SNEA Charter Presented To Education Council

The Education Council held its last and most important meeting Thursday night, January 31 for the purpose of being presented the Charter of the Lee Francis Jones College of Education Association.

In charge of the presentation of the Charter was Mr. Horace Banks, Consultant in the Service Education in the State Department of Education. Mr. Banks presented the Charter to the Council present at the meeting.

Mr. N. E. Leunig, who later presented it, served as acting president for him. Several speeches were then made, and the Charter was placed in the hands of the group: Edwin Leunig, president; William Gibson, vice-president; Marilyn Harrison, second and last member of the group. Sandra Jenkins, secretary; Charlene Turner, treasurer; Pat Mill, librarian; Dorothy Pearl, Librarian; and Sandra Jenkins, presented the Charter to the group, and each member signed it. Each charter member and guest was seated on the Charter which is to be framed and placed in the Office of the Department of Education offices.

President Kelly Thompson, after giving a brief address as guest speaker, Miss Louise Johnson, the Dean of Education, read and presented the Charter of the Lee Francis Jones College of Education Association. Miss Coombs returned her A. B. in 1932.

This was the first charter granted to an N. E. A. organization in the state of Kentucky. There are over 20 similar groups in the county. This group is open to all those affiliated in Education as a profession. A reception and a social hour followed the meeting.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. MOORE

In the death of Mrs. Earl A. Moore, Western and Bowling Green suffered a great loss. During the time that she was an assistant in the English department, she was willing at all times to give her time and energy to help with any and all matters. We extend our deepest sympathy to her family.

Mrs. Moore spent many of her years in the profession of teaching and attended all the teaching schools of Aliquippa and New Castle, Pa., and General College, Beaver Falls, Pa., where she later served as a teacher for several years.

Before assisting in the English department of Western, she founded the department of English at Bowling Green Normal University. Mrs. Moore was also active in the community, serving as a member of the Bowling Green Presbyterian Church, until recently she served as the Ladies Bible Class teacher.

Looking Backward

ONE YEAR AGO... Eddie Gibb Jr. named coach at College Hill... Western won first in debate tourney... Work is started on the new dormitory.

TWO YEARS AGO... Dr. A. M. Bickett retired after serving Western for 46 years... The 4th Kentucky Industrial Exposition and the Col. Hans Kolm returned to Western BOTC department.

THREE YEARS AGO... First of three education meetings held at Bowling Green... Founder's Day program for 26 years or more of service... Coach Gibb achieves his 100th victory. First Western All-Round... Col. Harry G. Craver, assumed duties as professor of Air Science and Tactics... The College Heights Foundation celebration.

It has been said that one word, to be happy is to have one or more people, many people, who are happy in our lives. Some of us might think that this is an overstatement, but I believe that it is true. For many people, happiness is not just a feeling, but a way of life.

One of the many people who brought happiness to Bowling Green was Mrs. Moore. She was a kind and caring person who always had a smile on her face and a kind word for everyone. She was a true friend to everyone at Western, and her presence will be missed by all who knew her.

Selling to management is perhaps the best training for management, and it's the reason Gene McGraw joined IBM. Today, he possesses a thorough practical Business Administration education, responsibility, and an excellent income—all at age 27. Read about an unusual career.

What's it like to be an IBM Salesman?

You're Gene McGraw—high school football and class officer. You won a scholarship and went through Princeton on the top third of your class, managed varsity track...commanded an artillery battery in Korea..."When that guy's name comes up on your call sheet, you'd better handle this kind of selling—IBM machines are as much an idea as a product"—promised to occupy every talent he possessed. Recently, he's learned that "no other form of training produces so many top businessmen."

MEETS IBM REPRESENTATIVE

Out of the Army in 1945, Gene met an IBM representative. It sounded like opportunity. A few interviews later, Gene was sure that selling was one of the many jobs he felt he could handle, this kind of selling—IBM machines are as much an idea as a product—promised to occupy every talent he possessed. Recently, he's learned that "no other form of training produces so many top businessmen."

GROSS OUTLINES PROGRAMMING TEST

Then began a 12-months' training program marked by merit salary increases. First—3 months' schooling and observing operations in Pittsburgh (Gene's hometown). Next—2 months studying the applications of IBM's electronic data processing machines in business, science, government, and defense. Followed by 7 months' practical training in the field, with customer contact. Followed by IBM's famous course in selling methods. Finally, assignment to a sales territory near Pittsburgh, responsible for about 14 companies and their executives who used IBM equipment, and a dozen or so more who were logical prospects for it.

Hilltoppers Meet Murray Tomorrow; OCU Next Foe

The Murray State Thoroughbred visit College Heights tomorrow night to meet the Hilltoppers for what should be a highly rated middle of the season game. In their previous meeting at Murray, the Hilltoppers took the Thoroughbreds 87-77, although Murray led to 59 with 32 to win 32 before the Clarks were dropped from National rating in the 5th week. This was followed by the United Press and was tied for first place in the OVC. Murray, tonight, is expected by the home-town squads to be tipped by Morehead 106-108 in their last home game.

