The best in the nation!

Herald wins the Pulitzer Prize of college journalism

The award is recognized as one of the best college newspapers in America, has won a regional Pacemaker every year since 1981. That honor has put the paper in the National Pacemaker Hall of Fame.

The Herald also took fourth place for Best of Show. That competition is open to all college newspapers that have delegates attending the Chicago convention, which drew about 2,000 college journalists.

The Talisman took fifth place Best of Show yearbook category. Cheryl Edwards was the editor. Doug Tatum and Tanya Bricking were Herald editors.

A BIG congrats to the Herald and Talisman.

PRSSA meets Wednesday; promotions manager to speak

The Public Relations Student Society of America will meet 6:30 p.m. Wednesday. The guest speaker is Patricia Mitchamore, special promotions manager of Jack Daniel's Distillery.

PRSSA president Eric Davis and chapter adviser John Barnum attended the National PRSSA Conference in Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24-25.

During an awards presentation, Davis received a National President's Citation. Dr. Robert Blann was also honored as a former PRSSA national faculty adviser, a position he held in 1978.

In addition, Western was recognized as only one of six universities in the nation that has had two national PRSSA presidents. They were Chuck Hartlage (1989) and Daniel S. Pelino (1978).

The Kelly Thompson Chapter of PRSSA would like to welcome its new members.

They are Bob Blackford, Claude Bacon, Kathy Baker, Stacey Burton, James Campbell, Chris Collins, Dora Epley, Susan Flanders, Wayne Hallett, Amanda Helsley, Julie Hickman, Carrie Hughes, Brandy James, Kim Mann, Kenneth Mauk, Cynde Sue Neal, Lisa Robertson, Davis Smith, Mark Sullivan, Nicole Walker, Jennifer Waller and Terri Winchell.
