a sense of community and to contribute to the growth and development of the college.

Introduction to a standing ovation, Thompson pointed out that 500 students promised nothing "specialistic" from religious perspectives, but rather a "sense of love." He went on to say that "nothing is sacred to a college student unless they feel that they are part of the institution." He encouraged the students to be involved in the college's life and to strive to contribute to the growth and development of the college.

Thompson then told the assembly that the pledge of support—"in the form of telegram, letters and phone calls"—which have poured in the office since he was elected President on Monday "are the first sign of responsibility and appreciation." He asked the students to keep this in mind and to continue to support the institution.

"This is our heritage, our spirit, our foundation," he said. "We are the college, and our college is the students." The president pointed out that in order to maintain the college, students must be involved in the college's life and contribute to its growth and development.

He concluded his remarks by saying, "We are the college, and our college is the students." He encouraged the students to continue to support the institution and to strive to contribute to its growth and development.

Thompson is Named President

At the end of his first year at Western he was employed by Dr. H. H. Cherry, then President of Western, as a faculty representative for the college. This was the actual beginning of his connection with Western Kentucky State College. In 1931 he married Sarah Pearce, a Bowling Green girl.

Kelly Thompson has spent 26 of his 40 years at Western. He entered Western in the fall of 1928. During the first two years he was employed by Dr. H. H. Cherry, then President of Western, as a field representative for the college. He worked for Western and his school. He was employed for 1947-48 and continued his public relations duties. In 1947 he received the M. A. degree from Western.

Long an active member of the Bowling Green Kiwanis Club and in the activities of the Kentucky-Tennessee District of Kiwanis International, Thompson was elected Governor of the District in 1956 after having twice served as Lieutenant Governor of the District's Division II.

Because of his extensive work in public relations for the college and his new association with Western Kentucky State College as well as his work in Kiwanis, Thompson has become known throughout the nation.

During the 25th anniversary of Thompson's employment at Western, he was granted a year's leave from Western to organize and put into operation a public relations program for the Indianapolis, Indiana, baseball club of the American Association. Once the program was fully under way, he returned to his post at Western in 1959.

Thompson very successfully managed the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament which was held in 1952. Thompson was a member of the K.I.A.C. Board of Directors. In 1948 when the Ohio Valley Conference was formed, Thompson was appointed the public relations director of the conference.

In addition to his management of the annual Ohio Valley Conference tournaments held in Louisville, Kentucky, each spring. He is also the managing director of the Kentucky High School Invitational Basketball Tournament which has been held in Louisville each year during the Christmas holiday season. Since the Tournament was inaugurated by the Kentucky Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1952.

When Western athletic events were first broadcast in the radio days of the 1930's, Thompson was on almost every sport-school, football, baseball and basketball. He handled the microphone for the year. An accomplished speaker, each year he is called on for any number of addresses at numerous graduation exercises, athletic banquets, civic meetings, etc. While a student at Western, Thompson won every oratorical contest held at the college. On one occasion after winning statewide recognition in oratorical competition he was called on to deliver an oration before Kentucky's General Assembly at Frankfort.

Since November 19, 1953, the duties of the president of Western have been handled by Thompson. On that date, President Paul L. Garret, whose term was to expire in May 1954, was stricken in his office with a brain stroke. President Garrett was satisfactorily recovering and had begun to assume some of his duties when he died very suddenly at his home in May 1954, and broke his hip. The Western President died on February 28, 1955. On March 28, 1955, the college's Board of Regents unanimously named Thompson the acting president of Western based on his long-time service in handling the college's affairs. At that time he has been functioning as the president of Western. Under his leadership a campus-wide maintenance and repair program has been started at the College. All major buildings have undergone necessary repair with Potter Hall, dormitory for men being completely remodeled. Negotiations have been completed for the construction during this school year of two new dormitories for men which will house some 450 men. The dormitories will greatly alleviate the housing problem at Western which has become acute with the rapidly rising enrollment.

Thompson, in addition to being a member of Kiwanis International, is a member of the American Legion, the 40 & 8, the Kentucky Education Association and the National Democratic Club. He and his wife, Sarah, live at 1450 Chestnut Street with their three children, Patty, Hardin and Kelly Jr. Patty, 19, is a senior at Western and Hardin, 17, is a freshman at Western. Kelly Jr., 9, is the third grade.

Dorothy Grider Writes New Book

Dorothy O'Gara, a native of Bowling Green, and a graduate of Western's M.A. in English, has written and illustrated a new book for children called Back and Forth. The book was published by Lippincott September 1.

The title of Miss Grider's new book refers to the constant traffic which she observes on the New Hope, Pa., Lancasterville, N. J., bridge from the window of her studio in Berks County, Pennsylvania. The author-illustrator explains that she wanted children to understand the interdependence of the country and the city and how the trams, buses and trucks, as well as the bridge itself, keep communities provided with the essential goods of life.

In addition to her writing career, Miss Grider is an artist and photographer. She has studied at the Phoenix Art Institute in New York and at the Academy de Grande.

Lucky Drodles! Lucky Drodles! YEA!

常德一: What's this?

For solution, see paragraph below.

A flight of imagination prompted the Drodles above—it's titled: Flying saucer with Lucky-smoking crew. But it's a down-to-earth fact that Luckyies taste better than any other cigarettes—and for down-to-earth reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that light, mild tobacco is toasted to taste even better...cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, "Glursh!" (In saucer language, that means, "For taste that's out of this world, light up a Luckyy")

THE FATE of Scott Carr and Bob Henley, candidates for Student Class President, will be decided today. Election for class officers is being held in the snack bar from 9-10 A.M.

Seniors Cast Votes Today

Seniors are casting their votes that will determine the course of their campus life. The voting pool is in the snack bar and will be open until 10 A.M. At their first class meeting, October 12, seniors nominated Bob Henley, Elizabeth McWhorter, Henry Austin, and Scotty Carr for class president. A primary election was scheduled for the next Friday, October 22.

On the eve of the primary, McWhorter, Carr, and Austin found out on the radio that their platforms had been destroyed. In an interview with a Herald reporter, Henley, an English major, stated that he felt "dreadfully disappointed" at the destruction of the election outcome. Henley further stated, "I'm not backed by a large group of students, and the class will be run by the individual class members."

Asked about his qualifications for the office, Henley said, "I know more seniors personally, and I have a stronger influence on their participation in class activities." He also added, "I'm active in athletic clubs, as well as in student activities, and I feel that I represent the average college student." Henley feels that his opponent will be "a puppet in the hands of a certain individual."

Henley pledged to support the class in all activities, regardless of the outcome of the election.
