4-12-1993

UA68/13/4 The Link, Vol. 3, No. 13

WKU Journalism

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc ua_records

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, Mass Communication Commons, and the Public Relations and Advertising Commons

Recommended Citation

http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc ua_records/3304

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.
Write, edit, shoot, sell, layout

Want to do any of those things? Just apply to work for the Herald and Talisman next semester.

Both publications are accepting applications for the fall semester.

All slots — including Herald editor and Talisman editor — are open.

If you are interested in a career in journalism or sales, the Herald and Talisman provide the opportunity to hone your professional skills. You don't need to have any experience to work on the publications, although the Herald recommends students take basic reporting before applying.

Applying for Herald and Talisman editor are due 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Applications for reporters, editors, photographers, advertising manager, advertising sales, advertising production and artists and editorial cartoonist are due following Wednesday.

Applications are available in 122 Garrett Center.

Western’s PRSSA chapter named best in the district

Members of PRSSA recently attended the East Central District Conference in Indianapolis, Ind. During the awards ceremony, Western’s Kelly Thompson Chapter received five awards, including the Outstanding Chapter in the district. John Barnum was recognized as Outstanding Faculty Adviser and George Kolbenslag received an award for Outstanding Professional Adviser.

Rob Blackford, Matt Williams and Dora Epley were given East Central District Director’s Citations for their contributions to PRSSA. Congratulations to all winners!

In other PRSSA news;

• 1993-94 officers are Heather Hauer, president; Karen Moss, vice president; Kevin Lloyd, agency director; Rebecca Flynn, program director; Dora Epley, public relations director; and Wayne Hallett, national liaison.

• The last PRSSA meeting of the semester is 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 21 in the PR lab. Rob Blackford will conduct a seminar on resumes and interviewing skills.

Journalism honor society inducts six students April 1

Six students were inducted into Kappa Tau Alpha, the national journalism scholarship society April 1.

New members are Deirdre Eitel and Toni Lynn Sandys, photojournalism; Cara Anna, Tricia Carter Brown and Ray Thomas Mills, print; and Cindy Ford, public relations.

Officers for 1993-94 are Ford, president; Sandys, vice president; and Lori Flood, an advertising major, secretary.

Batters, Nations to attend Derby journalism seminar

Tom Batters and Jeff Nations have been selected to attend the Kentucky Derby Collegiate Sports Journalism seminar at Churchill Downs April 23 and 24.

The two sports writers will hear several sports journalists talk about covering athletics. Speakers include Jim McKay of CBS Sports and Billy Reed of Sports Illustrated.

Got an internship or a job?
Let the Link know. We’ll be printing the annual internship roll call in the next issue.