The Topper are going into this game in a 13-12 win over breeding in Memphis State 86-84 at Memphis University Hall. In the previous season meeting our squads are 8-3 and 8-3, to the slender lead shown to Gerald Tabor a 6'3" jr. who led the way with 22 points getting 20 of them from the field. Tabor was followed by Margaret, Wrappay, and Daniels, getting 13 points each. Lawless led for the Topper with 23 points with all three players starting in the double figure. In that game Western showed quick lead being unable to do more than hold the first 2 quarters of the game. Tomorrow night Western is meeting a team that has worked hard to lose them but one that is always a threat to them and their standings.

OKLAHOMA CITY NICE Next Monday night the Hilltoppers will get their chance at a taste of revenge when they cross the hallmark of the Oklahoma City Claremont who are currently paced as one of the nation's top college powers. The ragy Claremonts, in all probability the tallest cage power in the country at 6'8", was followed by Margaret, Wrappay, and Daniels, getting 13 points each. Lawless led for the Topper with 23 points with all three players starting in the double figure. In that game Western showed quick lead being unable to do more than hold the first 2 quarters of the game. Tomorrow night Western is meeting a team that has worked hard to lose them but one that is always a threat to them and their standings.

Diddle Sr. Whips Diddle Jr.

79-72 In First Meeting

Western's rejuvenated Diddle Sr. ran headfirst into another band of bandits drawn to Kentucky and barely managed to eke out a 79-72 win on a string of baskets. Eddie Diddle, Jr, had his way with 9 points, as did his father who poured in 15 points in the closing minutes of both periods and 3 points in the last 15 minutes of the game itself. The Diddles poured in 59 points at 79-49 before Lawson and Barnes, and the final 15 minutes of the game away.

A truly high-flown OVC ill marked the first time in the history of basketball where the father and son played against each other in regular roles with a major college involved, and to date, under no circumstances. The trick, picked up from his father's playbook, was to use the first stage to control the game and use the second period to knock them nine points.

The Diddles, in a well orchestrated Western, by virtue of 22 per cent field goal accuracy and 41 per cent in the first stanza and rear.

Crostbwaite Hits 32 In DePaul Win

Western Kentucky, riding a 21-point outburst against Robert Crosthwaite, whipped DePaul 85-78, in an overtime, personal Chicago week. The game was played in Corcoran Fieldhouse.

The Diddles, for a given point in the closing 15 minutes, at the Demont at 79-71 tied the game and took over the overtimes. Crosthwaite and Robert Crosthwaite, for the Topper, off the boards lead his charge in the overtime and found himself once again leading the game and totaling 32 points, including a 10-point lead in the 15 minutes of the game.

The Demont 'Gold Dust Twins' took over in the overtime and found themselves tied at 1 point and 5 points, racking up the Topper with 7 points in the second stanza and Bowers, and the DePaul guards pushing them into 5 points and 1 point.

Western's coasting break of the game came on the 19 points, remaining when Diddle, a senior, on the top of everyone's Topper grading, DePaul's All-American candidate Crosthwaite, who finished with 10, Crosthwaite, firing his second aid men, and a number of the second quickly took up the slack and Crosthwaite, with 32 recoveries and 3 points and 30 points for the game, honored the DePaul coaches for their efforts.

Eric Brevs added prestige to his fine season, by capping off a streak of 342 and a possible national record should he maintain that.

Senior home economics majors doing off-campus teaching this sem- ster under the supervision of Miss Marie Blomberg, Cof- gons, are Elaine Carroll, Leitchfield, and Poy Weller, Bardstown.

8 From College High To Play With State High School Orchestra

Eight students at College High School have been selected to per- form with the Kentucky High School Orchestra in concert Fri- day night, February 8, at University of Kentucky Memorial Colise- um.

The program, to be directed by David Hopperman, director of the College High School band and symphony orchestra, is sponsored by the Ken- tucky Music Educators Associ- ation and the University of Ken- tucky.

Appearing from here will be Bryan Hausman, Peggy Craig, Neil Myers, Audie Ward and Mary Jane Knight, violins; Cheryl Leigh Ross, viola; Phyllis Dela- nay, cello, and Emmspope, piano.

Basketball Homecoming Tomorrow Night

Basketball Queen To Reign At Game

Western's 1964 basketball home- coming queen will be crowned to- morrow night during halftime of game. Finalists for the nomination for basketball queen were voted on in chapel last Wednesday morn- ing. The three finalists were Joyce Kelly, a senior from Burlington; Doris Havens, a junior from Lew- isburg; and Phyllis Roberts, a sopho- more from Martin. It is a tradition for Phi Delta Kappa to change the selection of the queen and crown- ing of the basketball homecom- ing queen.

IT'S FOR REAL!

by Chester Field

"Now there's an interesting fact—
Ugly, but not commonplace...-
Full of charm, I must admit...-
Why on earth can't women see
All the things I see in me?"
