Western Kentucky University is located in Bowling Green, a progressive and fast-growing southern Kentucky city of 36,000 residents. Easily accessible, the city is served by air, rail, and bus lines. U.S. Highway 31W and Interstate 65 intersect with U.S. Highway 68 and 231 at Bowling Green, and the main line of the L & N Railroad passes through the city. Three bus lines serve the community and Eastern Air Lines has scheduled flights north and south each day from the city airport.

Western's undergraduate division provides four-year programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Fine Arts, and the Bachelor of Music Degrees. Thirty-eight (38) academic majors, forty (40) academic minors, and thirteen (13) areas of concentration are available. Three general curricula—arts and science, teacher education and special studies—are provided. Moreover, there are a number of professional and pre-professional curricula.

The College of Education:
Departments of Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Psychology, Industrial Education, Home Economics, Physical Education, Health and Recreation; other areas include the Laboratory School, School Administration Programs, Reading Services, Educational Research, Counselor Education, and Audio-Visual Aids Services.

The College of Liberal Arts:
Departments of Art, English, Foreign Languages, History, Music, Philosophy and Religion, and Speech and Theatre.

The Ogden College of Science and Technology:
Departments of Agriculture, Biology, Chemistry, Geography and Geology, Mathematics, Physics and Astronomy, and Engineering Technology Programs.

Other Distinctive Programs:
In addition to the departments listed under the Colleges, three departments (Nursing, Library Science, and Military Science) are directed by the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Instruction. Pre-professional and professional curricula are available in several areas.

The Graduate School:
The expanding Graduate School offers nine graduate degrees and participates in joint doctoral programs with the University of Kentucky and with George Peabody College for Teachers.

The Bowling Green College of Commerce:
Departments of Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, Government, Sociology and Anthropology, and Office Administration.

The Potter College of Liberal Arts:
Departments of Art, English, Foreign Languages, History, Music, Philosophy and Religion, and Speech and Theatre.
