10-15-1935

UA37/23 WHAS Broadcast No. 4

WHAS
Western Kentucky University
Earl Moore

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc ua_records

Part of the Broadcast and Video Studies Commons, Christianity Commons, Higher Education Administration Commons, Mass Communication Commons, Public Relations and Advertising Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
WHAS; Western Kentucky University; and Moore, Earl, "UA37/23 WHAS Broadcast No. 4" (1935). WKU Archives Records. Paper 4212.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc ua_records/4212

This Transcription is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.
Strings and Voices "College Heights."

Moore

Western Kentucky State Teachers College. We greet you all both great and small with the words of our college motto — —

Voices

Life More Life.

Vibraphone

Chords.

Moore

We inaugurate to-day a series of programs which will come to you directly from the Western studio in Van Meter Hall on the college campus each Tuesday at this hour. We hope to entertain you, sometimes to bring you information, sometimes to amuse you, to share with you worthwhile music and drama—in fact, to come to you on the air with anything we can that will make life richer for you. We shall try to be true to our college motto—Life More Life.

Throughout its history Western has maintained the custom of assembling the students once each school day in a convocation. These chapel exercises long ago became traditional and stand out in the memories of thousands of students as among the most pleasant hours of their college life. The program varies widely from day to day, but there is always something for entertainment and intellectual and spiritual growth. The students have just now assembled for to-day's convocation. It will be your privilege to join them. Dr. H. H. Cherry, President of Western Teachers College, will, as usual, be presiding. He is widely known as an educator. For many years he has been an important factor in educational development in Kentucky. He is known personally to many thousands who love him for his unfailing vitality always generously expended in behalf of the highest ideals in education.

He has the distinction of being one of not more than three teachers college presidents in the United States who have served their institutions continuously since their founding.

We now take you into the auditorium. The next voice you hear will be that of Dr. Cherry.

Buzz of conversation.

We shall sing No. 72.

"O Come, All Ye Faithful."

Dr. Ford will lead the devotions.

I shall read the First Psalm. "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in His law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous, but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

Almighty and everlasting God, we bow humbly before Thee in prayer and supplication. We thank Thee for Thy lovingkindness and tender mercies. We thank Thee for the teachings of Thy servant David and for the words of hope and encouragement for godly men and women. Show us the way of wisdom and of understanding. Teach us to seek righteousness and make us fruitful in the pursuit of intellectual and spiritual development. Help us to so live that the ungodly may see the error of their ways and turn to the pathways of righteousness and be fruitful also.

Wilt Thou grant a generous measure of hope and encouragement to all of those who have gone forth from this presence into their several fields of work. Be ever present with them and strengthen them and make them fruitful. And teach us all to pray. "Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen."

6:43 Dr. Cherry
   Dean Grise will make the announcements.
Grise
(Announcements).

7:43 Dr. Cherry
   Dr. Richards, let us have a song.
Richards
No. 26. 25
Audience
"My Old Kentucky Home."

9:13 Dr. Cherry
   Dr. Richards, do you have any special musical numbers by students?
Richards
   Mr. C. O. Evans, Jr., will sing "Friend" by Davies,
      Miss Taylor at the piano.
Evans
"Friend."
Audience
Applause.
(Address)
Audience
Applause.
Dr. Cherry
I am asking Professor Strahm to play the "Normal March."
Strahm
"Kentucky State Normal March."
Audience
Applause.
Dr. Cherry
Do you have other students to present today, Dr. Richards?
Richards
Mr. Charles Magurean, trumpeter, will play "Brown's Autograph Polka" by Casey, Miss Taylor at the piano.
Magurean
"Brown's Autograph Polka."
Audience
Applause.
Richards
No. 52.
Audience
"Juanita."
Richards
No. 32.
Audience
"Carry Me Back to Old Virginny."
Richards
No. 42.
Audience
"Sweet and Low."
Richards
No. 25: 26
Audience
"Old Black Joe."
Strings
"College Heights."

You have been listening to daily chapel exercises of Western Kentucky State Teachers College, at Bowling Green, including besides devotions, announcements, and music a brief address by President Cherry. We invite you to be with us next Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, when a studio program will be presented. Earl A. Moore speaking.

We wish you Life More Life.